The Military Department

The military department added something new this year by way of tactical officers for each company. Company A ended up with Captain Steele (right foreground) but they came out on top anyway. Captain Shellburne and Lt. Humbert did a fine job with Company B and the Band respectively. The Military Police Detachment had Lt. Weenolsen. Major Garnet Oldham with his usual imperturbability kept everybody in line as Commandant.

The effective methods brought into being by the commandant's office and Major Garnet Oldham have made the cadet's life here not only happier but also more useful.

Shown above with Branham and the unending stack of reports, Major Oldham doesn't ever get "shook" over the little things, nor for that matter even the big ones.

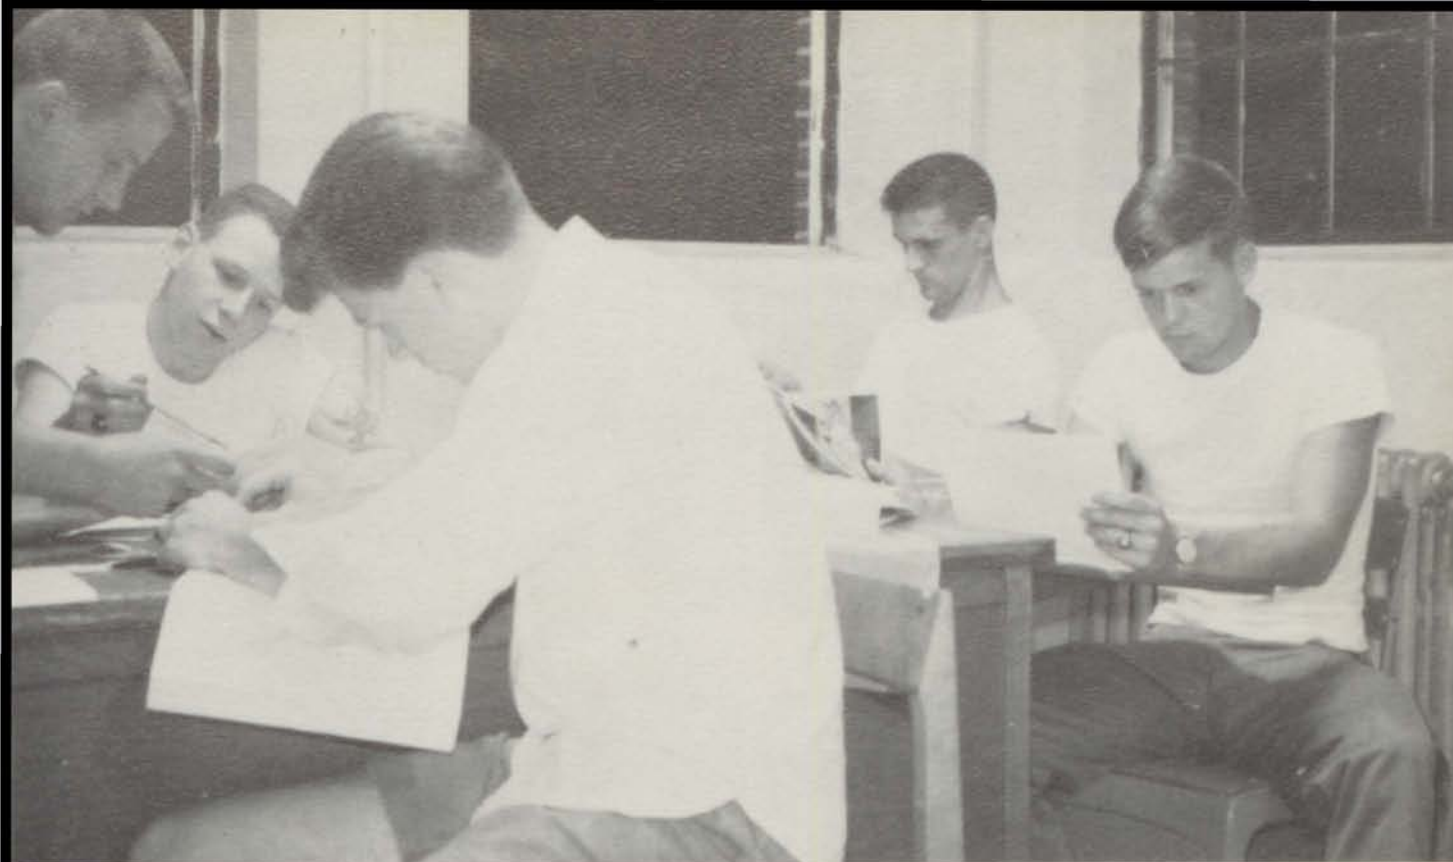

The Guard Detail keeps the routine moving along smoothly, for the most part.

Major Oldham is always around for conferences, advice, or counseling, which aids greatly the smooth running of the Military Dept.

Below, the Advisory Board, Lt. Col. Hall, Academic Dean, Lt. Col. Blackshear, Administrative Asst., and Major G. L. Oldham, Commandant.

HOMEcoming! October 14, 1961. And what a whopper it was, too . . . Big Parade, lots of other bands, and more people than we knew what to do with. Of course we beat the socks off Louisville without half trying. The young ladies admiring A Company's display are Elberts.

Federal Inspection. Always creating more furor by way of preparation than any other School activity, was no exception this time either. However, for all our fretting it appears that we managed to keep our honor rating untarnished as usual. The ensuing week-end could easily be called The Big Sleep.

The interminable hours of scrubbing, painting, waxing, and shining are soon forgotten with the realization that the school year is in the home stretch, and everybody seems to relax with a good case of spring fever.

Wrestling

The picture which was intended for this spot was stolen, probably by some poorer member of the wrestling team, so we must use the one above which pictures too many boys who never even smelled an armpit other than their own to name.
