Dedication

The Annual Staff of 1974 dedicates this yearbook to Mr. Fred Rose, a member of the Paris High School faculty. Mr. Rose has been with the Paris School System for six years. During this time, he has served as head baseball coach and assistant football coach along with his regular teaching duties as a special education instructor. This past year, he taught a new human relations class which proved to be a very different and exciting course for those who participated in it. Coach Rose has given up much of his free time at lunch to preside over the study hall room, giving the students a place to meet and relax between classes. He is friendly with and concerned about all the students; he is always ready to listen to their problems and talk with them and advise them if they so desire. The students of Paris High School are very proud and privileged to have such a dedicated teacher and understanding friend as Coach Rose.

I remember the actions and expressions of the

On a drizzly November afternoon, the Paris Greyhounds met the Elkhorn City Cougars to determine the Class A State Championship. Fans, cheerleaders and referees donned raincoats, hats, and umbrellas to withstand the falling rain. Despite the rain, the Hounds dominated the first half, up 21-0 at half-time. Withstanding an Elkhorn City comeback, the Hounds emerged from Hanger Stadium the 1973 Class A State Champions.

Hounds on their way to the State Championship

Five years of determination, pride, and dedication can vividly be seen in the face of Head Coach Homer Goins. The thrill of victory is easily seen in this picture of Coach Goins and the Greyhounds, taken after the Todd County Central game. After a slow first half, the Greyhounds exploded in the second half and defeated Todd County 34-20. With this victory the Greyhounds won the right to make the dream of a state championship a reality. And this dream did become a reality with a 21-12 victory over Elkhorn City. The years of blood, sweat, and tears paid off and the Greyhounds are STATE CHAMPIONS!

Seniors

The Senior Class of 1974 was one of the smallest classes in several years to come through Paris High School. Despite their size, they made some very notable accomplishments. For the first time in history, the Paris High Greyhounds captured the State Class A Football Championship. They were led by eleven outstanding seniors. Also for the first time, the senior play, "The Curious Savage", was presented to the student body, in addition to its regular performance for the public. This was a reflection of the outstanding job Mrs. Clay Roseberry and her cast and crew of seniors did. In the Fine Arts Center is evidence of another great accomplishment by the seniors of '74. The senior art class, under the direction of Mrs. Jerry Tipton, painted a mural on the wall of the cafeteria, consisting of four different scenes in Bourbon County. Together with these large achievements, there were many other small, but very important happenings at Paris High. The Senior Class of 1974 combined spirit and hard work to make 1974 a very memorable year for all those connected with Paris High.

Activities

Speech Club promotes participation in speech activities

Speech Club students often write their own selections and present them at tournaments held on Saturdays all over the state. Some students perform for local meetings of local organizations. All speakers practice many hours with the sponsor before they appear in tournaments. In the Spring, the best speakers participate in the regional tournament at ECU and the state tournament at UNC. Speakers earn points determined by the events and their ratings and become members of the N.F.L. (National Forensic League), a very prestigious organization. The Speech Club is open to all students having an interest in gaining excellence in their speech and a willingness to work. The hard working officers for 1974 were, Robbin Wilkerson, co-secretary; Charisse Nutter, treasurer; Karen Crooks, president; Dana Williams, co-secretary; and Sally Swinford, vice-president.

The Speech Club membership consisted of: First Row: Becky Proffitt, Rita Linville, Kathy McMahan, Karen Crooks. Budding Artists Of P.H.S.

The Art Club began the 1973-74 year by electing the following officers: Kassie Kenney, President; Gary Mattox Vice-President; Gardenia Richardson, Secretary-Treasurer; Keith Patterson, Sergeant at Arms.

The Club's activities, sponsored by Mrs. Jerry Tipton, were highlighted by two field trips. In October, about forty members toured the Bybee Pottery Shop. They also visited the Art classes and Gallery at Eastern Kentucky University. In the Spring, the Club went to Morehead State University's Art Department. A guided tour of the Art Gallery and classes were highlights of this trip.

During one of the meetings, Mrs. Linda Griffith talked to the Club. She is a local artist and brought some of her work for display.

Other Art Club activities included building a float for the Christmas parade and helping to decorate for the Football and Basketball Banquets.

The Art Club and classes ended the year with the annual Exhibit and Sale of art projects in connection with the Spring Concert.

Parisionnaires'

mellow tones bring joy in many performances

The Parisionnaires spent a very busy school year with two of their several performances given in the F. A. C. for the student body being the Thanksgiving Program and the Christmas Program. Away from the school the Parisionnaires gave programs in the First Baptist Church, The Church of God, the Lions Club, Rotary Club, Professional Women's Club, and the Kentucky Utilities Co. Christmas party. The Lion's Club Dixieland Show was the center point of another Parisionnaire performance where they appeared four nights. But all is not work as discovered when they attended the Band's Christmas party and the Annual Band picnic. For closing exercises the Parisionnaires sang in the Baccalaureate service given May 19. They also took the trip with the band in early Spring to Florida, where they performed at Disneyworld.

Beta's had a busy year

In 1974, the Paris Betas were kept busy with various activities. In December, they attended the State Beta Convention in Louisville. At the convention, Mark Wells ran for Vice-President, and all the members of our Club urged everyone there to "Get Wells Soon". Besides the convention, the Betas were kept busy with the annual Beta Induction, concessions, a party honoring the Seniors, selling trees, and acting as guides at the various school activities.

Latin Club Goes Dramatic

On March 26, fourteen Latin I students presented a comedy play "Rinse the Blood Off My Toga" for the remaining Latin Club. The play was a humorous account of the investigation of the assassination of Julius Caesar and was written as a modern "private eye" case. The leading characters were played by Tom Creasey, Gregg Coons, and Penni Guth. As the play was very successful, the Latin Club is considering making such a play an annual event.

?!The Senior Savages!?

Twenty seniors had an uproariously good time producing "The Curious Savage," a play concerned with ten million dollars, scheming step-children and helpful friends --all in the Cloisters (a home for the "mentally different"). The seniors gained a new insight--"no matter how much you have, you never forget the foolish things you always wanted," and the audience learned "And if I laugh at any mortal thing--"Tis that I may not weep."
