SENIOR CLASS OF PARIS HIGH SCHOOL

We The Members Of The Senior Class Of

1950

DEDICATE

This Annual To

Our Principal

MR. WILLIAM F. RUSSELL

Mr. Russell came to our school in 1948. He entered immediately into the midst of our school life. He has put energy, intellect and interest into every phase of our school. We the Seniors of 1950, in dedicating this annual to Mr. Russell, wish to express our gratitude and sincere appreciation for his service.

IN TRIBUTE TO

MRS. MAUDE BRIGGS

The Seniors of 1950 wish to pay tribute to Mrs. Maud Briggs. The members of our class were the last students she taught at Paris High and we would like to take this opportunity to thank her.

Not only was Mrs. Briggs interested in teaching us but in our lives also. Mrs. Briggs' kindly attitude won for her the admiration and respect of everyone with whom she came in contact.

We shall remember you always, Mrs. Briggs, as our devoted friend and teacher.

WE'VE RACKED OUR BRAINS, TIME AND AGAIN,
WONDERING HOW WE WOULD BEGIN,
SO IN THIS POEM YOU READ TODAY,
DON'T BE SURPRISED AT WHAT WE SAY.

WE LOVED EVERY MINUTE OF OUR FIRST YEAR,
AND THOUGHT OUR TEACHERS SO VERY DEAR.
IT WAS FUN TO READ BEN AND ALICE, TOO-
BUT MORE IMPORTANT THINGS WE WERE YET TO DO.

OUR SECOND YEAR WAS PACKED WITH THRILLS
AND FUSSES, FIGHTS, FALLS AND SPILLS.
TWO OF OUR TEACHERS, MRS. TALBOTT AND MRS. MEAD, TAUGHT US SOME MORE OF HOW TO READ.

IT WAS IN THE THIRD THAT WE ALL GOT BLUE,
FOR NOW WE HAD TO STAY TILL HALF PAST TWO.
THERE WERE SPELLING BEES AND MAPS TO DRAW,
AND THIS MEANT MORE WORK FOR ONE AND ALL.

BUT IN THE FOURTH WE WERE REALLY IT,
FULL OF PEP AND PLENTY FIT.
'T WAS HERE WE HAD OUR FIRST BASKETBALL TEAM,
THOSE CUTE LITTLE CHEERLEADERS WERE REALLY SUPREME.

IN OUR FIFTH YEAR OF SCHOOL,
WE LEARNED TO LIVE BY THE GOLDEN RULE.
WE STUDIED MORE AND MORE EACH DAY,
SPENDING OUR TIME IN A MORE USEFUL WAY.

OUR SIXTH YEAR OF SCHOOL THEN BEGUN,
WE HAD PLENTY OF WORK ALONG WITH OUR FUN.
WE ALL LOOKED FORWARD TO THE PASSING OF MAY,
BECAUSE NEXT WOULD COME GRADUATION DAY.

WE THEN BEGAN OUR FIRST YEAR IN JUNIOR HIGH
WE WANDERED AROUND, EACH GIVING A SIGH.
WE HAD STARTED THE YEAR WITH GREAT HOPES,
NOW WE ALL FELT LIKE COMPLETE DOPES.

IN THE EIGHTH GRADE WE HAD LEARNED WHAT TO DO,
WE WERE NOW CAPABLE OF PULLING THROUGH.
WE CAST OUR CARES TO THE REAR,
AND LOOKED FORWARD TO OUR FRESHMAN YEAR.

NOW AS FRESHMEN OUR ROLE WAS TWO FOLD
LEAVING JUNIOR HIGH, WE WERE ONE STEP NEARER OUR GOAL.
OUR SUBJECTS WERE NEW, OUR CLASSES SEEMED HARDER,
WITH VIEWS OF SENIOR HIGH OUR AMBITIONS GREW LARGER.

SUBDUED FOR MAYBE A DAY, AND A LITTLE SHY,
THE NEXT YEAR WE ENTERED SENIOR HIGH.
THIS WAS THE YEAR THE TWO ROSES CAME,
TO ADD MUCH TO OUR HIGH SCHOOL FAME.

AS JUNIORS WE HAD A MORE DIGNIFIED AIR,
AND TO THE SOPHOMORES WE NOW GAVE A DISDAINFUL STARE.
WITH TWELVE OF US BETAS, AND EIGHT PLAYING BASKETBALL,
GAVE A FEELING OF PRIDE TO ONE AND ALL.

AND NOW WE HAVE REACHED OUR LONG-SOUGHT GOAL,
AS FIFTY-TWO SENIORS ARE NOW ON OUR ROLE.
WE'VE MADE OUR RECORD, AND OUR DAY HAS PAST,
AND NOW TO THE FUTURE OUR DIE IS CAST

BELLS WILL RING ON, BOTH SCHOOL AND WEDDING,
WE NOW LEAVE OUR HIGH SCHOOL DAYS, REGRETTING
THAT OUR HAPPY CAREFREE DAYS NOW END,
THE BEST OF HAPPINESS TO ALL WE NOW SEND.

The sixty-eight of us started to school in September
We are proud of our very large number.
The Sophomores are full of ambition,
But in Senior Hi we hold the lowest position.
To the highest goals, we do strive
Wonder if we'll ever arrive.
We participate in many things,
But are unaware what the future brings.
Our Cheerleaders, Allen and Farris
Help lead the cheers for dear old Paris
With our Sophomores heroes, Doug and Glen
The old Paris Greyhounds are sure to win.
The Sophomores in our band number six
And they're always out there doing those tricks.
You must agree that Sophomores are swell,
So for them all let's give a yell.

Bj.S.

The Paris High School football team had a very good season considering the fact that they had very few lettermen back from the preceeding year. The season started off well by defeating the first three teams played. Luck seemed to go against them after this and they won only one other game.

Tommy Mitchell

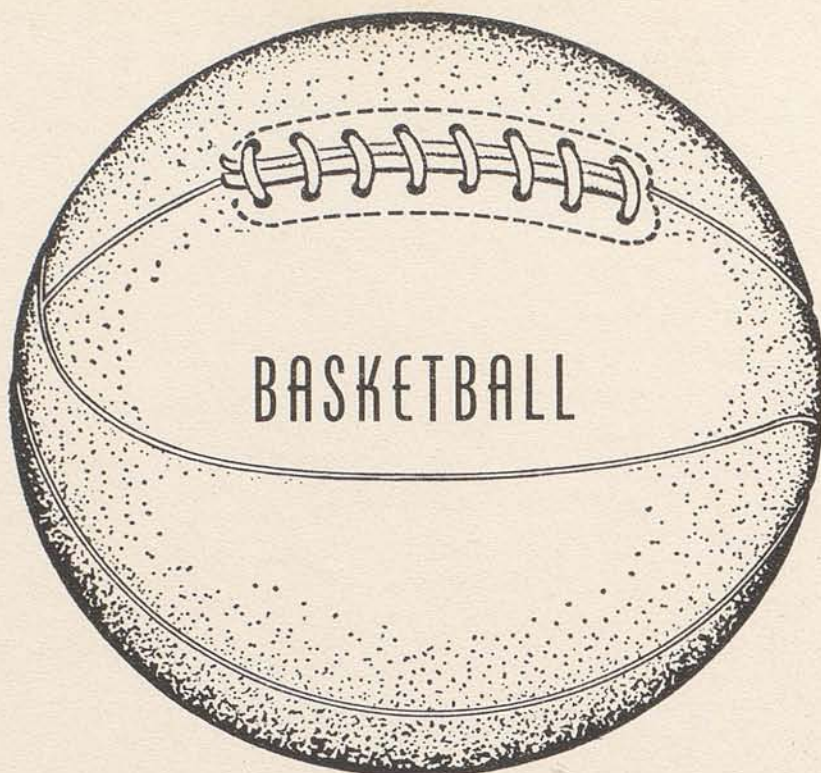

Although very small Tommy was a good sport and a great help to the team. He was always willing to do his share no matter how large the opposition or how small his task.

Billy Hall

Hall could always be counted on for a rough and clean fought game. He was a good blocker and one of the best offensive men on the team. He won honorable mention All State for his Junior and Senior years. He was also co-captain.

Larry Hennessey

Dude was one of our best players. He received honorable mention for All State. He was our quarter back and co-captain.

During the Basketball season of '49 and '50 the Paris Greyhounds established one of the best high school records in the state by winning twenty six games and losing only three. Led by Coach Jimmy Rose the Greyhounds have beaten many top teams in the state and won the Central Kentucky Conference.

Coach Rose, who will leave the coaching circle to study for Christian

Youth work, has won seventy three games and lost only fourteen games in his three years coaching job at Paris.

This year the Greyhounds have beaten such top teams as Pikeville, Owensboro, Louisville Manual, and Ashland. The Greyhounds won the District Tournament and advanced to the finals of the Regional, only to be beaten by Maysville - 45-41-

"Sweetwater" is probably one of the best ball handlers Paris Hi has ever seen. He was the pride of our team and the terror of our opponents.

The Paris Greyhound cage squad is taking on a new look with a pivot man that's under the six foot mark—probably the smallest pivot man in the state—yet who is undoubtedly the “jumpin'est” circle man that the majority of the state's teams have ever run up against.

Who is the “little” lad? Grab your baskets folks — it's none other than Eugene Cain. He's the new Greyhound pivot man. And he's doing a whale of a good job at it.

THE GREYHOUNDS

Since I was just a little lad,
I've heard folks brag and say
How everone knew how to shoot
Down Old Kentucky way.

Not only Dad and Son could shoot,
But also Sis and Mom.
They all could knock a squirrel's eye out
With a rifle called "Long Tom".

I guess this knack of shooting straight
When there were bear and deer
Was taught by fathers to their sons
Down through the many years.

Alas, the big game soon was gone,
So guns were laid away,
But still the boys to keep their aim,
Shot marbles every day.

Then came the basketball and net,
It was a shooting game,
It offered boys a lot of fun
If they had a deadly aim.

Then cam a guy named Jimmy Rose
To coach the Greyhound team,
And folks from everywhere soon found
His boys were on the beam.

They were as deadly with a ball
As others had been with a gun,
They'd shoot from every angle known
While they were on the run.

And soon their fame began to spread
And folks from here and there
Would huddle round the radio
When a game was on the air.

There is no greater thrill on earth-
My heart stops beating when
Rose's shot is on the rim, and off,
But Huston tips it in.

It's Cain to Hall and out to Rose
One minute left in the game,
But Rose is guarded, and cannot shoot,
And passes back to Cain.

Huston, Smith and back to Rose
And Rose he now gets set,
The ball, it swishes through the air
And drops down through the net.

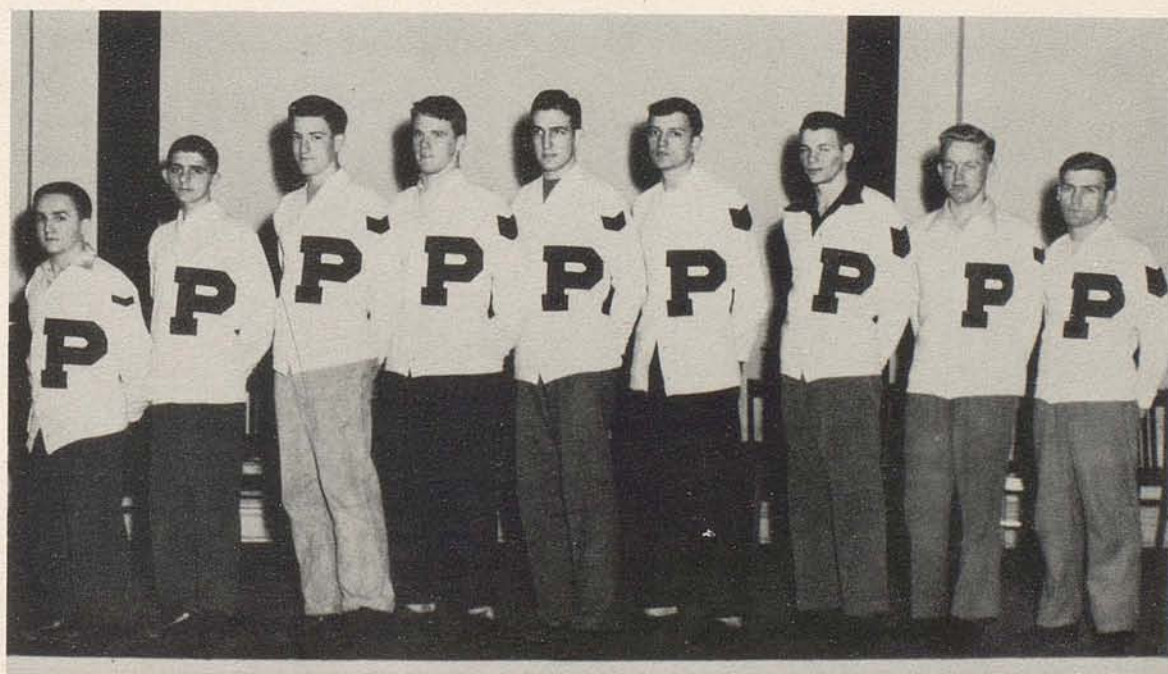

They're in there fighting, all the way,
Our Greyhounds, far from tame,
Ten seconds, five, and there's the gun,
They've won another game.

There are players everywhere galore,
But since the world began
There has never been a team so great,
Comparing man for man.

The world may stand a thousand years,
They still may play the game,
But there will never be a team
To match their speed and aim.

My heart is heave when I think-
A mist comes to my eyes-
That soon these Greyhound pals must part,
Shake hands and say goodbyes.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

John Ballard is quite a success with "Sleepy House". He is his own star boarder.

Mary Ann Lykins has made banks of money as Superintendent of Nurses at the newly erected City Hospital on High Street.

Although, the former Patsy Sue Mitchell, Mrs. Pete Herzog, didn't like noisy children, she doesn't mind them now.

The Wilson-Baird Cosmetics Company in New York City has made a fortune with their new cosmetics. Lucinda Wilson is President and Elise Baird is Vice-President.

Joe Singleton, after twenty years of trying, has finally graduated to the rank of Chief Car Desinger.

Junius Cooper finally decided he should try studying English XII. He is now going to Eastern State Teachers College and majoring in English.

The Mitchell-Hodge Opinion Poll (Tommy and Rex) just shocked the whole country with the amazing news that Ellis Hukill will be the next United States President.

The "Teeny Box" coffee shop, owned and operated by Sadie Mansfield and Katherine Kenny, is a howling success with the P. H. S. students of 1970.

The Fidgety-Fussy Old Maids Union 2222 has just named Little Cary Clay as the man with whom they would most like to be lost on a desert island. Club leaders are Jan Myers and Louise Wilson.

Martha Stewart has gone into business with her mother and their dresses are as beautiful as those of Paris Models.

Bruce Miller just won the title of "Mr. 'Atlas' America of 1970".

William Simos was only last week appointed Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. He got the appointment because he is a "Bigger Man" than any of the other judges. William Earl Wilson was nominated by Mr. W. S. as Superintendent of the (dreaded) Moon Bomb.

"If at first you don't succeed, try, try again" was Sylvia Lee Cohen's motto. After years of failure, she won a scholarship in Journalism.

Mrs. John Doe (Betty Joe Tune) and Mrs. James Dearing (Anne Simpson) lovingly work for their husbands every day in their offices.

Christine Leach runs around singing that old song of 1950, "All I Want For Christmas Is My Face Returned." She has visited Ruby Langfels's Beauty Salon.

The "Florida Times" reads, "Mrs. Eugene Cain, (Marion Clay) Home Economics teacher at the University of Kentucky, is visiting in Miami to see her (Pro-Basketball) husband, Tooney Cain in the Kentucky-Florida all state game."

Coach Gayle Rose and Mrs. Rose (Mary D. Everman) can't understand why their two children, who are now students of P. H. S., are so wild.

In an interview with Mrs. James Coons (Patsey Harney) and Mrs. Robert Sturgeon (Mattie Eades), they wholeheartedly exclaimed that every girl should be married.

Dr. Dorothy Laycock has been ousted from the Medical Profession for unlawfully extracting the wrong patient's appendix.

Football coach, Reville Goss, has just received an award for the "All State Football Coach of the Year" for Kentucky.

Betty Joe Mitchell has just won the "Dumbell Prize" for her outstanding poem-
Roses are red, violets are purple;

Sugar is sweet, and so is maple syruple.

Price Huston just won the World's Heavyweight crown from William Hall. It was an easy victory for "crusher" Huston.

Betty Jane (Lawrence) Franklin was stung (as we know) by the love bug while a senior in P. H. S. She is now happily married and living in Paris.

Betty Kelly has succeeded herself for the third time as a Kentucky senator. It seems she always had a temper and quite an ability to argue when she gets mad.

Sara Nell Bodkins spends most of her time chasing a "shmoo".

Mrs. Tollie Henry (Former Doris Connors) is busy raising "Little Henrys."

After having studied in Paris for the past ten years, Louise Brown fianlly broke down and married the "Rich Maharajah of Magadore".

Maragaret Russell has just written her latest book entitled, "My High School Life at P. H. S." or "Two Years in the Brain Factory."

Bob Colliver has made a million dollars with his "Chewing Gum, Chewer." You just put the gum in, swallow the whole thing, and it chews the gum for you in your stomach. Most of his customers are Miss Noland's speech students.

Our math teacher thought he had a terrible time with us in "1950". He should be at dear old P. H. S. now and try to teach our children as Kenneth Garrison "tries" to do.

James Shelton has been selected as "Outstanding Newspaper Man of the Year." He gained his title through delivering papers in high school and editing the Herald-Leader Paper.

Wornall-Forsythe Marriage Bureau has brought about the marriage of their 5000th couple. (William Wornall and Marjorie Forsythe run the agency.)

Gaylena Jones has won the title of "Miss Giggle Pop of the U. K. Campus" for the forth consecutive year.

Marian V. Robertson is now the director of the famous "Squeal and Holler Choir" at P. H. S. in Paris.

Johnny Howerton has taken the place of the great screen lover, Oh! Johnnie! When he is on the screen, nurses and doctors must be present because of the number of women fainting.

Helen Watson has just been given the title of "Miss Quiet." It seems that she hasn't spoken in fifteen years. (Must be the wrong Helen Watson.)

Recently there was a grand opening of the decorating shoppe, "Joan's Decorations." The Interior Decorator is Joan Burns.

I JUST CAN'T THINK

It is almost midnight, twenty minutes till, to be exact. The night is dark and sober. It is very still except for the rain pelting the roof top and trickling down the gutters. The entire household is asleep, that is everyone except me. What am I doing? I'm trying to think of a subject to write a theme on!

Let me see, I could write a poem. No, that would take me a year. I'll have to think of something that would be easy for me to write. I have some topics but I just can't use any of them.

'Tempus fugit' and still I can't think of a subject. What shall I do? I just can't give it up because I've never missed handing in a theme.

Maybe if I got up and paced the floor, scratching my head, I would think of one. That is a good idea! Some people think much better when they do that. On second thought I don't think I will pace the floor. Why? Because that floor is cold and I have a hard time getting my feet warm! Besides, I feel that I am taking a cold. Well, I talked myself out of that very quickly, didn't I?

I've got to get my mind back on my work. I could write on one of my relatives. No, I've already written a theme on my grandmother, and I think that is enough.

Maybe I'll write a love story and entitle it "John's Other Wife's, Brother's, Mother-in-law's, Cousin's, Niece." Nope, I can't do that! There are too many characters. I'd have to look up the family tree of all of John's and "his other wife's" relatives.

Should I give it up as a bad job and go on to bed? No! there's a voice within me that keeps saying, "Think! You're not so dumb that you can't think of a subject for a theme! You have never had any trouble before! Think!"

Believe me this is certainly a "midnight dreary" and I am certainly "pondering weak and weary"! Not over "many a quaint and curious volume of forgotten lore," but over a "measely" little old title for a theme.

Heavens! It's ten minutes after twelve, and still no subject. These themes every week are becoming a problem. Miss Noland will surely "fuss" at me if I don't have one and I don't want her to get mad at me so early in the morning. Well,---I could fall on my knees right in front of her and beg forgiveness for not writing a theme. No, that won't work, She might think I was mentally ill if I did such an eccentric thing.

I know! I could be the strong "ruff 'n tuff" type. I would walk up with one eyebrow raised, a frown on my face, and say in a gruff, unpleasant tone, "See here, Miss Noland, I didn't hand in a theme, see? I didn't write one because I couldn't think of a subject! See? So, just forget that I didn't hand in one, See?"

Oh no! that would never work and besides I could never do that to a teacher. I haven't got the nerve. I'll just have to struggle on!

It's twelve thrity, I'll just have to give it up. My poor bones are aching and I'm longing for sleep.

Oh! I just had a "brainstorm." It's a wonderful idea for a theme! Well, now I've waited too late. My brain is never on time. I'll have to write on that subject next week! Good night and very pleasant dreams!

ONE AFTERNOON WHEN THE GREYHOUNDS WERE PRACTICING PUNTING, A FOOTBALL SOARED THROUGH THE AIR AND LANDED IN A NEIGHBORING YARD WHERE SOME CHICKENS WERE SCRATCHING. A ROOSTER STUDIED THE FOOTBALL CAREFULLY AND REPLIED, "GIRLS, I'M NOT COMPLAINING Y' UNDERSTAND, BUT JUST LOOK AT THE WORK THEY'RE TURNING OUT NEXT DOOR!"

HEARD IN A BULL SESSION: AND IF THE PARACHUTE FAILS TO OPEN, THAT'S KNOWN AS JUMPING TO CONCLUSION.

MR. HODGE: "WELL'L-L NOT EXACTLY. I RUN THE BUSINESS AND MY SON DOES THE CARRYING ON."

BILLY HALL--"MISS NOLAND, WOULD NEON SIGNS BE CONSIDERED AS LIGHT READING MATTER?"

AT A RECENT P.T.A. TEA GIVEN FOR THE PARENTS MRS. PEED WAS GIVING LAST MINUTE INSTRUCTIONS TO THE GIRLS IN THE BETA CLUB WHO WERE SERVING.

MRS. REED--"NOW GIRLS BE CAREFUL AND DON'T SPILL ANYTHING."

AS THEY WILL ALL TRY THEIR BEST
TO MAKE THIS YEAR BETTER THAN THE REST.

THE EIGHTH GRADE

Once upon a time, about eight years ago,
 We entered elementary, known as "Murderers Row"
 Now we are the eighth grade, with a degree of fame
 And compared with Junior High, the first six years were tame.
 We've met our teachers and we get along quite well;
 Except when we're over anxious to hear the period bell.
 Of these names, I'm sure you've heard.
 They cheer our colors true.
 Fugate, Robertson, and Marshall
 Are all well known to you
 Without our boys the basketball team
 Would really be quite off the beam.
 So we trudge along our road, learning as we go,
 Leaving behind a record that we're sure will grow and grow.

THE SEVENTH GRADE

Now that we are in the Seventh Grade we have a few more privileges than when we were in grade school. This is our first time to change classes and have different teachers. They are Miss Purnell, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Shirley and Miss Mitchell. We have two Junior High cheerleaders chosen from the Seventh Grade, which are Patty Dotson and Billy Joe Harney. It was a great honor to have one of our Seventh Grade boys—Paul Humphrey—to get an honorable mention in the Junior High Speech Contest. We have met our quota in the Polio Fund, Junior Red Cross, Community Chest and have also filled boxes for the Junior Red Cross. We have taken part in all the different Junior High activities. We all agree that it is a privilege to be in Junior High School this year.

ORANGE AND BLACK

Orange and Black is the honor society of Paris Junior High School. This very inspirational and impressive ceremony, at which time those students selected for the honor of writing their names in the book, had its origin in 1928, just twenty two years ago.

The students are selected from each of the three Junior High groups by the faculty on the basis of scholarship, loyalty, leadership, activities, attitude, character, cooperation, and courage. The emblem which is a four-leaf clover having the letters S, A, L, and C stand for these qualities. It is an attempt to emphasize, encourage and recognize these traits which enter into the making of worthwhile citizens of the future.

In looking back over the long list of names enrolled in the Orange and Black Book over these twenty years, we see few who have failed live up to their trust. There are some who gave thier all in the last great war. There are well known lawyers, scientists, educators, West Point and Annapolis graduates, Phi Beta Kappas in colleges all over the country and many highly respected and useful citizens in the communtites where they are now living.

This class of 1950 has had an especially honored place in the annals of the book. They have played an improtant part in scholastic achievement, speech work, athletics, musical events, and helpful activities of the school. It will be of great interest to watch their successes and accomplishments in the future.

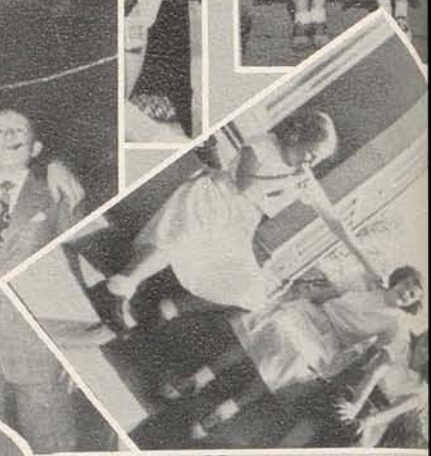

Those in the class of 1950 whose names appear in the book are: Lucinda Wilson, Louise Brown, Mary D. Everman, Bruce Miller, Martha Stewart, Ruby Langfels, Mattie Eades, Anne Marie Doyle, Ellis Hukill, and Billie Jane Shriver.
