Mary Spears Van Meter Dinner
Friday, August 9

Paid Reservations Required by August 1, 2019
6PM Social Hour 7PM Dinner
$35 members/$40 non-members
Call 859-987-7274 or email info@hopewellmuseum.org
Celebrate HPBC’s Founder’s Day with Guest Speaker
Tressa Brown of the Kentucky Heritage Council for a talk about Native American stereotypes and myths and how they relate to Kentucky’s Native peoples
&Presentation of the 2019 Mary Spears Van Meter Historic Preservation Award

Fall Open House: September 15, 2-4 PM

Return to Frontier Kentucky:
Fall Open House at Fairfield
& Self-Driving Tour
500 Cynthiana Rd. Paris, KY

Cost $10 members/$15 non-members.
Visit this home that sits at the site where Gov. Garrard settled, the site of Martin’s Station, and the Alant-o-Wamiowee Buffalo Trace. A modern construction using woodwork from historic Bourbon & Harrison County homes, this house has a fine collection of Kentucky antiques and artwork. Thanks to homeowner Mary Clay for opening her home. Enjoy light refreshments and pick up a self-driving tour map to explore other sites significant to Bourbon County’s frontier history. Due to rain and flooding last year we were unable to visit Fairfield for our Fall Open House, so we are thrilled to be able to offer this unique opportunity again this year!

Thank you Paris Rotary!

Last month we were excited to receive a $1000 grant from the Paris Rotary for the 2019-2020 school year that will help us to provide field trip transportation scholarships to county schools and off-set the cost of supplies for our field trip programs. Thank you!

HPBC/Hopewell Wins Preservation Award!

HPBC/Hopewell was honored on June 23 by the Bluegrass Trust for Historic Preservation with the Lucy Graves Advocacy Award. This award recognizes the long history of HPBC’s board and volunteers tireless efforts to raise awareness and preserve the historic buildings and property of the community. Thank you, Bluegrass Trust for this honor!

New Vault Store Items!

We are excited to introduce a couple of new gift shop items inspired by our current exhibit! You can now purchase a magnet or a notecard featuring the Hopewell Museum’s own Hattie Hutchcraft Hill painting now on display in our current exhibit.

Like us on Facebook and follow us on Twitter (HopewellMuseum) Instagram (@HopewellMuseum)

Regular Hours Wed-Sat 12-5 Sun 2-4 or by appointment

Admission $5 adults; members, 18 & under FREE

Contact us if you would like information about including HPBC/HM in your estate planning.
We had such a great time at our photography camp in June, welcoming 21 (our largest group yet!) campers for 4 days of fun and learning. We learned a lot from our many guest speakers like Steve Shaffer with KET and antique camera collector, Jeff Botts. We also were able to visit with local photographer Bobby Shiflett and learned some cool techniques from Hopewell Museum volunteer and amateur photographer George Kissick.

A huge thanks to Becca Lawyer at the newspaper, Judge Mike Williams at the court house, and the volunteers of the Wallis House for letting us visit and take photos!

The week had a little extra fun when the campers met a little kitten at the Wallis House that followed us all the way back to the Museum! She caused quite a bit of excitement for the campers and featured in many of their photos from the week! So, we are thrilled to announce a happy ending as she was graciously adopted by two of our Hopewell volunteers, Candy and Albert Lane and given the name Hattie Hutchcraft Hill Lane!

The campers created their own photography exhibit for the last day of camp, which is currently on display at the Paris-Bourbon County Library for another week and then will travel to Traditional Bank.

We also want to give a shout out to our energetic teen volunteers who stuck with us all week: Maddie, Alexia, Cat, and Elizabeth! They were fantastic! And thank you to board president, Allison Cox for helping lead the camp all week!

We want to make sure to give a big thanks to our sponsor, Traditional Bank, for helping support this program of the Hopewell Museum. The camp week was truly a community effort and we definitely could not do what we do without your support!

Sometimes we find interesting artifacts in our own permanent exhibit! This ring is easy to miss when you walk through the History Hall, but we think it’s worth highlighting as an example of material culture. A mourning ring that dates to the late 18th Century, it can tell us a little about the family and the person it honors. From the inscription we know that his name was John Gaitskill, that he died in 1763 at age 50. While we don’t know how much his family would have paid for this ring, the fact that they did seems to indicate that he was a missed member of the family. We know that he was from England and settled in Virginia, where he was a ship’s captain. He disappeared in 1763, likely the result of a shipwreck. His children eventually settled in Kentucky, which is how we came to acquire this ring. Because it dates to a time before Kentucky’s statehood we include it as an example of mourning culture in our 19th Century case, when such mourning jewelry would have been at the height of popularity. Typically, mourning jewelry might include some of the hair of the loved one, but owing to his disappearance at sea the family was not able to have that for their ring. Next time you’re at the Museum, be sure to stop and get a closer look at this object!