Caution: Young Artists at Work Art Education Fund at Hopewell

We have received an anonymous gift of $500 to begin a scholarship fund that will defray the cost of admissions and supplies for student art workshops here at Hopewell.

Currently, we charge $1 per student as an admission/supply fee. Even that small amount becomes an issue for teachers to collect and students to pay.

Last year, we provided classes for 1600 students. We would like to grow our fund to cover all who want to come. A typical class size is 30 students and we are looking for donors to sponsor one class. . .or several! Your gift is tax-deductible, so call the office at 859-987-7274 for further information.

Strategic Planning

Our two strategic planning sessions are completed and we have committees working to finish the process with a concise set of goals and objectives for the next five years. Thanks to Lori Garkovich, UK professor in community & leadership development, for leading the planning, and to our board, members, and community friends who provided their input.
