

PARISIAN

During his years as principal, Mr. Paul E. Patrick continually stressed his desire for Paris High School to excel in all of its undertakings. Every effort should produce results that are, as he said, "the best".

As a tribute to Mr. Patrick, we have chosen this idea as the theme for our yearbook.

We now present to you the best of 1970—

The Parisian

Dedication

Miss Alice McClintock

Mrs. Louise Clay

The Annual Staff always has a difficult task in selecting a worthy individual for its dedication. This has been even more of a problem this year because there are two individuals who deserve this honor. Miss Alice McClintock and Mrs. Louise Clay have given their time and effort in contributing to the educational welfare of the students at Paris High School.

A University of Michigan graduate, Miss McClintock has been a teacher for forty-three years, the last thirty-three of these being at Paris. During these years she has not only been a teacher of Latin and English and Latin Club sponsor, but also dedicated to her job. Having missed only twelve days during her forty-three years of teaching, she has been an asset to Paris High as a whole.

Mrs. Louise Clay claims the University of Illinois as her alma mater and has done graduate work at the University of Kentucky. Serving as an excellent librarian, Mrs. Clay has been at Paris High for thirty-seven years. In addition to her duties in the library, she has served many years as the sponsor of the yearbook. She has done an outstanding job in guiding the seniors in their production of the annual.

It is with grateful recognition that we dedicate this annual to these two ladies.

MEMORIAL

Why Death? How Death?
Where Death?
He died, he died without cause.
Oh!
i do not feel—
i do not know.
Yesterday he was here.
He smiled and he laughed.
We talked, i saw him.
Alive—full of life.
Where is he now?
Why he today?
The sky is blue, the air is cool.
The sun shines.
They laugh and joke.
But he cannot—or can he?
i knew him—i did not know him.
He laughed, was funny. Nice.
i liked him
i loved him?
Tears i feel. Do come and cleanse me.
Wash away my grief.
But i cannot grieve.
i knew him not.
He was happy.
Happier now?
i did not miss him this morning.
know him not to be here.
But now he is gone.
He was not mine.
Why do i feel for him?
How will i feel for mine?
When they are gone.
Tears will not wash away—
his laughter,
his smile, his voice.
The years may—but
i will live.
He will live.
Why Death?
Why life?

In Memoriam

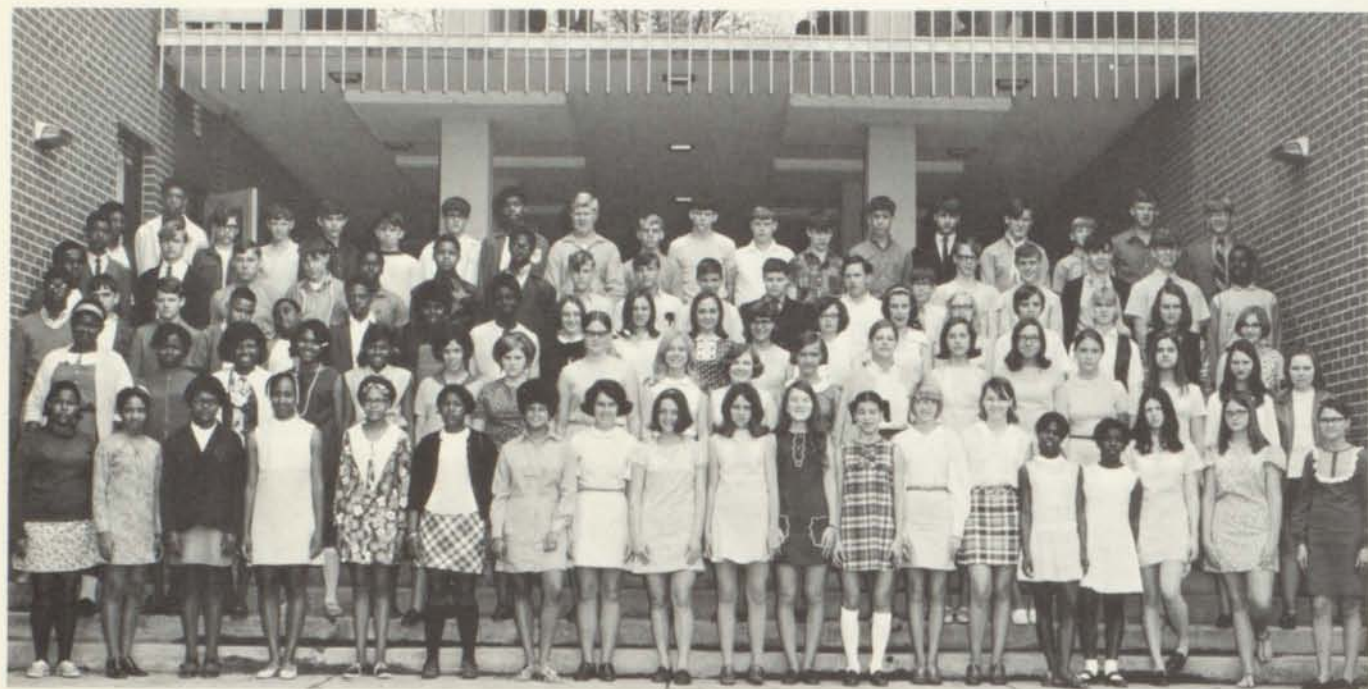

LINDA ANN JOHNSON
1954-1969

Here lies a rose, a budding rose,
Blasted before its bloom;
Whose innocence did sweets disclose
Beyond that flower's perfume.
To those who for her loss are grieved,
This consolation's given—
She's from a world of woe relieved,
And blooms a rose in heaven.

Frank Chenault, Robert "Mule" Crumie, and Big Bill Gaines receive trophies for their fine work!

Jett Thompson, Tim Taylor, and Steve Parker hold their trophies with pride. We are proud of you, Boys!

The Paris High Cheerleaders cheered our Hounds on to the State Tournament this year. Although the Hounds did not come back home as winners, the PHS Cheerleaders did. They received the First Place Trophy for Cheerleading in the "Sweet Sixteen". Miss Ellen Vannoy (Cheerleader sponsor), Leslie Calk, Kay Hammons, Patty McCord, Carolyn Davis (alternate), Carolyn Coleman (Captain of the squad), Suzanne Wiseman, Elizabeth Alverson.

There was food a plenty for all at the Annual Basketball Banquet honoring the Champion Paris Greyhounds.

P.H.S. Band

The Paris High Band accomplished much during the '69-'70 school year. It started off with a trip to New Jersey to participate in the 'Miss America' pageant parade. They were selected in the "Sweet 16" and have an open invitation to return. They earned a superior rating in the marching contest at Morehead State University and at KMEA Festival they received their 16th straight superior rating.

The Parisiannaires is a select group of students from grades nine through twelve. Members are chosen by audition in the fall of the year, and begin work strictly on their own time for various events of the year.

This past year the Parisiannaires performed some fourteen programs throughout the community during the Christmas season. In the spring they appeared in the Lions Club Annual Show and also participated in the State Music Contests.

F.H.A.

The Future Homemakers Association of Paris High School has had a very busy year. The club made mum corsages for the Homecoming football game. They held a hobo party for the initiation of the new members and also had a Mother and Daughter banquet. A style show of garments made in Home Economics was presented on May 20. Their sponsor was Mrs. Florence Bushnell. For working so hard this year, the Home Economics department received a disposal unit and are very proud of it.

Whoopers Club

The Whoopers Club has a main objective to stimulate interest in the athletic programs at Paris High. They have helped Miss Vannoy and the cheerleaders with skits and programs. With projects such as the sign at Southside, wooden clappers for the Basketball games, and sponsored bus trips to athletic events they hope to activate city wide interest in all programs. The Club is sponsored by Mr. Albert Ryle.

The French Club

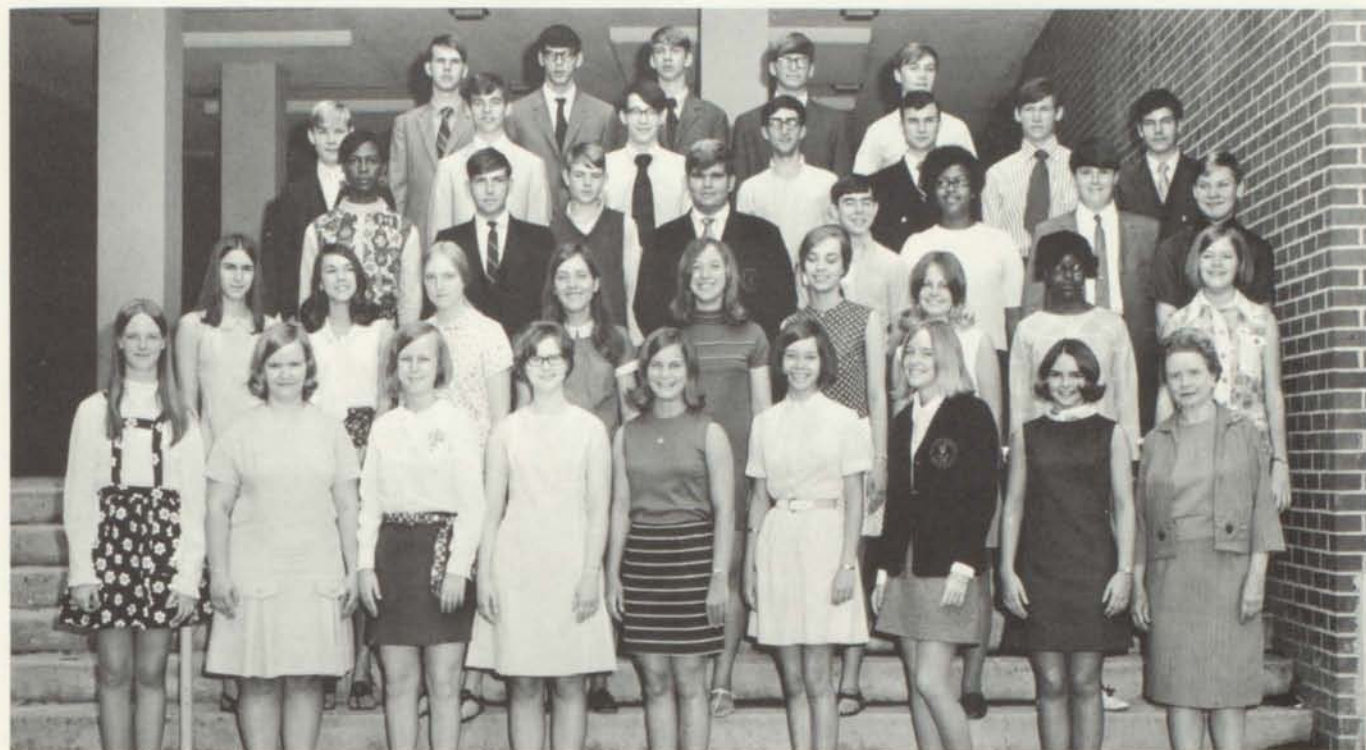

The French Club, made up of French I and French II students, is sponsored by Miss Woodford. At some of the meetings the members were entertained with games and filmstrips; they were also honored by two speakers: Dr. Erwin Asriel who showed slides of France, and Mrs. Edward Wilson, who gave a talk on her stay in Brussels, Belgium.

The Latin Club is composed of Latin students from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade classes. At the meetings, held once a month, the programs are given mainly by the students under the supervision of the sponsor.

The purpose of the club is to provide outside-the-classroom activities which are supplementary to the classwork and will contribute to the student's knowledge of Greek and Roman culture.

Beta Club

The Beta Club is made up of students acquiring a 3.2 average. This year the Beta Club's two main projects have been the Beta Convention and the Outdoor Classroom. Sixteen Betas went to Louisville campaigning for Leslie Calk as State Vice-President and she only lost by a narrow margin. The Outdoor Classroom is a project which would enable individual groups to hold classes outside during pretty weather. The Beta Club also helps to serve at the athletic banquets and to usher at baccalaureate and commencement. Their sponsor is Mrs. Mirium Williams.

Speech Club and N.F.L.

Participation, experience, and excitement have all been involved in the extension and development of our Speech Club at Paris High. Mrs. Roseberry, the group sponsor, has incited the members to take part in the schedule of invitational tournaments throughout the year. As a result, the list of N.F.L. members has been enlarged with new initiates and several young people have returned with trophies in various categories. Each year this organization works hard in an effort to enhance the pride and honor of our school. Indeed these endeavors deserve appreciation.

Senior Play

M.K. (Tish Breslin) "honors" Mr. Sands (Ralph Steele) with a reading of her new novel, GUTS.

Annabelle (Kay Hammons) manages to keep all four men on her string for a while—Marvin Robinson, Mike Kookendoffer, Larry Saylor, and Daryl Crossfield.

Jennifer (Martha Siwicki) and Tod (Larry Paul Jones) agree that they like journalism (and each other).

The yearbook is finished and so are they.

Farewell

Four years is a long time
—too long to forget.
We look around and ask
—where did it go?
We worked, we played
—but for four years?
Then we look the other way
—into tomorrow.
Suddenly we're not so tall
as we thought we were
And not so smart.
But we find that somehow
We learned a decisive lesson at Paris High something we wouldn't have had without the teachers and administration,
without our fellow students
—a direction into that uncertain tomorrow.
It can never be so dark again
Though the world may change
and the times change
and we change.

We, the Senior Class of 1970, have worked four long years to achieve the prestige of being a Senior. During this period we have always tried to show the most school spirit, be an outstanding class as a whole, and, in general, always produce the best results. We want to thank the faculty and administration for their sincere cooperation and support throughout our high school years.

We genuinely hope we have succeeded in reaching our goal—that people will look back on the class of 1970 and regard it as
THE BEST.
