SENIOR POEM

We, the Seniors of '57 Do take our pens in hand, To tell you of the fears and joys, With which our school began.

In '46 we came aboard
As jolly youngsters gay;
We laughed and played and talked a lot
And still remain today.

Our grade school days were full of fun, Our teachers we liked too, But we were constantly on the prowl For something new to do.

In Junior High we changed a lot, For 'growing up' was the thing, That made the teachers all look out And drove them most insane.

As 10th graders we were called Silly Sophomores, who -Were looked down on by the Seniors, As today, of course, we do.

Miss Lavin taught us Latin well, As Betsy Brooks her Spanish, But oh those Geometry text books, How often we wished they'd vanish! The smells from out the Chemistry Lab Made everyone grow dizzy, But then we all just smiled and said* Oh well, it's just Miss Issy!

Mr. Finley came to all of us, A teacher and a friend, And made us wish, day after day That more, like him, they'd send.

Pops, our lighthearted principal Joked with but loved by all, And we'll never forget the moments When he shouted, "Clear the hall!"

Miss Noland strived to teach us well, She did her very best; And after having us so long, She deserves a needed rest.

Our twelve school years We'll never forget. Our classes and teachers We'll never regret.

So, thanks to your our many friends And faculty of seven, For abiding with and trusting in -THE CLASS OF '57!

Freshman Class

Well Senior High, here we come, although we hate to leave Junior High. This year we had three cheerleaders; Patty Insko, captain; Ruth Smart, and Mary Nell Moss. The Freshman Class had twenty-one representatives on the basketball and football teams who received letters. This year two of our classmates received excellent in the state speech contest. We also had eight members to participate in the state contest at Lexington.

We hope that the students and faculty of Junior High miss us next year as much as we will miss them.

We are the seventh grade. All of us are introduced to you up above. We enjoyed school even though the check marks fell thick. We're on the best of terms with the Board of Education and the few unfortunate ones who have come in the close contact with it are still with us. Our teachers are; Mr. Bloss, Miss Purcell, Miss Purnell, and Miss Mitchell. Some of us have Mr. Davis, too. Our president this year was Janet Hildreth, Vice-President, Carol Kelly; Secretary and Treasurer, Mary Smits. We've had a wonderful time and wish the coming sixth grade luck.
