DEDICATION

Gordon Betts, student, teacher, coach, Principal of Jr. High, Assistant to the President, and friend of the Cadets, is leaving at the close of this school term after forty-one years of service. He does not like the word "retirement", and knowing him, one would guess he will still be active, wherever he is.

In the fall of 1932, Col. Betts came to M.M.I., to accept a teaching position in the newly opened Jr. School, when there were only a dozen students. At that time, the school included the first eight grades, and quite a few of the cadets were day students.

Col. Betts served as Varsity Football Coach from 1956 to 1962. In five seasons of play, the cadets won 27 games, lost 15 and tied 2, scoring 900 points to their opponents 398. In the 1959 season of regular play, they were unbeaten, untied and unscored on. However, they lost to Danville 20-6 in the C K C play-offs. During that season, he was once pictured in the Courier-Journal as "Coach of the Week".

Since Col. Betts has retired from active coaching, he has organized a Mini-Bike Club in the Jr. School. Last year, there were 14 bikes in the school. He took the entire Cadet Corps for an overnight camp-out. When spring arrived, he was often seen with a group of boys in the truck, carrying fishing poles, off to Miller's Pond. The years have not lessened his enthusiasm for teaching boys-mentally, physically and spiritually.

During the forty-one years over 2,500 boys have been enrolled in the Junior School. That is indeed a long line of cadets. Col. and Mrs. Betts say they will miss the boys, the school and their many friends in Millersburg, but they are looking forward to a somewhat less hurried schedule that they've known for over forty years.

That long grey line, who "grew up" to the tune of their heads bonking the black board in Col. Betts' Math class, the many, many happy memories of good times under Col. Betts' tutelage, and the results of so many successful life stories have provided ample proof of his philosophy that "Building boys is better than mending men".

WE WILL MISS HIM!

I CAN'T UNDERSTAND IT. SOMEONE HAS COMPLETELY FILLED MY OFFICE WITH JELLO.

Sing out Louisville -- the girls terrific -- the music???

Eenie, meenie, minie, mo-----

McFarlan at his best!

Miller Hall gets decorated.

And we line up for the parade downtown.

We had the parade downtown.

Accompanied by our sponsors.

Col. Greer orders the officers front and center to form the sabre arch.

Every Officer's sponsor enters the sabre arch.

And is presented to Colonel and the school brass.

Miss Mary Nell Griffin gets her crown.

And readies herself to receive a pass in review from the Brigade.

We had a fairly good crowd.

And our well-dressed alumni from the year before took things easy -.

Mercer County proves a worthy opponent.

But at half time, we're ahead.

James Bond picks up the Best Decorated Barracks Award for Miller Hall from Col. J.B. Leer.

Our sponsors helped with the halftime entertainment and the second half nailed down a victory for us.

Billy welcomes the I.G. to Headquarters and escorts him through the barracks.

DePottay shows off a clean closet.

SEVEN CHILDREN!!!

Tricky Dick's room is clean for the first and only time this year.

"Yes sir, it looks like this all the time."

82 A second look at Craig's room because he couldn't believe it.

And so to lunch.

Everybody falls in for rifle inspection.

"A" Co. Commander for next year.

Hurry up and wait.

Gallagher, shut up.

Just a second, sir, my finger's caught.

Inspect-shun! aaa rrr mmms.

The parade for the I.G. impressed him very much and he congratulated Col. Johnson on a perfect score. 85

Mrs. A. and Mrs. G. parcel out the blindies.

If you let the air out, she'll disappear.

THE GAUNTLET

So happy that you could come, I'd like you to meet . . .

Two hands for beginners.

If he tells that joke one more time I'm going to push him through the scenery.

First your money, then your clothes.

You can't tell by looking and the sound is undescrivable.

Meanwhile

Back at the Ranch.

That stupid grand march never seems to end.

Until James Mel decides to head for the sidelines.

Hold up those stickers.

Miss Mary Nell Griffin about to be crowned.

Mr. Weaver sets up shop below decks.

James Mel and Mary Nell get ready for theirs.

Of course, everybody has to show his young lady his room.

Was it spiked or wasn't it?

Mrs. Baker keeps the parents happy.

Where are my contacts?

No, I won't go to the barracks with you.

Curfew shall not ring tonight.
