A YEAR OF SUCCESS
Who's Who

Best All Around —
Jeanie Gorey and Blaine Clark

Both Jeannie and Blaine are a pleasure to be around. They have a great sense of humor, both are well-liked and both are outstanding students. Their friends feel proud to be around them.

Most Athletic —
Kelley Crain and Roger Clark

Both Kelley and Roger have displayed their athletic abilities in junior and senior high school. Roger displayed his talents on the football field helping them to win two state championships. Kelley played for the Lady Hounds and she was a great leader for the team.

Most School Spirit —
Dana Cartmill and Mike Gay

Dana and Mike contributed more than their part to show “Pride” for Paris High. Dana was the vivacious “Pep” who led the fans and the players during the games. Mike played a major part in making signs and decorating the school and he was deeply involved with the Pep Club.
Gwen and Mike have always been dedicated to their studies. Both have received many awards and their names have been placed on the Honor Roll and Faculty List many times. Success has played a major factor in high school for them and it will continue through the rest of their lives.

No one can find fault with the seniors for voting Terri and John as the best looking in their class. When they walk through the halls with their stylish clothes and good looks, heads turn to take a second look.

Lisa and Greg were chosen for most talented because of their tremendous abilities and skills. Lisa is an artist at work when she is working on her art projects. Greg shows his skills both in art and on the football field and the basketball court.

September 30 will be a night to remember for home­ coming queen, Terri Shriver and her court. While the alumni reminisced old times and greeted classmates seldom seen, the students and fans cheered the Hounds to another victory. They rolled over Nicholas County, 20-12.

At right, crown bearer James McFarland and flower girl Julie Reese take their place on the field during the half time ceremony.
September 30 is a night that the senior court, Kern Myers, Gwen Pitts, Terri Shriver, and Tonya Sanders won't soon forget; but this holds most true for Terri Shriver, our new 1983 Homecoming Queen.

Terri has accomplished much during her four years at PHS. She has held class offices freshman and sophomore years, been included in the Queen's court freshman and sophomore years, won Home Economics award sophomore year, received Accounting I and U.S. History certificates junior year, been on the honor roll various times, and she presently holds the position as President of FBLA.

Terri's hobbies include cooking, working with plants, camping, swimming, and she enjoys very much her job at her father's dry-cleaning business.

Terri plans to attend a two-year liberal arts college, and she would like to pursue secretarial work.
A Successful Academic Squad

Joining the many groups and organizations at Paris High this past school year was an academic squad known as "Scholastic Challenge." Under the direction of Mrs. Mary Dickerson, the group competed with other squads representing high schools from around the state. The Paris High squad was victorious in one of two appearances on KET's Scholastic Challenge," and made a very impressive showing on WLEX's "In the Know."

Seniors composing the team were Michael Gay and Eric Fitzwater and team captain, Michael Chumbley. Supporting the senior members was a group of very dedicated alternates, composed of juniors Kirk Woosley and Reif Marler, and sophomores Eric Chumbley and Mike Pack.

Seniors Say Goodbye

We finally made it! Our high school years are over. Each will be going their own way, and it is a new beginning for everyone.

The graduating seniors can proudly say they are the alumni of Paris High School. We have had a wonderful opportunity to obtain an excellent education which has prepared us for the years that lie ahead. Each of us hope to be successful in whatever we may do.

Mrs. Dickerson Receives Dedication

Mrs. Mary Dickerson is not only a teacher here at Paris High, but a friend as well. She is very much involved with the students she teaches and is very highly respected by her pupils and fellow faculty members.

She received her Bachelor's Degree from U.K., her Masters from Western Kentucky University, and her Rank 1 from Eastern Kentucky University.

This is Mrs. Dickerson’s fourth year at Paris High School where she teaches English II and journalism. She organized and coaches the PHS Academic Quiz Team and is adviser of the PARIS HIGH PRIDE.

She is very active in the Paris Lioness Club, the Alpha Delta Kappa Educational Honorary Sorority, the National Council of Teachers of English, the Kentucky Council of Teachers of English, the Kentucky Association for Gifted Education, and the University of Kentucky Alumni Association.

Mrs. Dickerson attends the First Baptist Church and is the Youth Group Co-Director.

Her husband, Mr. Jim Dickerson, is the Assistant Superintendent of the Paris City Schools. They have two children, Jay 8 and Whitney 6.

In her spare time she enjoys swimming, reading, composing poetry and spending time with her family.

Because she is a devoted teacher and mother who has given much to Paris High School, the PARISIAN staff dedicates its 1984 book to her.

Education better assures the mastery of our own destiny.

Education is defined as “the process of training and developing the knowledge, skill, mind, and character.” All of these are of great importance.

As you leave us, I trust that this process started at Paris High School will enable you to make decisions that will improve your life as well as that of others around you.

J. Dickerson

It is said that “A little knowledge is a dangerous thing.” Research studies indicate that the amount of knowledge one must obtain to keep pace in a rapidly moving society doubles every five years. This figure illustrates the fact that learning must continue long after one’s formal school education comes to an end. For this reason the importance of developing a high level of self-discipline leading to sound learning practices cannot be overemphasized.

During 1983-84 we have seen the beginnings of an educational revolution in this country. While there are many facets of our public secondary education in the United States that needs improving, we here at Paris High School take pride in the fact that we never lost what many schools are clambering to regain. We are indeed fortunate that the Paris City Schools' administration, faculty and staff did not abdicate their responsibility and never left the "basics."

STUDENT ACTIVITIES
Parisian staffers learned that time often moves too swiftly as they worked on

A Race Against The Calendar.

Working on the Parisian staff could be compared to the shaky plot of a noonday soap opera. Things are seldom calm or rational. Once a set of obstacles is overcome, another set of hurdles is erected. So it was with the 1984 Parisian staff.

Early in September the pressure was on to organize and produce a journalistic yearbook that would tell the story of another school year. Together the staff decided to use a theme which showed how Paris moves in its many directions through academic challenges and sport competitions in "a year of success."

Once the minor decisions of paper quality and print style were determined, the gigantic argument over the cover design and its color followed.

Next came picture scheduling for the seniors and the underclassmen. Stories and pictures were scrutinized before completion. Page designs were sketched and resketched. As the pages were finished and packed for the trip to the printer everyone checked the calendar to

This is no easy task as someone always conveniently forgets. As spring approached a club and sports day was set up — with a long plea for "ol' Sol" to shine brightly on the appointed day.

Stories and pictures were scrutinized before completion. Page designs were sketched and resketched. As the pages were finished and packed for the trip to the printer everyone checked the calendar to see if the package would make the deadline.

The staff worked long hours to give the book a refreshing look. We hope you enjoy it.

Whether you are a freshman, an alumnus, or faculty member or just someone who by chance opened this book, the contents are devoted to a story about Paris High School which has had a very successful year.

The Beta Club inducted ten new members at its annual induction ceremony.
Kelley Crain gave the scripture, Eric Fitzwater gave the history of the Beta organization and Lisa Hutchison gave the purpose of the club and how one becomes a member.
President Jeannie Gorey presided over the taping and giving the pledge of oath to the new members.
Dr. Jasper Shannon, a noted historian, was the speaker.
The ceremony was concluded with the benediction by Tommy Skeen.

Club Of Achievement

The Paris Beta Club has the distinction of being one of the earliest chapters in the state. Founded with 28 charter members in 1939, it has maintained throughout the years its high standards of worthy character, good mentality, creditable achievement and commendable attitude. The Betas helped this year as guides for special visitation days in the high school and ushers for Baccalaurate and Commencement.

Paris High School Future Business Leaders of America observed FBLA Month by engaging in a variety of activities.

To attain a better understanding of big business and "The Working Environment", FBLA members toured the Jerrico facilities in Lexington. The trip provided students with an opportunity to see a landscaped office and modural work stations. Students toured the word processing center, records department, computer center, and the drafting and design department.

To promote academics and support teaching efforts, FBLA members invited teachers at PHS to submit requests for materials and/or equipment to be used in the classroom. Over $300 was allocated from fundraising monies to provide teachers with the items they requested.

To aid in a community project, FBLA members cooperated with the Central Kentucky Blood Center by distributing posters and handout materials announcing a drive for blood donations in the Paris-Bourbon County area.

To contribute to a State FBLA endeavor, FBLA members elected to send a cash donation to the State FBLA Scholarship Fund.
Ten competitors attended Regional Competition at Northern Kentucky University. Rodney Bumpus was awarded a certificate for Who’s Who in Kentucky FBLA. The Paris chapter was also awarded with a certificate for donating to the Regional Scholarship Fund.

To support National FBLA endeavors, the members were encouraged to donate dimes for the “Dime-a-Day” campaign to raise money for building a National FBLA-PBL Center in VA.

To promote team effort and cooperation, the members joined FHA members in sponsoring a breakfast provided for members of both organizations.

To demonstrate school spirit and team support, they placed handmade Valentine’s Day cards and hound paws on the locker of each lady hound basketball team member.

To promote new membership in FBLA at PHS the members personally gave written invitations to “join FBLA” to freshmen and sophomores.

To provide students with an opportunity to demonstrate skill and artistry, FBLA members sponsored an art typing contest. Typing I students were invited to design and type original pictures.

On the final day of FBLA month, members dressed in business attire and wore FBLA business name tags.
F.H.A. Has Busy Year

FHA had a very busy year filled with many service projects. At Thanksgiving, they gave a food basket to a needy family. Also in November, they babysat for the Drug Awareness programs. During February, they collected money for UNICEF. Officers attended the fall Region 15 training and in March members attended the spring Regional meeting. Pat Turpin, Ronnie Sparks, and Cindy McMahon represented Paris at the State Meeting held in Louisville, April 26-28.

FBLA's Randy Turner presents FHA advisor, Ms. Cox, with a gift at the combined FBLA and FHA Christmas dinner. The two clubs also held a banquet in April.

Pep Club Needs Sponsor

Orange, black and white paint, brushes, rolls of paper, coupled with eager youth to show their artistic talents make up a rousing pep sign contingency ready to give the halls a new dimension before each football game. The Pep Club was very busy during the first half of the school year. They prepared run throughs for the players, gave the auditorium a festive up-lift before each pep rally, made ID’s and encouragement labels for the player’s lockers, painted faces, made shakers and even found time to decorate a float for the Christmas parade.

With the fine support and regretful resignation of Mrs. Rankin to take the cheerleader sponsorship, we hope this club will continue in the future with a new leader.

Student Expression Made Through Council

Providing a platform for student expression and dealing with student concerns were the primary functions of the Student Council at monthly meetings this year. The Council is composed of elected class presidents, vice-presidents and Student Council representatives from each grade level.

Problems dealt with by the Council included the need of a mirror in the boys' top-floor restroom, inadequate trash receptacles, bus problems, need to post detention hall names and recognition of students for academic achievement.

Service projects included overseeing school Christmas decorating, serving on the cheerleader selection committee, "Cans or Cash" drive for the Community Food Basket and acting as volunteer answerers for the United Cerebral Palsy Telethon.

Mrs. Lelia Henry is Council sponsor.
Army Exhibit Makes

Lots and lots of paint, paper, glue, string, chalk, and pencils cover the tables and shelves in the art room.

Such confusion one has never seen, but what beautiful and artistic creations come out the door, as was exhibited by the art department at their annual spring show. Lisa Hutchison was top blue ribbon winner in drawing and shading with chalk, embroidery, cartooning, drawing with ink, bottle collage, and shading with pencil.
Rose Mullins took top honors in paper relief, insect drawing, slab pots, weaving, sunglasses, folder, painted circles and shading with paint.

Beverly Roe won blue ribbons in macrame, shading, teacher painting, portrait of self, and drawing and shading with chalk.

With approximately 57 first place winners and 52 second place winners we can certainly say the Art Department has had a successful year, all with the outstanding help of Ms. Cindy Keeton the art teacher.

The resignation of Ms. Cindy Keeton was sad news to both the faculty and students. The staff wishes her well in her future plans.
Hey chief photographer, where is your camera? It looks like you got caught on the other side of the shutter.

The 1983-84 Paris High Pride staff consisted of: Henry Poston, Rebecca Burden, Lisa Hutchison, Kirk Woosley, Donald Wells, John Hinkson, Thad Harrington, Mary Clark, Holli Ferrell, Kim Smart, Mike Chumbley, Mrs. Dickerson, Dana Cartmill, and Mike Hughes.
Staff Has Busy Year

The 1983-84 school year was a busy and productive one for staff members of the Paris High Pride. In its fourth year, the publication served the students and faculty of Paris High in an informative and professional manner.

Under the leadership of Editor Rebecca Burden and journalism teacher and newspaper advisor, Mrs. Mary Dickerson, the journalists presented both entertaining and enlightening articles monthly.

From the journalism course, students learned the proper methods of news, feature, editorial and sports writing, as well as lay-out and design principles. In addition, students gained valuable experience in the Mark of Excellence contest sponsored by Western Kentucky University.
Youthful Pals

Teens Who Care is a service club. Its purpose is to provide a vehicle for students who care about helping others. Membership in the club is open to any student in grades 9-12.

This was a very successful year for T.W.C. The club reached its three major goals. They were: to sponsor a boy and a girl from Chile; to have a successful Talent Show; and to present a scholarship to a college-bound Senior who plans to prepare for a service profession. Fortunately the Talent Show was so financially successful that the club was able to grant two scholarships.

Jones Wins State Competition

The Speech Club of Paris High School brought to an end its year of competition by participating in the State Speech Tournament at the University of Kentucky on Saturday, April 7, with a most memorable win.

Speech Club members included: Mike Wells, Sean Scott, Mike Young, Judy Pridemore, Lynn Williams, Nancy Kaufman and Darnel Jones. The group competed in several area speech tournaments throughout the school year, including tournaments at Scott County, Harrison County, Lexington Catholic, Henry Clay, and Jessamine County.

The Regional Speech Tournament was held on March 3 on the campus of Georgetown College. Paris High students who attended the regional meet were Nancy Kaufman, Lynn Williams and Darnel Jones. All three students received high rankings which were sufficient to qualify them as competitors in the state tournament.

Darnel Jones, who competed in the Poetry category, took first place in area tournaments at Henry Clay and Lexington Catholic in regular competition. On Saturday, he won first place in the State poetry competition by reading a selection entitled "The Story of the Negro Race" by Vachel Lindsay. Lynn Williams performed a scene from "Victor, Victoria," and Nancy Kaufman read a prose selection.

Congratulations to you Darnel, and to your fine speech coach, Mrs. Sharon Toadvine, for adding another honor in our year of success.

Lynn and Nancy point out the date on which Darnel won the State Competition in Poetry.

Auditions were held in the early fall and approximately 40 harmonizing voices were selected for participation in the Parisonnaires.

Practice sessions are always hectic as it is difficult to assemble everyone at the same time. They were long and tiresome, but paid off in the end.

Mr. Franz did a marvelous job in guiding his band and choir through the Christmas season. A whirlwind of beautiful Christmas performances kept the singers quite busy during the holidays.

Solo performances by Christine Bishop and Francine Smith highlighted the Christmas programs.

The final performances by the Parisonnaires was the Baccalaureate and Graduation ceremonies.

Thank you for enhancing the cultural arts of our student body and adding to another successful school year.
Drum major, Nancy Bannister did a fine job leading the band in their musical performances.

Majorettes Tanya Sanders and Latonya Chenault sparkled in their splendid twirling expeditions.

Flag girls Yvette Rice, Renee Johnson, Shanda Thomas, Yvonne Howard, and Annette Brown added color and zest to the band routines.
School bells, fall foliage, the rumbling of drums and high stepping young musicians all mark the start of another school year. But long before August, the band members, majorettes, and flag girls start their year with a week of intense drill and practice at Camp Crescendo.

The band and its entourage ushered in the football season with some splendid marching and musical executions.

They then followed with Christmas parades and concerts, basketball games and completed the year with their fabulous spring concert and graduation.

Even with all of this activity they found time to enter the marching and musical competition at Bath County and Tates Creek.

Hats off to Mr. Franz and his merry music makers!
When your auto is out of tune, Stoner Parsons, Richard Reed, Willie Shriver, Jim Hurst, Kenny Parsons or Brad Parsons could be your next auto mechanic.

At right, Kenney McCarty uses a machine in the Machine Shop class.

Welders fabricate and repair metal products by joining pieces of metal to form a permanent bond. They plan the operations and select the equipment to be used. These skills require a knowledge of the metals involved and type of weld to be made. At Clark County, Mark Parrish, Rodney Roe and Danny Puckett are learning this valuable trade.
Clark County Vocational Center Offers A Variety Of Courses

Developing the knowledge and skills for a particular job while you are still in high school is an asset to you.

At Clark County Vocational Educational Center you can choose from Welding, Carpentry, Machine Shop, Auto Mechanics and Health Service Careers. You may gain valuable experience from the co-op program if you have learned the necessary skills and if a job site is available.

If learning a trade and hitting the work world immediately after high school is what you want, then vocational education is for you.

Health Careers has become a popular course for many people. Since the work is varied, one can find a place suited just for them. Here we see Sarah Eades, Katrina Hall and Sabrina Rice learning some of the office and kitchen duties.
The fellowship of Christian Athletes enjoyed their first year of existence this past year, envolving from a nationwide program that began nearly 30 years ago when a group of professional athletes got together to spread the word of God using their influence and positions as a medium. The Paris chapter sponsored a Central Kentucky FCA Rally in March. The featured speaker was Bill Glass, a nationally known minister who was an All-Pro defensive end for the Cleveland Browns while playing for Paris' own Blanton Collier.

The group normally met twice a month, studying the Bible and discussing problems that face all teenagers and especially high school athletes. This years' president was Frank Whitney; vice-president was Reif Marler and the treasurer was Mike Pack.
Perfect form makes Mindy Fister a winning cheerleader.

J.V. cheerleaders are: Holli Ferrell, Sherri English, Nancy Kaufman, Yvonne Cummins, Kim Woosley, Mindy Fister, Tia Henson, and Mrs. Sharon Rankin, sponsor.
Win Or Lose, They Cheer

Generating support for a team whether they are winning or losing can be a challenging effort and the PHS cheerleaders take this challenge with enthusiasm and dedication. The squads practice on sideline cheers and pom pon routines until perfection is accomplished.

The J.V. squad attended a cheerleading clinic at U.K. and won two blue ribbons for best cheers and the "spirit stick." They received the first place trophy in district competition with Mindy Fister and Kim Woosley making all district cheerleader and the second place trophy in regional competition, with Mindy Fister and Sherri English making the regional cheerleader team.

The Varsity squad attended a clinic in Indiana. They won the right to go to Hawaii to compete in the National Pom Pon competition. Although they were disappointed in that financially they could not attend, this did not lessen the honor.

Season Record 11-1

Junior quarterback, Bo Henry guided the Greyhounds to 3801 total yards offense.
The 1983-Greyhounds burst onto the scene, rambling off eleven straight victories.

Greyhounds Set All-Time Record At 38 In A Row

The 1983 football season was another in a line of successful campaigns that date back to the roots of Kentucky High School football. However, history took a significant turn as a 50 year old record fell when the Greyhounds won their 36th consecutive game and established the all-time record at 38.

This team picked by many to be a rebuilding team, finished this season ranked Number 1, unusual only in that it represented the third time in as many years that number one belonged to the Hounds. A fourth consecutive District championship and an unprecedented third consecutive Regional championship highlighted the accomplishments of this very intense group of young men.

Nevertheless, these fetes represent only stepping stones to a future that will constantly be measured by the assumption of responsibilities earned by the hard work, perseverance, and dedication of the 1983 Greyhound Pride.
Banquet Honors Players

Greg Mack — Most Efficient Offensive Back
John Hinkson — Most Efficient Defensive Back
Marty Goins — Most Efficient Defensive Lineman
Sammy Scott — Iron Man Award

Mike Chumbley — Most Efficient Offensive Lineman
Herman Hutsell — Honorary Captain
Tommy Skeen — Most Efficient Linebacker

Paris had three players chosen to the All-State team. They were: Herman Hutsell, second team offensive end; Marty Goins, second team defensive end; and Tommy Skeen, first team linebacker.

Tommy Reed runs off another big gain. Reed rushed for 834 yards for a fine year.
The defense swarms on an opponent, only 11 touchdowns were scored on the Hounds this year.

'84 Was A Rebuilding Year

The 1983-84 basketball season was very encouraging. There was one returning starter, Herman Hutsell, with the need to replace four positions. Terrence Brooks, Tommy Skeen, John Hinkson, and Myrin Roberts did an excellent job at this. Three of these young men will be returning. Brooks, Skeen, and Roberts. Two positions will be filled by other seniors, juniors from the B-team, and sophomores from an undefeated (21-0) freshmen team.

The season ended 19-9, and the loss was to Bourbon County, the eventual runner-up in the state tournament.

Coach Crain stated, "I believe we have an excellent group of seniors next year with great support from our juniors and one or two of our sophomores. I feel we have a solid group of players every year through our seventh grade."

Senior Kelley Crain makes a driving run for the basket.

The Lady Hounds 1983-84 season might best be described as a roller coaster ride. The Lady Hounds jumped out to an excellent start by winning their first four games of the season. Their only loss before Christmas came at the hands of Lexington Lafayette, a participant in the girl’s state tourney.

The Lady Hounds then finished second in the Campbell County post-Christmas tourney, but rang in the New Year with a loss in the Harrison County Tournament. Some tough luck in the latter part of January and early February resulted in the lost services of two starters for four weeks. During that time, the Lady Hounds went two and six. The last two weeks of February became the stiffest part of the schedule. Despite losing their last four regular season games, the Lady Hounds actually exhibited some of their best performances of the season.

They breezed past their first opponent in the district tourney only to lose a heart breaker to Harrison County in the championship game. The final margin being only two points. After drawing 10th Region favorite Mason County in the first round, the lady Hounds put up a good fight but it was not enough to dethrone the Royals. The final season record ended at 10-15.

It was not a winning season, but success is not always measured in terms of numbers. After overcoming many obstacles, the Lady Hounds fought back and found satisfaction in knowing that in the end, they had performed up to their capabilities.

P.H.S. Has State Competitor

The 1983-84 Paris High Gymnastics team had a good year. Paris participated in four meets during the regular season. They opened the season at home in a dual meet against teams from Lafayette, Tates Creek, and Woodford County. Paris finished third with Lafayette, Tates Creek, and Woodford County taking first, second, and fourth respectively. The second meet of the season was held at Lafayette. Paris finished a strong second with Lafayette and Henry Clay taking first and third respectively. Paris then came home and held a tri-meet with Lafayette and Tates Creek. Paris finished in third place. Lafayette and Tates Creek finished first and second respectively, both teams were the strongest in the region. The season ended in a dual meet at Woodford County. Paris finished in second place, Henry Clay, Bryan Station, and Woodford County finished first, third, and fourth respectively.

At the end of the season, Paris participated in the Regional Tournament finishing fourth out of eight teams. Jackie Kennon qualified for the state competition with a fourth place finish in the beam and eighth in the vault.

Hats Off To Our Food Service Personnel

The food service personnel work long and hard to satisfy the hungry appetites of the students at PHS. They provide two types of lines at lunch, the hamburger line and the regular line.

Busy activity starts early morning in preparation for the arrival of the breakfast students. Quitting time is only after the last piece of silverware has been wrapped for the next day.

Mrs. Dorothy Wells serves as Director of the food service with Mrs. Mary Pochodzay as her assistant. Hats off to all of you for an excellent job!

Mrs. Betty Jo Denton Heick announced the recipients of the scholarships given each year by the Alumni Association. This year they went to Kim Smart, Kelly Crain, Lisa Hutchison, Dana Cartmill and Mike Chumbley.

Kim Smart received the Outstanding Senior Alumni Cup Award which was presented by Beverly True.

Mrs. Ann Henry presented the Kirkpatrick Cup to Larry Brannon.

Michael Gay received the Henrieta Linville award and the Zerelda Noland award for excellence in English went to Eric Fitzwater.

The new Alumni officers for 1983-85 are Frank McCracken, Jr., President; Miss Gwen Pitts, Vice President; Mrs. Carolyn Barlow, Secretary and Mrs. Kent Woodford, Treasurer.

Alumni scholarship recipients were Kim Smart, Lisa Hutchison, Mike Chumbley, Dana Cartmill, and Kelly Crain.
Swinging Into Spring

The 1984 juniors gave its annual prom for the seniors and selected a most appropriate theme, "Springtime in Paris."

Beautiful ladies and tuxedo dressed young men danced under a canopy of blue and silver stars to the music provided by Spontaneous Combustion.

The French city decorations made the background for the return of the Senior Grand March.

The evening was highlighted with the coronation of the queen and king.
Shriver and Harrington Honored

The Junior Class selected the Prom King and Queen by secret ballot. Terri Shriver was the third sister of the Shriver family to be selected as Prom Queen. She also is the only one of the sisters to earn both Homecoming and Prom Queen titles. The King honor went to Thad Harrington. Sheila Sargent and Chris Tipton were chosen as runners-up.

Students Honored for Academic and Leadership Responsibility

The United States Achievement Academy — National Leadership Merit Awards went to: Lynn Williams, Kim Smart, Tonya Sanders, Jeannie Gorey, Kelly Crain, Terri Shriver, Sheila Sargent, Lisa Hutchinson, Dana Cartmill, Blaine Clark, John Hinkson, Michael Chumbley, Michael Gay, Eric Fitzwater, and Melissa McFazland. These students were selected on academics, dependability, leadership, citizenship, attitude, cooperative spirit and responsibility.

The Academic All-American Scholar Award is to recognize those seniors who have a three point or better standing. This year Paris had seven academic winners. They were: Jeannie Gorey, Lynn Williams, Kim Smart, Kelly Crain, Tonya Sanders, Michael Chumbley, Eric Fitzwater, and Lisa Hutchinson.

Kim Smart, Gwen Pitts, Yvette Rice, Tonya Sanders, Reif Marler, Bobby Workman, Henry Poston and Paula Hefflin attended the American Private Enterprise System seminar sponsored by the Cooperative Extension Service. They increased their knowledge of the American economic system through involvement with local business leaders and became acquainted with a variety of career opportunities open to them in business.

The Society of Distinguished American High School Student Award is based upon leadership and service to the school and community. The winners from PHS were: Jeannie Gorey, Rebecca Burden, Lynn Williams, Tonya Sanders, Kim Smart, Kelly Crain, Terri Shriver, Lisa Hutchinson, Dana Cartmill, Gwen Pitts, Sheila Sargent, Blaine Clark, Michael Chumbley, Michael Gay, Eric Fitzwater, John Hinkson, Thad Harrington, and Chris Tipton.

Is it the end of today?
Or the beginning of tomorrow?

We all see things differently.
Hope is despair. Promise is futility. Defeat is triumph.
Problem is opportunity.

It's all in the way you see yourself and the world around you.

Attitude.

What you've gotten out of school this year just might be a direct reflection of what you've put into it. The same certainly holds true for next year.

In school, as in life, you get back what you put in.

We've found it holds true in business, too. That's why.

At McDonald's® we do it all for you.
