Life is divided into three terms—that which was, which is, and which will be. Let us learn from the past to profit by the present, and from the present to live better for the future. —Wordsworth.

Presented by Senior Class of Paris High School
Paris, Kentucky
Dedication

The Senior Class of 1971 dedicates this yearbook to Mr. Thomas A. Siwicki, the music director of the Paris City Schools.

Mr. Siwicki has been with the Paris City School system for eighteen years, during which he has brought recognition and fame to our school and community. He has toiled diligently for months in preparation for band trips to Florida, New York, and Canada where Paris music students have won awards as well as valuable experience in festivals and parades. Every year he has planned the Christmas Candlelight Program which has attracted hundreds of people as the heralding of the Christmas season in our community.

Ever thoughtful of the cultural development of the citizens of Paris and Bourbon County, Mr. Siwicki has brought in concerts by Marion Spellman, the Norman Luboff Choir, the Navy Band and the Louisville Philharmonic Orchestra. He has also produced locally twenty-six Lions Club Dixieland Shows and the outstanding SOUTH PACIFIC in addition to the annual concerts of the Paris City Schools Band. His musicians have performed at civic club meetings, ballgames, circuses, parades, picnics, fairs, homes, hospitals—everywhere it has been possible to go.

Our lives have been made richer by the talents and energies and concerns of Mr. Siwicki. As a small expression of appreciation for a large contribution to our school, we dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Siwicki.

Here I am—yours for the asking!

Just think—only 3 more days of detention and I'll have served my sentence.

Uh... and... uh...

Don't get mad at me, Mr. Anderson told me to do it!

Beta Convention is such a drag!
How many times do I have to tell you. No physical contact in the halls!

I know I'm good-looking, but does she have to keep staring at me?

Did you say rip it out and start over?

Ah ha! That'll be ten days detention!

Is this what they do at Beta Convention?
Pick it out, from here to there!

Oh, forget it. Paul, I'm doing the best I can!!

Miss Woodford, your beanie doesn't mar your beauty.

Sit in—at PHS

One foot apart!

Hanky Panky?

I ain't proud.

Huh?

Is it that bad?
Put me down!

Ride 'em cowgirl!

This tree has got to go!

Sticky goo!

The teachers at Paris High School should certainly be commended on the job that they perform day in and day out. They each and everyone work equally hard teaching various courses offered at Paris High. They certainly must not do it for the money involved, because for all of the education they have attained and time they have put into their work it is obvious that their rewards are not in dollars and cents. I think the largest reward a truly dedicated teacher receives is in the eye of the student when he has finally grasped what his teacher has been trying to get him to understand. The teachers at Paris in their job what makes people that all, they are sometimes. The teachers at Paris High School who their jobs above and duty compartment. teach the level, but teaches a class. This extra work the number of have to grade the added for them to work each class for each other.

SENIORS MEASURED
FOR CAPS AND GOWNS

Denise Downing

With a feeling of dignity and high hopes for graduation, the seniors filed into the school office during the first week of February to be measured for their caps and gowns. For the first time, the future class of 1971 was struck with the realization that their days at Paris High would soon be over. The date of commencement presently stands at May 28--less than 100 days away. That's really not a long way off when you stop and think about the four years we've roamed these halls.
