Brereton C. Jones, the founder of Woodford County's Airdrie Stud, an internationally prominent producer of thoroughbred horses, is the speaker for the 93rd graduating class. Mr. Jones, a native of West Virginia and a graduate of the University of Virginia, is President of the Kentucky Health Care Access Foundation, Inc., is a member of the Board of Trustees for the University of Kentucky the Prichard Committee for Academic Excellence, the Governor's Council on Educational Reform, the Council of Supervisors of the Chandler Medical Center, and the Kentucky State Board of Agriculture. He has worked extremely hard to insure adequate medical care for all Kentuckians.

ANDREW FERGUSON - VALEDICTORIAN

JAMES W. CHILDS - SALUTATORIAN

HEATHER R. MATHES - SALUTATORIAN

The Georgetown Choral Society, a Kentucky non-profit corporation dedicated to the performance of quality music. It is a community-based organization open to any resident of Scott or surrounding counties, subject to audition by the director. The group is currently composed of forty members and directed by Daniel B. Tilford, professor of music at Georgetown College. Mrs. Tilford is the accompanist. The group, founded in 1974, performs two concerts annually. They have also performed for banquets, conventions, at Kentucky State Parks, and with the Cincinnati May Festival Chorus, and for the Governor of Kentucky. The Society has also spear-headed several church-music festivals.

SENIOR WILL TREASURE MEMORIES

We know they will miss this place, the good times, their fellow Cadets. If they become desperate, they might even miss the faculty and administration. Well, maybe.

JAY HAUSERMAN will miss the Morrison family most and the people who followed him constantly.

MIKE ELAM will miss his friends, Reed and Harscher.

TIM WINN will miss his school uniform and the basketball trips.

ANDREW FERGUSON will miss his easy classes and his 4.0.

DARRELL HALEY will miss being the "Pearl of M.M.I.".

KEITH STEWART will miss the whole sweet Commonwealth of Kentucky

KELLY MASSIE will miss his intimate phone calls at break, lunch, after school, after dinner.....

CHUCK DUNHAM will miss being babied.

STACY SELIGMAN will miss her old friend Boomer.

MIKE WESTRAN will miss his sporty Rambo uniform.

HEATHER MATHES will miss all her friends and the quadrangle.

CARL DABBAH will miss all his girl admirers in town.

RODGER REED will miss all the rodents he had so much fun with.

TYRONE BALLEW will miss all his cozy naps.

MIKE HARSCHER will miss being a sixty-minute man on the basketball team.

GREG WINNINGHAM will miss wearing all his varsity letters.

JIM CHILDS will miss everything he has complained about for four years.

BRIAN HYATT will miss...well, all he has to do is walk over here.

TAYLOR SAMUELS will miss all his admirers and slaves, and Jim Childs.

JAMES W. CHILDS, III, a Senior from Uniontown, Ohio, was chosen as the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award recipient given by the Jenima Johnson Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution (D.A.R.).

To be chosen for the D.A.R. Award, students must have demonstrated the qualities of good character which the society emphasizes: dependability, service, leadership and patriotism. They must also exhibit the quality of being honorable and understanding.

Andrew Ferguson Named Valedictorian At MMI

ANDREW THORNTON FERGUSON was named Valedictorian of the 1985-86 graduating class at Millersburg Military Institute. Ferguson, who has attended M.M.I. since the seventh grade, was graduated with a 3.83 overall grade point average for his high school. In addition to being named Valedictorian, he was the recipient of the President's Cup, given to the senior who has demonstrated outstanding initiative, dependability and leadership. Other honors and awards received by Ferguson this year include the MacArthur Award, named to the Dean's List with a perfect 4.0 gpa, the Art Appreciation Award, English IV Award, Advanced Math Award, German III Award, Superior Cadet Decoration, and was the winner of the J. Farris Adams Scholarship sponsored by the Paris Kiwanis Club. He also served as the Battalion Commander of the Corps of Cadets at M.M.I.
