THE '64 PARISIAN

Thirty-third Edition Published by THE ANNUAL STAFF of PARIS HIGH SCHOOL
Paris, Kentucky

Foreword

As each one of us grows older, the memories of our high school years will grow fainter. The time will come when those crucial moments of high school will fade away and be replaced by other experiences, even more decisive. The 1964 Parisian Staff hopes that as you glance through this book, the memories of old friendships and precious forgotten moments will be recaptured.

Table of Contents

The time is 8:20 and a familiar one at Paris High School. It is time to start another day of school. But for us, the Senior Class of 1964, this early morning symbolizes the start of a new life for us. It is a life in which each day offers a new challenge and new hope.

Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1964, dedicate this yearbook to the memory of the late William Fulton Russell, Superintendent of Paris City Schools. Mr. Russell had been associated with the Paris Schools since 1948, first as Principal, then in 1953 as Superintendent. He was recognized as one of the most proficient men in the State School systems.

Everyone felt great respect and admiration for Mr. Russell because of his efficiency and devotion. He will long be remembered for the dedicated service he gave to the Paris City Schools, to his church and the community.

"It is not necessary to live, but to carve our names beyond that point, this is necessary."

Newspaper Staff

The PARIS HI-LITES was organized at the beginning of the 1963-1964 school year. It is a monthly mimeographed publication covering all the school sports, activities and news. The sponsors and the staff members all work hard in finding and writing the news from every aspect of school life. Faculty sponsors are: Mrs. Paul Polly and Mrs. R. S. Wills.

Speech

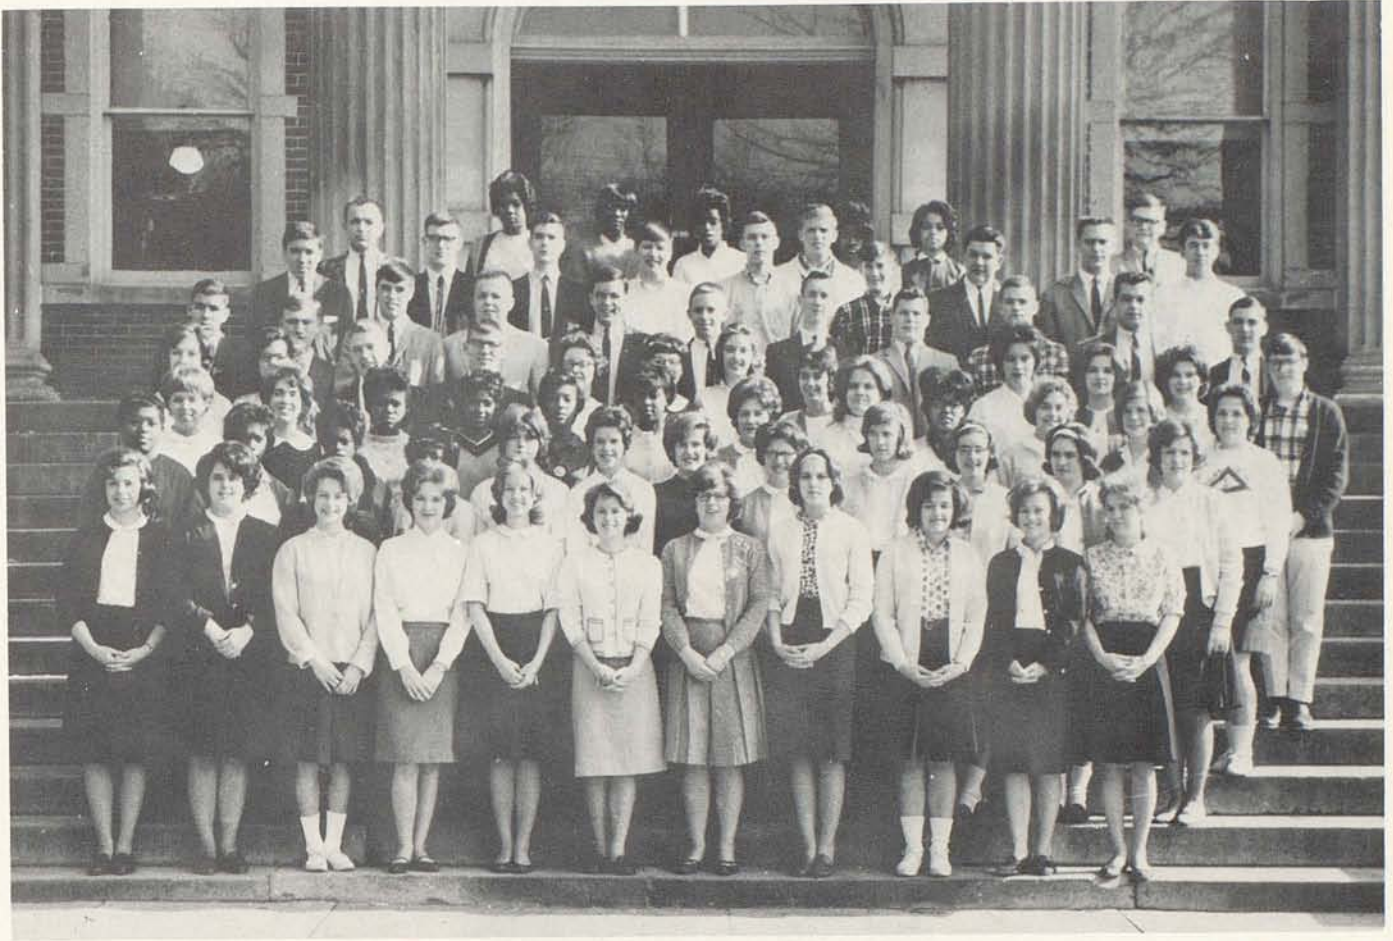

The Speech Club has had a very successful year. Our play, UNDER THE SYCAMORE TREE advanced to the State meet under the direction of Mr. Franklin Harris. With Miss Zeralda Noland as coach, the Debate squad finished in the semi-finals of the state. With these accomplishments coupled with the efforts of the individual speakers we feel this has been a very rewarding season.

N.F.L.

Whoopers

The Whoopers wasn't organized until basketball season but has done a lot since then to stimulate school spirit. It is open to only those who wish to take an active part in the support of athletics. The officers are: Hazel Burden, President; Eilene Stephens, Vice-President; Charlotte Terry, Secretary. During the year we had concessions and coat checks at several basketball games. Our sponsor is Miss Millie Ryle.

Seniors

WANDA ADAMS

"In July he will give her a band, It's gold, round, and fits on her left hand."

WEIDA ALLEN

You're so petite, dress so fine, You're worth your weight in a diamond mine.

MIKE BARNES

"Mike plays a trumpet in our band,
But he'd much rather hold Julie's hand."

BENNIE RIDDLE

"Bennie returned from our 49th
state,
In life we know he will really rate."

STEWART BIDDLE

Wake up, look up, live,
For tomorrow may never come.

Seniors

ANNE BALDWIN

The teachers call her Anne Thomas;
the girls Annie B.,
The boys call her good-looking,
because she is you see.

RUBY BANTA

Here's the girl with the great big smile,
Knowing her is really worthwhile.

GEORGE BOLING

When you meet George you think he is shy,
But when you get to know him,
he's really a great guy.

BILL BRADFORD

Bill loves girls, and football, too Without his presence we've all felt blue.

JOHN BROWN

Trotter has plenty of get up and go,
He's bound to succeed, this we all know.

Seniors

SUE BARBER

If it is Sue you do seek,
Behind a library book you should peep.

LOIS BISHOP

Lois is a redhead dainty and small,
She is a pal to many and friend to all.

TOMMY CLARK

Tommy enjoys the peaceful and serene,
Maybe that's why he goes with Eileen.

KENNETH CLEMONS

Clemons is our drag-strip clown, You'll always know when he's around.

GARY COLEMAN

Gary is the pride of our track team,
But it still takes Pat to make him gleam.

Seniors

LILLIAN CHRISTOPHER

She will walk down the aisle in June,
Just waiting to see her blonde-headed groom.

ELEANOR CLARK

Sewing high, sewing low,
Rolling those eyes wherever you go.

HAZEL BURDEN

Gather ye rosebuds while ye may,
So says our "MAMA", Hazel May.

JOHN CULBERTSON

John is amazing and full of surprises,
It is hard to believe the plans he devises.

LARRY CUNNINGHAM

Tall, dark and handsome from Lafayette,
The girls all go for him you can bet.

Seniors

SUSAN CLOUGH

Here's a girl upon who you can depend,
She's always willing to be your friend.

JANE CONGLETON

At a service station she does stay,
And gladly works without any pay.

MARIAN EMERSON

You look fine, smile devine,
But where in the world is your sense of time?

LARRY DAVIS

Here is Doc, without an M.D.,
He doesn't nurse people, but rafts, you see.

RICHARD EADS

Ask him a question, he'll give you an answer,
Of course it's not right, but he is a good dancer.

Seniors

BRENDA FARMER

Brenda is the blond in our class,
We all think she's a good looking lass.

LINDA FARRIS

Linda has been in love with a hundred at a time,
The only trouble is, she keeps changing her mind.

SUE GOUGH

Sue's locker is a very popular place,
There you will always see George's face.

JOE ENDRIS

If you ever want a raft to get,
Just call on Joe and you're all set.

NELSON FARIS

He is the married one in our class,
And he found a good looking lass.

Seniors

DORIS HARNEY

Doris knows the who, why, when and where,
For being a reporter, she sure has a flare.

PAULETTE HULL

No matter what the saying may be,
Paulette always has a tee-hee-hee.

BRENDA JACKSON

Brenda is quiet, meek and polite,
But somehow she stays the boys delight.

JACK FLANDREAU

Jack is striving for sixteen feet,
We know he'll make it in the '
State Track Meet.

RONALD GARRISON

Bubbles, is his nickname, baseball his game,
Some day a girl he will tame.

Seniors

NANCY JOHNSTON

That red sportscar Bob does drive,
That middle aisle she does strive.

BETTY KELLEY

Betty's our cheerleader and always at ease,
Her troubles always seem to pass
by with the breeze.

BRENDA LUCAS

A smile is worth far more than gold,
Because its gathered from the soul.

EUGENE GRAY

Butch is our President, loyal and true,
Tomorrow you may find his name in Who's Who.

CHARLES HALL

Here's to Chuck, our basketball star,
We know he and Bitsy will someday go far.

Seniors

WILMA McCracken

Don't be fooled by the look in her eyes, Cause she really knew how to catch her guy.

STEPHANIE McKinney

Here's to Steph, the brain of our crowd,
When she starts to giggle things really get wild.

PARTICIA McGuire

Life is just a bowl of cherries,
Eat them, they're fattening.

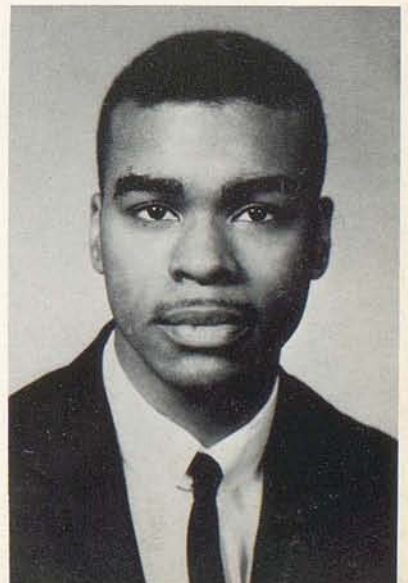

GLENN JOLLY

Glenn has a very appropriate name, He's jolly and likeable, always the same.

WILLIAM JONES

He is tall and nothing but skin and bones,
But let's give credit to ol' William Jones.

Seniors

MARILYN MERRINGER

Marilyn is known as Harvey Smart's gal,

The only word to describe her that we know is WOW.

LINDA MATTINGLY

Linda's heart beats for joy,
Cause she's the wife of an Air Force boy.

HELEN MORRISON

She is the one that drives the Thunderbird,
When you see her coming, get away from the curb.

BILLY JORDAN

Billy and Cyrano are strangely alike,

But on the basketball floor he's our greatest "might".

MONTA KING

Monta's an eager beaver when base-balls concerned,
If he doesn't eat his bat he'll get his turn.

Seniors

ROSE NEWMAN

This cute little girl has the name of Rose,
She always sits with the right kind of pose.

SUSIE RANKIN

Some say Susie is known for her giggle,
But the one's in the band say its more for her wiggle.

DOVIE ROBINSON

Dovie is quiet with not a hay or nay,
Except when it comes to David Day.

BURL LOVELL

Burl is our musician, and travel's his fancy,
But we all know he'd rather see Nancy.

CLAYTON McCARTY

We all know Clayton as Buck
In life we wish him the best of luck.

Seniors

DIANE RICHARDSON

Wherever you go, whatever you plan,
Remember, "Clothes do not make the man."

BETSY SUTTON

We have a girl by the name of Sutton,
And she is of course cute as a button.

LANORA RUSSELL

While counting the days go by,
The time finally came for Lanora to marry with Sam.

FRANK McCORD

Frank is the manager of our team,
He's always around to hear the coaches scream.

JIM McELROY

Jimmy is our angel with horns,
Very facetiously he was born.

Seniors

MAMIE SUMMERS

You love too many, trust too few,
Learn to paddle your own canoe.

MARY THOMAS

Tony makes the hair do what you want it to,
Why not let it work for you.

BITSY WATSON

Bitsy's a girl we'll never forget,
She's a girl you're glad to have met.

JOHN MARSHALL

John had some real bad breaks,
We hope your luck's better for goodness sakes.

ROGER McFARLAND

Roger's nickname is really a dilly,
That's why we all call him Willie.

Seniors

PAT WATSON

Pat is perfect, perfect as can be,
Even without her course in P. E.

JENNY WEBBER

Watch out! Danger! Jenny's on the way!
When you see that Olds a-coming,
just get out and pray.

PHYLLIS WILLIAMS

"Get right down to the Real Nitty Gitty, "
This is Phyllis' favorite ditty.

LARRY MACK

You're quiet, You're nice,
I guess that's why we girls look twice.

BOB MARKHAM

Here's our class Romeo, loaded with charms,
He always seems to have a girl on his arms.

Seniors

VIRGINIA WILSON

Virginia could be called a nut,
But one thing about it she's not in a rut.

THERESA WILLIAMS

She's a quiet lass who listens well,
She knows a lot but will not tell.

JANE WOODS

Take Jane to conventions and then you will see,
She's not the quiet type that she seems to be.

MIKE MORGAN

Mike blows the tuba and sings in the choir,
He wouldn't rush if the school was on fire.

LONNIE OWENS

And so here's to Lonnie, our man about town,
He may go in circles but he sure gets around.

Seniors

EUGENE ROBINSON

Stick with Genie and you'll always be right,
Cause we know this boy is, oh so bright.

DONALD ROE

Pat is Donald's dove,
Because she is his first "Love."

TOMMY SANDERS

Tommy is tall and has pretty red hair,
When he's with Benna, he hasn't a care.

DAVID SANTEN

David is blessed with a skill, you can bet,
He sleeps through Miss Noland's class and still stays her pet.

Seniors

JAMES SUMPTER

James Nelson goes with a gal named Beth,
With her and his guitar, he's really set.

JOE TOBIN

Joe and Patsy agreed on a diamond ring,
From now on they will be known as a team.

In Memoriam

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY
Thirty Fifth President of the United States of America

On Friday, November 22, 1963 at 1 P.M., President John Fitzgerald Kennedy died from an assassin's bullets. Many students of Paris High were on their way to the sectional play-offs at Lynch, when this incredulous news came over the air. This was indeed the most tragic event of our life time. Panic broke out in the cars and on the buses carrying the players and the band. We had all felt the influence upon our lives and will reverence his memory. He was undoubtedly one of the greatest men of our time and may we never forget his message to us ---

"Ask not what your country can do for you;
ask what you can do for your country."
Inaugural Address
Jan. 20, 1961

Face to Face with Memories- - - - -

Mrs. Scott counsels college-bound students.

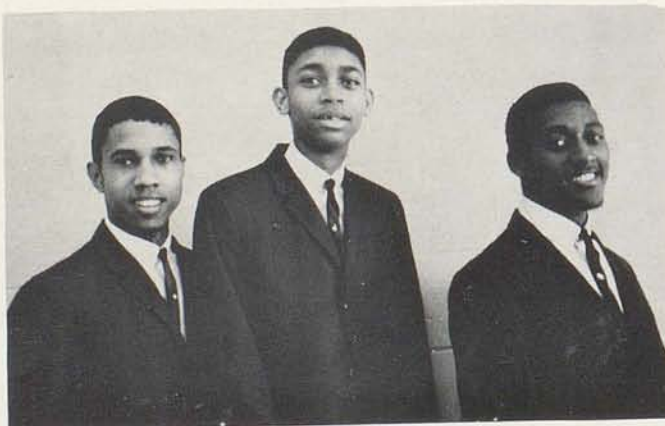

School spirit prevails

Gaught in the act!

And where have you been little boy?

HOOTENANNY

The Seniors work their way to Mammoth Cave...

Sober, steadfast and demure.

While they also work on the best annual ever???????

True Love????

Oh Betsy Brooks, you mean you flunked the whole class?

GO GREYHOUNDS!

Our usual state of confusion.

Come on... Just one little kiss...

Mr. Polly said, "No making out in the halls." But how about the library?

Our proud but cold "football" mothers.

Senior cuties of the past.

We are gathered here today.....

HE has the highest IQ in the Senior Class?????

The Paris High Philharmonic and Lenard Bernstein.

Don't just stand there stupid. . . . DO SOMETHING!

Was that Au Gratin or all rottin?

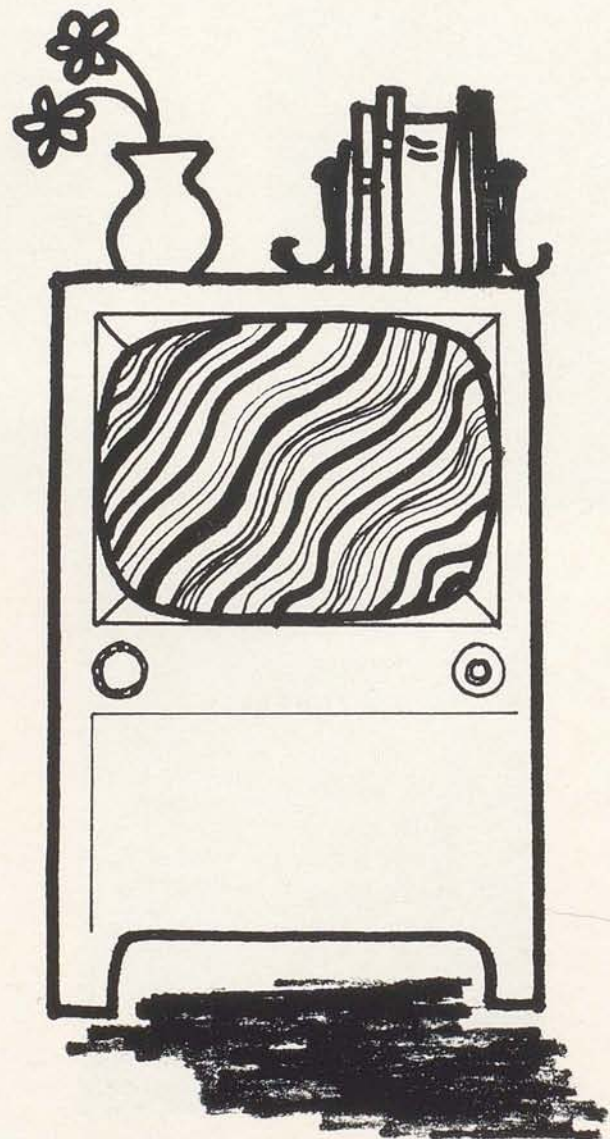

One thing about the Senior girls, they're good housekeepers.

Now students there will be no making out in the halls.
