The SNIPER

Published by the Senior Class
MILLERSBURG MILITARY INSTITUTE

For being the Father away from home to all cadets, for his untiring efforts to make our life here better and better, and for being the kind of man that we can all admire and respect, yet still being the friend of all, we the seniors of Millersburg Military Institute dedicate the 1956 SNIPER to

COLONEL LESLIE C. BLANKINSHIP

Col. Leslie C. Blankenship
President

Corps of Cadets
Millersburg Military Institute
Millersburg, Kentucky

Gentlemen:

We have worked together to learn of your interests and aptitudes and to help you acquire self-reliance without losing your humility. It is important that you continue to grow and to develop your self-control and the habit of considering others. Every man's mind commands his own destiny. For every accomplishment there is a price to pay - in money or time or sacrifice. You can be just what you want to be if you will pay the price.

As you continue to prepare yourself for active intelligent citizenship, draw yourself closer to God with a thorough knowledge of Him and provide for yourself the occasion to worship according to the dictates of your heart.

With the ending of another school year I congratulate you for a job well done.

Sincerely,
Leslie C. Blankenship

The 1955-56 basketball team is one of which the students and alumni can well be proud. We have played the top teams in the state and have more than held our own against them. At the time of this writing, the student body and the team is looking forward to the district and regional tournaments with a gleam in their eyes that is worth watching!!

M.M.I.'s 1954-55 track and field team was one of the most feared in the state. Every where you went the names of Everett, Nutter, Smith, Ross, and Merritt were well known. They truly lived up to their billing in Kentucky newspapers as "the big five." Together they accumulated enough points in the state track meet to place M.M.I. in fourth place. The coaches and students are looking forward to this spring's track meets with great anticipation as only two of this quintette were lost in the graduation class.

"More of the Same"

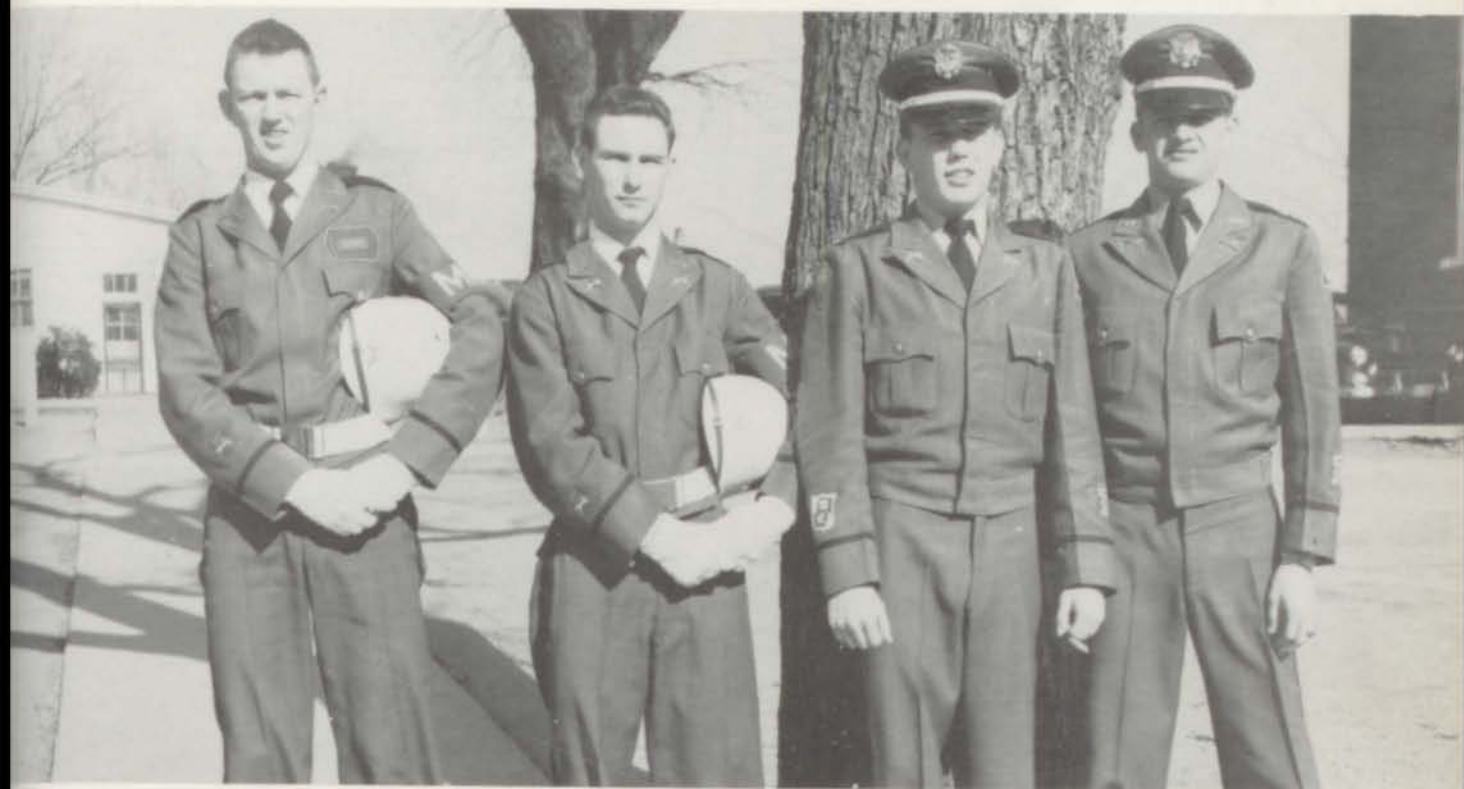

LARRY NUTTER and WALTER WOOD

This year for the first time, there has been a post graduate school here. These men are not the same as the Cadets as they are not subject to Cadet Regulations and are more of a faculty status. This year we had two "P.G.'s" and they have done a fine jobs of assisting the faculty in the handling of the Cadet Corps.

"Who's Who"
and
"The Truth About the Matter"

ATTENTION:

Walter Wood—Who really stole Colonel's watermelons? It wasn't J. Lockard.

"Magoo" Nall—Did you really try to catch the flying alarm clock.

Does John Carter really ask 1000 questions a day? No, 2000 . . .

Quisenberry—Comedian or Square? 50-50.

Are those extras that leave the table with various faculty members really fed to innocent animals or are they devoured during a mid night movie?

Weber—is in real life a tea drinking, museum visiting, concert loving square.

Was Capt. Hodgkinson really the Calabanion Shakespeare's original presentation of the "Tempest"?

Is Miss Porter really Amelia Earhart with a case of amnesia?

Witham—Are you going to sell the station wagon back to Colonel?

Stark—Who were you hiding when you locked Animal out of your room?

Major Turner—Did you really plant that flack in your Bible?

Witham—Is in real life the wrecker of happy marriages such as Haag and Robert Taylor.

Nutter—You should be ashamed of yourself, two-timing Connie Jo!

Everett—What thrill do you get from sleeping with a discus.
