POT - POURRI

Look out Millersburg, here we come!

I didn't do it.

Don't need no short people 'round here.

"I am the greatest!"

What am I doing out here by myself?

The escape car?

I never did know how to work these things!

They told me there would be days like this.

What do you mean this isn't the way out?

ary?

HISTORY OF MMI

In July, 1893, Col. Meade Best and his wife came from Virginia to Kentucky to establish a school for boys. Millersburg had been an education center since colonial times, and the Bests secured the property of the old Kentucky Wesleyan to establish the Millersburg Training School, operated in conjunction with the Methodist Church.

The first graduating class was that of 1897 with one graduate. In 1898, the school became the private property of Colonel Best. Shortly thereafter the military feature was added, and the name of the school became Millersburg Military Institute. A barbecue was held by the community at which time funds were raised to purchase guns and swords for the cadets enrolled.

In the spring of 1920, Col. Best resigned and the buildings and grounds were sold to the Bourbon County School Board. The citizens of the Millersburg community determined that MMI would continue, and they formed a corporation to perpetuate the school. The old Allen home, a stately colonial mansion built in 1852, was purchased. It became the nucleus of the school and still serves as the Administration Building and President's home.

Col. W. R. Nelson, who had been Commandant under Col. Best, became the head of the school and served in that capacity until his retirement in 1953. During these years Moffett Hall, the athletic field and stadium, Rankin Hall, and a gymnasium were added. The field was later named Rees Field to honor Major J. Ward Rees who served as coach and teacher for forty-seven years.

In 1946 a new gymnasium was erected and dedicated to the memory of the cadets who had lost their lives in World II. Miller Hall became the school's next building, a dormitory named for Mrs. W. M. Miller, a long time member of the Board of Trustees.

Col. Nelson retired in 1953, and Col. Leslie C. Blankenship became the President, serving in this capacity until 1962. Col. W. D. Haynes became the fourth head of MMI in 1962, serving as President until 1968. In September 1963 the dining hall which had been the original gymnasium, was destroyed by fire. Funds which had been raised for a swimming pool, plus a generous donation from the Gamble brothers, made possible the construction of the present dining facility.

In July, 1968, Col. Joseph R. Johnson was selected to become Superintendent of MMI. He retained this post until 1975.

On July 1, 1975, Colonel Alvan C. Hadley, Jr. assumed the Presidency of the Millersburg Military Institute, following his retirement from the United States Army. Colonel Hadley still retains this position.

Commencing with the 1975 - 76 academic year, the cadets of the junior school moved from the old Wesleyan College Building to Rankin Hall on the main campus. In September 1976, the Middle School (formerly called the junior school) was expanded to include the fifth grade. In January 1977, five young lady high school students were admitted as the school's first female cadets on a day student basis.

Beginning with the 1977 academic year three foreign Cadets (two from Ecuador and one from Guatemala) joined the Corps of Cadets for the first time in many years. In November 1977 the old Junior School was razed and the property subsequently sold. The 1978 year ended with a four year record high enrollment of 105 Cadets including eight girls among the twenty-two day students.

For more than eighty-five years MMI has striven to fulfill the promise, "...to develop the moral character and true manliness of each student. Self reliance and self responsibility will be insisted upon and a clear conception of honor, truth and duty will be carefully taught."

To cling to valuable tradition and yet move with the rapid changes in modern society is the dual purpose under which instruction must operate. Preparation for further education is the basic purpose of the institution and RIGHT TRAINING IS BETTER THAN RICHES remains the motto for Millersburg Military Institute.
