The Parisian 57
Edited By
The Senior Class
Paris High School
Paris, Ky.
DEDICATION

We the Seniors of 1957 wish to dedicate our Annual to Mrs. Clay. Not only in our Senior year but in all our years of school, she has given up her time to help us in any detail. By the dedication of this Annual we wish to express our respect and affection for her.

APPRECIATION

We the Seniors of 1957 take this opportunity to express our appreciation to the coaches. Their fine leadership, both on the field and off, have given us a goal to strive for in our own life.

SENIOR POEM

We, the Seniors of '57
Do take our pens in hand,
To tell you of the fears and joys,
With which our school began.

In '46 we came aboard
As jolly youngsters gay;
We laughed and played and talked a lot
And still remain today.

Our grade school days were full of fun,
Our teachers we liked too,
But we were constantly on the prowl
For something new to do.

In Junior High we changed a lot,
For 'growing up' was the thing,
That made the teachers all look out
And drove them most insane.

As 10th graders we were called
Silly Sophomores, who -
Were looked down on by the Seniors,
As today, of course, we do.

Miss Lavin taught us Latin well,
As Betsy Brooks her Spanish,
But oh those Geometry text books,
How often we wished they'd vanish!

The smells from out the Chemistry Lab
Made everyone grow dizzy,
But then we all just smiled and said*
Oh well, it's just Miss Issy!

Mr. Finley came to all of us,
A teacher and a friend,
And made us wish, day after day
That more, like him, they'd send,

Pops, our lighthearted principal
Joked with but loved by all,
And we'll never forget the moments
When he shouted, "Clear the hall!"

Miss Noland strived to teach us well,
She did her very best;
And after having us so long,
She deserves a needed rest.

Our twelve school years
We'll never forget,
Our classes and teachers
We'll never regret.

So, thanks to your our many friends
And faculty of seven,
For abiding with and trusting in -
THE CLASS OF '57!

ACTIVITIES
The Beta Club is an honor society made up of students with a scholastic standing of 3.2 or higher. Beta stands for more than scholarship, however. It strengthens character and morals and leads students on the right way of life.

President ................. Mike Thornton
Vice-President ............ Judith Allen
Secretary ................. Juanita Garrison
Treasurer ................. Russell Brunner

The Latin Club is made up of students taking second, third, or fourth year Latin. Twice a month they meet to learn about Roman customs, to sing songs in Latin, and to play games. All members enjoy the feeling of fellowship that results from such activities.

President ................. Russell Brunner
Vice-President ............ Judy Culbertson
Secretary ................. Shirley Doyle
Treasurer ................. Wilbert Dotson
The National Forensic League is an organization made up of speech students who have obtained a certain skill in speaking. These members show a real interest in speech, maintain a high standard of contest ethics, and are of good moral character.

President, Rebecca Gaitskill; Vice-President, Jean Thompson; Secretary, Rebecca Gaitskill.

The Future Teachers of America is a newly organized club, started for the purpose of introducing students to teaching. In this way the club hopes to contribute better teachers and teaching methods to future America.

President, George Wigglesworth; Vice-President, Judy Culbertson; Secretary-Treasurer, Rebecca Burnett.

The Future Homemakers of America is an organization consisting of girls who are interested in home economics. They not only learn about things pertaining to the home, but they also help the community with certain projects. This year they held a dance to raise money for the flood relief program and sold forget-me-nots for the veterans.

President, Martha Keal; First Vice-President, Arvetta Thomas; Second Vice-President, Barbara Eads; Secretary, Martha Moore; Treasurer, Juanita Garrison; Parliamenterian, Mary Garrison; Historian, Helen Eads; Recreation Leader, Betty Brunner; Song Leader, Elinor James; Reporter, Charlene Gaunce.
TRI-HI-Y

Tri-Hi-Y is a Christian organization. It maintains the highest ideals of honesty, loyalty, and clean living. The members take part in various projects during the year, one of which is baby sitting at P.T.A. meetings.

"B" TEAM

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE

Rebecca Jodan, Janet Hildreth, Betsy Taylor, Ellen Stinson, Sandra Wells, Ruth Smart, Mary Nell Moss, Patty.
Well Senior High, here we come, although we hate to leave Junior High. This year we had three cheerleaders; Patty Insko, captain; Ruth Smart, and Mary Nell Moss. The Freshman Class had twenty-one representatives on the basketball and football teams who received letters. This year two of our classmates received excellent in the state speech contest. We also had eight members to participate in the state contest at Lexington. We hope that the students and faculty of Junior High miss us next year as much as we will miss them.

The Eighth Grade wishes to thank their homeroom teachers, Miss Lovell, Miss McClintock and Miss Mitchell for all their help and patience during the 1956-1957 school year.

In Junior High football, basketball and baseball, we were represented by Tommy Bannister, Ronnie Taylor, Mike Hoffman, Jerry McFarland, Jerry Whalen, Jackie Ryan and Reggie Guy.

Our cheerleaders, Betsy Taylor, Ellen Stinson and Sandra Wells, led in building up the spirit of our team and student body.

All our experiences in the Eighth Grade will never be forgotten, as we look forward to the Ninth Grade with such interest and excitement. Thanks again teachers for everything.

Lynn Marchelle Brauer
We are the seventh grade. All of us are introduced to you up above. We enjoyed school even though the check marks fell thick. We're on the best of terms with the Board of Education and the few unfortunate ones who have come in the close contact with it are still with us. Our teachers are: Mr. Bloss, Miss Purcell, Miss Purnell, and Miss Mitchell. Some of us have Mr. Davis, too. Our president this year was Janet Hildreth, Vice-President, Carol Kelly; Secretary and Treasurer, Mary Smits. We've had a wonderful time and wish the coming sixth grade luck.
