

SNIPER

1971

The Millersburg Military
Institute
Presents
The 1970-71 SNIPER

It all started on a hot morning in early September

The "old" boys help the new ones get unloaded

First thing is to find out where they're going to be rooming and then to find out where it is.

Sarge sees to the uniforms at the senior school and Mrs. Betts takes care of it at the junior school

Then back to Mrs. Taylor for books

Then everybody gets herded into the barber shop

for the shameful amputation of our crowning glory

Followed by a trip to the tailors

while our folks are signing our (and their) lives away

Classes got started the next day

Biology was fun at first and French class perked along at Mr. Wathen's rate and then at night to study hall.

At drill, the new ones are all thumbs and two left feet

Sarge Soon gets everyone straightened around in military science

Shades of Suribachi!

Football in the fall

Wrestling in the winter

along with basketball

and baseball in the spring

Homecoming was a busy time for everyone

What with the pep rally and bon fire . . .

the presentation of sponsors, platoon and squad competition and, of course, the game.

dances . . .

concerts (remember the one that Reed broke up?)

parties . . .

roughhousing

volleyball . . .

and just relaxing

Parades . . .

Parades . . .

Parades . . .

and more parades

and before we know it Christmas is here

the only nice thing about winter is that . . .

SPRING LEAVE comes right after it and then the big clean up for . . .

FEDERAL INSPECTION

after which, everybody just sort of unlaxes

except for Mr. Fernandez.

We get a new baseball diamond

and new uniforms

The junior school went to Blue Licks

and we started cramming for exams

while the officers began to realize their days are numbered

Rehearsal for change of command: "Rots of ruck, Shell"

Field Day: Stumpy takes 1st platoon through its paces.

The final parade in honor of the seniors

Marc and the rest get their sheepskins, and everybody says goodbye and heads for home.

HIGHLIGHTS:

Homecoming
Federal Inspection
Commencement

Preparations for Homecoming start days in advance.

The night before includes the pep rally and bonfire down on the field.

Bright and early next morning everybody has town leave, followed immediately by the presentations of sponsors.

In our first competitive drill, we find out which platoon and squad have had the "benefit" of the best training during drill every day.

The ladies put the final touches on a really great smorgasbörd and everybody settles down on the hill to watch the game.

Our prospects were not very bright, but we gave it one whale of a go, at least for the first half until our guys just plum wore out.

At half time those band members who could play, also gave their all.

And awards for best squad, platoon, and barrack were presented.

If we couldn't get it clean or polished, we painted it.

To the federal government, cleanliness is next to . . .

As you were, it's next to nothing. That's where it starts. The be all and end all of our existence.

And not only were we clean, we found out which way was up and down and how to march in step, occasionally.

It all depended on who was yelling at us.

This year was the easiest, however, so we weren't really worried.

After the last rifle was finally declared clean enough and locked up for the night, we all collapsed anywhere but our beds which were too neat to mess up.

Yeer come de judge

"Tennn Shun"!

The only time all year that the officers had to wait outside the mess hall. Don't they look happy!

After lunch everybody to the gym for rifle inspection.

Yes, sir, it IS longer than he is.

The beginning of the end -- A CO. on the line.

Officers, front and center

Paaaaasss Innnnn

Ree Vyyyyuuu!

Field Day! Rick Stoll takes over 2nd Platoon at the last minute and wins!

While Craig Corey takes the honors for Junior School.

The play could only be spoken of in superlatives.

Final parade next morning

Debbie gets presented to Col. again.

The flag and sword of command are exchanged.

Ed gives his last command on the parade ground, and Sheldon takes over.

Paul Yerian receives the Eng. Award and gives the valedictory address.

Phil Dreety gets the band and speech award.

Stanley Stephens nails the Science and Math Awards and delivers the winning senior oration.

Bob Greeg is awarded the SAR Good Citizenship Medal.

Ed Burton gets the history medal and best all-around athlete.

And the Glee Club performs for the last time.

After awards its all over for the under grads.

Reverend Akens delivering the baccalaureate sermon to an attentive audience.

And there is food aplenty at the smorgasbord.

Everybody went to the President's Reception.

Mr. Don Mills, editor of the Lexington Harold gave the commencement address.

Danny and the rest get their diplomas.

Col. Betts hands out the 8th grade diplomas.

Swan Song

A time for Joy

And a time for tears. That's all, folks.
