MILLERSBURG MILITARY INSTITUTE
MILLERSBURG, KENTUCKY

COL. LESLIE C. BLANKINSHIP
PRESIDENT

14 March 1960

Corps of Cadets
Millersburg Military Institute
Millersburg, Kentucky

Gentlemen:

As we come to the end of another year we must again face realistically the demands and standards that society has set for us.

As each of you find yourselves a year older, you must realize that these demands impose themselves upon you more forcefully than ever before. How you react to these demands will determine your success or failure in the future. If you are able to cope with them without the aid of the ever inquiring and demanding teachers who have been a part of your life for the last several years, then you have become a man and your success will be assured. But you must incorporate in your living a high Christian standard, sterling qualities of character, and a sincere interest in the real moral value of things about you. The highest and noblest qualities in you must be stressed and you must discard the mediocre qualities of living that have become habit.

You, as M.M.I. Cadets will always have the right to be your best. Discipline your minds and your actions and take advantage of this great control that you have over your destiny.

Very truly yours,

Leslie C. Blankinship

LCB jhf

DEDICATION

The staff proudly dedicates the 1960 SNIPER to Major G. L. Oldham, who has reigned over an M.M.I. classroom for sixteen years. His high ideals are deeply implanted into the lives of his former students as well as those of today.

Dear Sir:

Commandant!

Cramming for exams

2:00 A.M. But, sir, we have light privileges

Buddy, can you spare a dime?

Guess who finked

Somebody is always putting his head through the trampoline

I'll never break another car window again,
I'll never break . . .

Hey, where the heck is Belle Fountain?

COMMENCE

BACCALAUREATE

Field Day begins with a parade downtown

then formation of the entire battalion on the field.

The sponsors are presented,

and we find out which company is really the best.

The best oration is delivered on the big day,

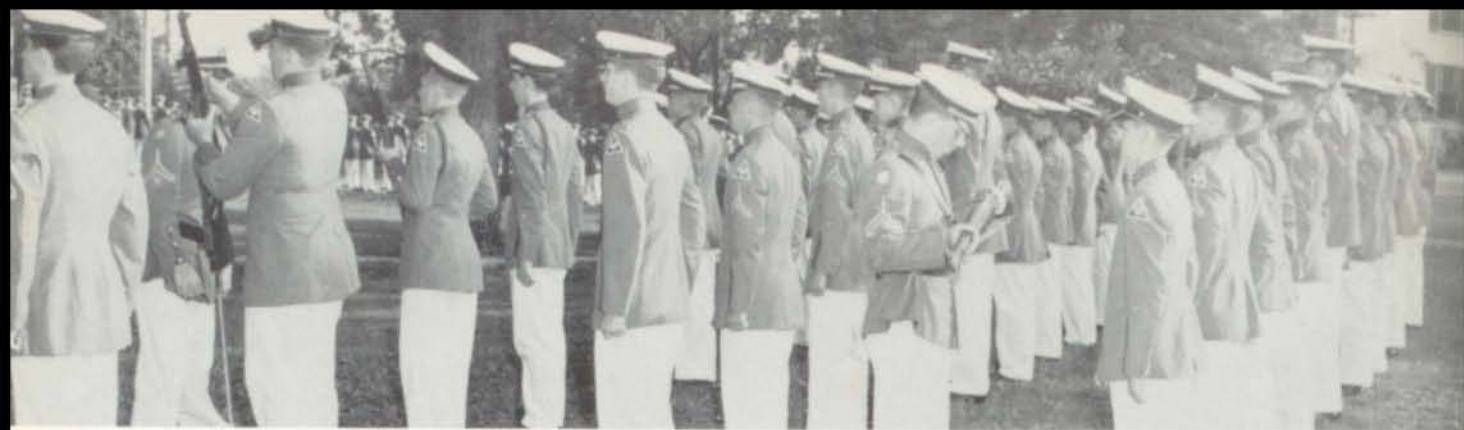

the choir also performs,

decorations and medals are pinned on,

and the all-important sheepskin is in its owner's hand.

Formal guard mount, the last big spit-and-polish effort.

The flag comes down at the last retreat and is given to the B.C.

Dis-missed!

and the campus settles down for a long summer's rest.
