JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE Lynching OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
HOPEWELL MUSEUM POST

June 2021 | Volume 26, No. 3
859-987-7274 | www.hopewellmuseum.org | info@hopewellmuseum.org
COVID-19 Hours | Wed-Saturday 12-5 | Tuesday by appointment
$5 | Adults • Free | Members & Under 18

JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countyans and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynchings? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed
visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life
several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 -
more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In The Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneers’ rhythmic chant, the joyful chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed
visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life
several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 -
more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admission fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
Mr. & Mrs. James Haag
224 Columbine Drive
Carlisle, KY 40311

NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

---

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE Lynching of George Carter in Paris, Kentucky

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interatives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muted the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYINGCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
HOPEWELL MUSEUM POST
June 2021| Volume 26, No. 3
859-987-7274 | www.hopewellmuseum.org | info@hopewellmuseum.org
COVID-19 Hours | Wed-Saturday 12-5 | Tuesday by appointment
$5 | Adults • Free | Members & Under 18

JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

Carmella Conner
Photo Credit: Bobby Shiflet

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!

Dr. Mike Wall and Barley
Photo Credit: Bobby Shiflet
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
HOPEWELL MUSEUM POST

June 2021 | Volume 26, No. 3
859-987-7274 | www.hopewellmuseum.org | info@hopewellmuseum.org
COVID-19 Hours | Wed-Saturday 12-5 | Tuesday by appointment
$5 | Adults • Free | Members & Under 18

JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactive visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JOHN WELLY MUSEUM POST

June 2021 | Volume 26, No. 3
859-987-7274 | www.hopewellmuseum.org | info@hopewellmuseum.org
COVID-19 Hours | Wed-Saturday 12-5 | Tuesday by appointment
$5 | Adults • Free | Members & Under 18

JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
June 5, 5-7 PM | Stoner View Farm Tour

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

The People of Bourbon County & Crossroads: Change in Rural America Now On Exhibit

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shifflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! http://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admission fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
B.B Willmott & Anne Baldwin
5231 Bryan Station RD.
Paris, KY 40361

NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed
visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life
several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 -
more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arctcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

Dr. Mike Wall and Barley
Photo Credit: Bobby Shiflet

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
Ron & Kathleen Carter
520 Hume-Bedford Road
Paris, KY 40361

NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muted the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THELYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed
visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life
several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 -
more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“'In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
HOPEWELL MUSEUM POST

June 2021 | Volume 26, No. 3
859-987-7274 | www.hopewellmuseum.org | info@hopewellmuseum.org
COVID-19 Hours | Wed-Saturday 12-5 | Tuesday by appointment
$5 | Adults • Free | Members & Under 18

JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM  |  STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
HOPEWELL MUSEUM POST

June 2021 | Volume 26, No. 3
859-987-7274 | www.hopewellmuseum.org | info@hopewellmuseum.org
COVID-19 Hours | Wed-Saturday 12-5 | Tuesday by appointment
$5 | Adults • Free | Members & Under 18

JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
Kimberly Marshall & Fam.
863 Spears Mill Road
Paris, KY 40361

NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

---

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countyans and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
HOPEWELL MUSEUM POST

June 2021 | Volume 26, No. 3
859-987-7274 | www.hopewellmuseum.org | info@hopewellmuseum.org
COVID-19 Hours | Wed-Saturday 12-5 | Tuesday by appointment
$5 | Adults • Free | Members & Under 18

JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYINGH OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONE VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stone-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life
several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 -
more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynchings? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admission fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynchings? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYINGH OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopwellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYINGH OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTONG

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed
visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its found."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life
several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 -
more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE Lynching OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

Dr. Mike Wall and Barley
Photo Credit: Bobby Shiflet

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE Lynching of
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURES THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynchings? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynchings? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE Lynching OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
June 5, 5-7 PM | Stoner View Farm Tour

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

The People of Bourbon County & Crossroads: Change in Rural America Now on Exhibit

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast. The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed
visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life
several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 -
more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interatives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!

Dr. Mike Wall and Barley
Photo Credit: Bobby Shiflet

Carmella Conner
Photo Credit: Bobby Shiflet
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURES THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

Carmella Conner
Photo Credit: Bobby Shiflet

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11. More details to come!
HOPEWELL MUSEUM POST

June 2021 | Volume 26, No. 3

859-987-7274 | www.hopewellmuseum.org | info@hopewellmuseum.org

COVID-19 Hours | Wed-Saturday 12-5 | Tuesday by appointment

$5 | Adults • Free | Members & Under 18

---

JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

---

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muted the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneers’ rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
HOPEWELL MUSEUM POST

June 2021 | Volume 26, No. 3
859-987-7274 | www.hopewellmuseum.org | info@hopewellmuseum.org
COVID-19 Hours | Wed-Saturday 12-5 | Tuesday by appointment
$5 | Adults • Free | Members & Under 18

JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADE: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT  |  CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTONG

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! http://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Counties and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artefacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURES THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding." Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
June 2021 | Volume 26, No. 3
859-987-7274 | www.hopewellmuseum.org | info@hopewellmuseum.org
COVID-19 Hours | Wed-Saturday 12-5 | Tuesday by appointment
$5 | Adults • Free | Members & Under 18

JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews. We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
HOPewell MUSEUM POST

June 2021 | Volume 26, No. 3
859-987-7274 | www.hopewellmuseum.org | info@hopewellmuseum.org
COVID-19 Hours | Wed-Saturday 12-5 | Tuesday by appointment
$5 | Adults • Free | Members & Under 18

JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding." Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
June 5, 5-7 PM | Stoner View Farm Tour

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admission fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT Featuring THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | Curated by ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYINGING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
HOPEWELL MUSEUM POST

June 2021 | Volume 26, No. 3

859-987-7274 | www.hopewellmuseum.org | info@hopewellmuseum.org

COVID-19 Hours | Wed-Saturday 12-5 | Tuesday by appointment

$5 | Adults • Free | Members & Under 18

---

JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

---

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
Akiva & Zipporah Niehaus
6528 N. Richmond St.
Chicago, IL 60645

NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynchings? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse's Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF
GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF
MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY
ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

“In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding.”
Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

---

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer’s rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett’s works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won’t want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorraine Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington’s extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today! https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives, visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Arcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE:
IN THE COURTHOUSE’S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter's story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!
JUNE 5, 5-7 PM | STONER VIEW FARM TOUR

Bill and Carmella Conner own and operate 10 acres of cattle, chicken, and fresh egg production along Stoner Creek. The property was owned by a black farm family, and the house they resided in has now been converted into a Bed and Breakfast.

The event is hosted by the Conners, the Hopewell Museum/Historic Paris-Bourbon County, and Black Soil: Our Better Nature. The farm tour costs $20 per person and includes light farm to table food. The limit is 25 people for the tour. Please register today!
https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/event/farm-tour-at-stoner-view-farm/

THE PEOPLE OF BOURBON COUNTY & CROSSROADS: CHANGE IN RURAL AMERICA NOW ON EXHIBIT

Our newest temporary exhibit opened on May 22 with a great crowd throughout the afternoon. We were pleased to welcome nearly 100 visitors to the museum for our first in person event since February 2020! Crossroads: Change in Rural America comes to the Hopewell Museum through the Kentucky Humanities Council and Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition program. Featuring original artifacts and interactives visitors can explore how rural America has played and continues to play a vital role in our national identity.

Partnering with Artcroft Gallery and Frames on Main Gallery, the exhibit presents the stories of 30 Bourbon Countians and their lives spent in our small community. Photos were taken by Bobby Shiflet while Lorrain Smoot conducted the interviews.

We thank our sponsors the Kentucky Humanities Council, Traditional Bank, and Bluegrass Federal Savings and Loan for their support of this exhibit.

Both exhibits are on display through June 26. Visit any time Wednesday-Saturday from 12-5 PM or by appointment on Tuesdays. The admittance fee is $5 for adults. Members and children 18 and under visit for free!
NEW IN THE VAULT MUSEUM STORE: IN THE COURTHOUSE'S SHADOW: THE LYNCHING OF GEORGE CARTER IN PARIS, KENTUCKY

by Tessa Bishop Hoggard

"In 1901, a Black man was hung from the handsome arched gate that welcomed visitors to the Bourbon County courthouse, a massive French-Renaissance edifice with a bell tower soaring 113 feet into the sky. The courthouse had cast a shadow over the town square for more than two decades, presiding over justice and injustice alike. It muffled the thunderous applause after a political speech, the auctioneer's rhythmic chant, the joyous chatter of court-day festivities, and the deafening silence of a body swaying in the cold early morning air. Who was George Carter? What led to the lynching? What was the aftermath? In the Courthouse’s Shadow answers these questions and asks a few more. As we continue to struggle with unequal justice in this country, George Carter’s story is a reminder of the price we have paid for failing to address racial challenges that have been a part of this nation since its founding."

Published by Murky Press, 2021

You can now purchase this book online at https://www.hopewellmuseum.org/visit/vault-store-online/ for $20 + s/h or in person at our Vault Museum Store for $20.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT FEATURING THE ART OF MATTHEW HARRIS JOUETT | CURATED BY ESTILL CURTIS PENNINGTON

Estill Curtis Pennington will curate an exhibit featuring the art of Kentuckian Matthew Harris Jouett. The exhibit brings to life several of the works in Pennington's extensive catalog of Jouett's works - the result of more than five years of research into the life and work of Matthew Harris Jouett.

All artworks on display will come from private collections, so you won't want to miss it! The exhibit will open on July 11 - more details to come!