DEDICATION

Now at the turning point of our lives, we, the Graduating Class of 1958, pause to pay a debt of thanks to our principal, Alonzo Combs. He has seen us through the high and low points of our Senior High years, and finally, to their end. It is to Mr. Combs that we dedicate this, The 1958 Parisian. Each page reflects our gratitude and our sincere wishes to him and his family for a happy and promising future.

IN MEMORY

"What greater or better gift to the state than to train up youth?"

--Cicero

As we leaf through the pages of the not so distant past, there appears a name which brings to all of us of Paris High School beloved memories. That name belongs to one who served us unwaveringly as our educator, our counsel, and our friend - Dr. Lee Kirkpatrick. We are sure that his unselfishness and devotion to youth will remain forever a towering monument of his memory.

SCHOOL DAZE

Twelve years ago on a September day
As eager children, we made our way
To the big red school on Seventh Street,
Our friends and teachers there to meet.

We worked and worked with all our might
To learn to count, to read, to write.
When the year was over, we should have earned
A medal for all that we had learned.

We breezed along without a worry,
'Til in the fourth grade we had to scurry.
For then, not quite so merrily,
We were faced with geography.

One more year brought one more chore,
But even those word problems we faithfully
bore.
Then much to our surprise and pleasure
We found the sixth grade to be a treasure.

Those first six years really flew,
And now it was June in '52;
While recollecting on our past,
We saw OUR day had come at last.
For all of us had worked so hard
That graduation seemed a just reward.

In Junior High our mischief began,
Never were such tricks known to man!
But at the same time the going got rough,
Oh, was that history really tough!

As eighth graders, we started our real
quest for knowledge,
We were preparing ourselves for those hard
years in college,
But our enthusiasm was dimmed with our
introduction
To our very first year of Latin instruction.

Junior High lasted but three short years,
And soon it was over in spite of our tears.
The doors of Senior High beckoned to us
And we entered them gladly without a fuss.

As sophomores, our teachers we didn't much please
By covering the radiators with limburger
cheese.
And our reputation for an unruly past
Was certainly not hindered by that gunpowder blast!
Every little trick and noise
Always was blamed on the sophomore boys.

Each day as through the halls we would pass
Lingering on our way to class,
We grew accustomed to the familiar calls
Of "Clear the halls! Clear the halls!"

Our Junior year was one nightmare
By this time our teachers were pulling their hair.
They couldn't keep up with our terrible
schemes
As we went from bad to the worst extremes.
Of course we had discipline along with
our fun,
But that didn't really hurt anyone.

That year we presented the "Plantation
Ball"
Which was praised by parents and teachers
and all.
All of our work and all of our dreams
Turned out to be very beautiful scenes.

Our Senior year has been one of gold
All of our experiences could never be told.
By washing cars and selling candy
We earned a trip that really was dandy.

Each school day with its joys and trials
Brings to our faces reminiscent smiles.
For now we have reached the top of our
climb
But, oh, we've had a wonderful time.
Although education has been our chief aim,
We've enjoyed every moment, just the same.

Now to our parents and teachers we'll say,
"Thanks for the help along the way.
You've been our guides throughout each day
And we'll never forget you, come what may."
To Paris High we'll bid a fond good-bye,
For there do our happiest memories lie.

--Jeanne Thompson

NINTH GRADE

Here we come Senior High! We are, however, leaving behind us many, many happy memories. We want to thank the Junior High teachers for all of the help that they have given us. We are proud of the records made in band, music, speech and athletics. Our cheerleaders, Sandy Wells, Betsy Taylor and Ellen Stinson did a wonderful job. The Freshmen have surely enjoyed this year! Now we say 'good-bye Junior High, hello Senior High!

EIGHTH GRADE

We, the Eighth Grade class of 1958 wish to express our sincere appreciation to the teachers who have helped us to fight the battle of knowledge in the classrooms. They have scored a great victory in giving us a desire for learning the subjects that will be helpful in the future. We are especially proud of our officers for they have done a splendid job of representing us everywhere. We have been well represented in football, basketball, baseball and at the speech and music festivals. Both players and cheerleaders have done a fine job for our class. This year has left us with many wonderful and cherished memories of all the fun and excitement we have grown to love.

SEVENTH GRADE

Everyone likes their first year in Junior High very much. There are so many things to do and learn. Our subjects are Science, Health, Arithmetics, English, History, Occupational Guidance and Geography. All of our teachers are very nice to us. They are Mr. Bloss, Mr. Straub, Miss Purcell, Miss Mitchell, Mrs. Peed, Mrs. Marshall, Mr. Brumfield and Miss Martin. Some of our boys are wonderful basketball players. We enjoy going to the games and rallies and yelling for them. Our cheerleaders are Terry Renfrew and Brenda Guy.
