MILLERSBURG MILITARY INSTITUTE

MILLERSBURG, KENTUCKY

Established 1893

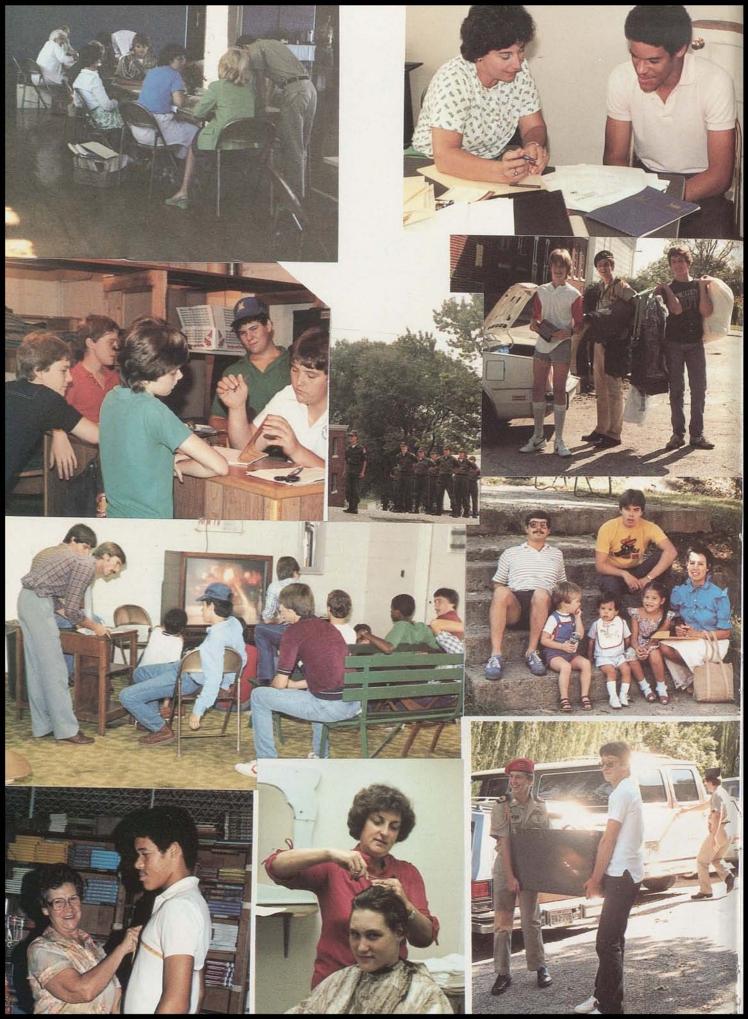

"RIGHT TRAINING IS BETTER THAN RICHES"

Verses:

On the fields on contest playing, Neath the blue and gold; or in pleasant halls of learning Thou our lives doth mold.

Send us forth dear Alma Mater, Steady tried and true; May our love for thee ne'er falter, All life's journey through.

know MMI...

EMERGENCY: Go to the nearest exhibit, concession or merchandising kiosk where employees will summon help. Or go to a phone and dial 971-4357 (HELP)

PARKING: Keep your stub to remind you where you're parked and to reclaim your vehicle. If you rode a parking lot shuttle bus, keep your shuttle ticket so you know which bus to board.

GATES: Bus riders should exit through the same gate they entered Fair to re-board their buses.

LOST CHILD: Call 971-4357. All lost children will be taken to Building 1 in the Emergency Services Complex.

CHILD CARE: Call the International Children's Center (on the corner of 11th St. & Cumberland Ave.) at 523-8073 for professional child care within easy walking distance. A list of other recommended centers is available at Building 3, Emergency Services Complex LODGING: Call 971-1000 for lodging assistance

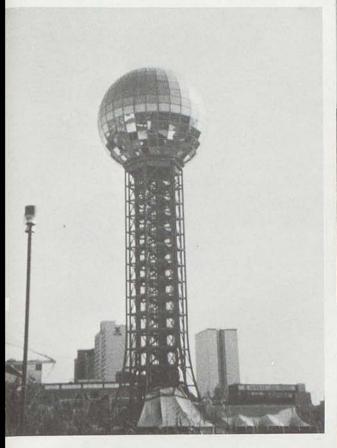

RE-ENTRY: To leave and re-enter the Fair the same day, you must have your hand stamped at the gate before exiting. No food or beverages may be brought inside the gates: all food eaten on the Fair site must be purchased on-site

DETAILED MAPS: For a more detailed map, purchase the Official Guidebook or the Official Map at various locations on and off the fairgrounds.

PETS: Since no pets are permitted on the fairgrounds, you are urged to make animal care arrangements. A list of recommended veterinary clinics and kennels is available at Building 3. Emergency Services Complex.

TRAFFIC: Tune to Radio 530 AM for reports of current traffic conditions, parking availability and other traveler's information. LOCKERS: For your convenience, lockers are located near each gate GENERAL: Shirts and shoes are required

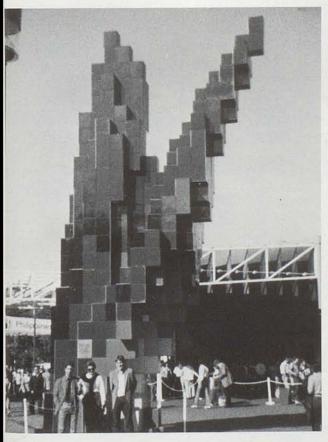

All prices, policies and programs are subject to change without notice @1982 KIEE

DR. ED FORD MMI COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Senator Ed Ford, a resident of Cynthiana, serves the 30th District, an area made up of Bourbon, Fayette, Harrison, Nicholas, Robertson, Scott and Woodford Counties. A veterinarian, he is a graduate of Auburn University. He is past president of the Cynthiana-Harrison County Chamber of Commerce; a member of the American, Kentucky and Buffalo Trace Veterinary Medical Associations; a member of the Farm Bureau, Rotary Club, VFW and American Legion. He was voted Harrison County Citizen of the Year in 1975 and was a member of the Harrison County Board of Education, 1971-77 and chairman of that board 1973-77. He was named "Veterinarian of the Year" in 1979 by the Kentucky Veterinary Medical Association. Since 1978 he has served with distinction in the Kentucky General Assembly, and was named "Outstanding Freshman Senator" his first year by the Capitol Press Corps. He has served on the Education, Agriculture and Natural Resources Committees, and on the Banking and Insurance Committee. At present he is chairman of the Counties and Special Districts Committee.
