Ah, distinctly I remember; it was in a sad September,
When each became a member of the first grade up at school.
Eagerly we read our reader, speedily we learned to heed Her
When She told us She was leader, and we must obey Her rule.

Presently our misguts grew stronger; hesitation then no longer
We advanced through Grades and High School till we passed out through the door
Clutching tight to us a folder which acclaimed to all the Holder
As a very learned Sophomore to return, Ah, Nevermore!

Deep into the darkness peerling, long we stood there, wondering, fearing,
Doubting, dreaming dreams no Sophomore ever dared to dream before.
And then we started yearning toward the Goal, and by our learning
We are now advanced to Juniors, and we'll be Seniors, one year more.

"THE EYES OF TLALOC"

"The Eyes of Tlaloc", the Junior Class Play of '36, was universally acclaimed the best play ever given at Paris Hi. In this production, the Clark Gable of the Junior Class, Jack Baldwin, reached his heights as Tommy Tinker, who fell in love with the class siren, Ann Wallace Horton, who played the part of Nancy Howe. Nawa, portrayed by that inimitable character-actor, W. O. Shropshire, proceeded to make plenty of trouble for everyone. Much to the delight of the first six grades, Amanda Simpkins (Mary Elidine Nickerson, "Dotty", in private life) let forth an ear-splitting and blood-curdling scream in the midst of the excitement. Ezra (Arthur Clay Hollis) with his, "Well I'll be damned", also drew much applause from the same audience. And how the kids yelled when Pat Gillis (otherwise Charlene "Lete" Young, the Bell(e) of Paris Hi) twirled her pailo(j) so expertly around her finger. We all wonder how Salvador (Larry Brannon ever got out that long name of his without stuttering, Pudge (Milton Rice) Rogers cut quite a figure sleeping by the fireside, and John Minogue made a lasting impression as the Professor with his height and dark glasses. Catherine "Kaffa" Kennedy held up her end of the cast very convincingly as Virginia Lee Byrd, Nancy's good friend, by "pooh-poohing" at Pat's fear of Tlaloc and then jumping herself. And we ALL jumped when Pepita (Catherine LaFranca) threw that dagger at Tlaloc; Whooeeeee ! ! John Neal as John Wayne made a grand surprise package when at the end he came in and saved the day.

CALENDAR OF MEMORABLE EVENTS

Sept. 9—That much dreaded day when we found part of our dreams answered. We were well on the road to being seniors.
Dec. 18—The weary Juniors wended their weary way homeward (?) (Maybe it was Sweet Shop-ward) after much discussion and disturbance over the loss (?) of Bus Bell's explanation on his Christmas present.
March 2—Much unrealized, musical talent was discovered through the efforts of Miss Topham, substituting in the deeply regretted absence of Miss Monson, our favorite Spanish and French teacher. Woe be unto Miss Lavin who resides in the flat above us.
March 12—Mabel Clotfelter and Edward Burke returned to their respective home rooms after a long tiresome trip to library. The road was in bad condition so it was necessary for them to detour around by Mr. Kinkpstrick's office.
March 17—Speaking contest—congratulations to Juniors, Jane Clay Sutherland and Catharine Kennedy, John Mielogue, Annie Wallace Horton, and Larry Brannon.
March 23—Debating Tournament—Catherine Kennedy upheld the affirmative. Jane Clay, substitute speaker, listened in.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

On a very hot day in early September seventy Sophomores climbed with reluctance the steps of Senior High to begin another school year.

After the newness had worn off they entered whole heartedly into the activities of School Life. They contributed $46.00 to the football fund and forty-seven members bought season basketball tickets.

They were well represented in both football and basketball. Two members of the class made up the negative debating team which had a very successful season. Five choir members and many Glee Club members go to Miss Blanding twice a week respectively.

The Sophomores are going to try to make the next two years as successful as this one has been.

CHAPEL CHOIR

The Paris High School Chapel Choir was organized November 1, 1935 under the supervision of Miss Ellen Blanding and Miss Susan Howard. Robes were ordered for use in the first public appearance, which was at a dinner meeting of the Blue Grass School Executives’ Association at the Lafayette Hotel in Lexington, Kentucky.

Subsequent appearances of the choir have been the Christmas programs, at which time the Cantata, “Childe Jesus”, was sung for the students and later it was sung at the Presbyterian church. Following this the next appearance was at the Baccalaureate services in Paris.

During the current school year the choir has sung Christmas programs for the school and the Rotary Club, and it has sung at the Veterans’ Hospital, Lexington. It has also been honored by receiving an invitation to sing on the first “Young Artist” program which the University of Kentucky sponsored at the Memorial Hall on the University campus February 7, and before the McDowell Music Club, Lexington, March 15.

The thirty choir members will sing in the first choir event which is to be featured in the Kentucky High School Music Festival, held in Lexington April 30.

The Girl Reserve Organization of the Paris High School consists of approximately ninety girls from the Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes. This organization helps to bring out the finest characteristics in every girl. This club teaches every girl to set her standards of living high, and seek to reach this goal.

This club provides various activities for its members, such as picnics, tea dances, and Christmas parties.

The Girl Reserve initiation ceremony is the most impressive ceremony conducted in the Paris Senior High School.

The success of our organization is due to the interest and untiring efforts of our sponsor, Miss Lulu Batchelder.

LATIN CLUBS

The Junior-Senior Latin Club and the Sophomore Latin Club count as their members those students of Latin who maintain an acceptable scholarship record. The Junior-Senior Club has long had as its motto, "Esse quam videri"—to be rather than to seem—and to this ideal, the members are asked to look. Programs for meetings of the Latin Club are furnished by the students from material, developed either in class or through related readings. The Sophomore Club members choose a name of a Roman god, goddess, or hero by which they are known in the club and of whose achievements they may tell the club. Festival days of the Roman, which have a modern counterpart, are frequently chosen for meeting days of the club. An attempt is made to familiarize the students with Roman clothing, customs, and outstanding features of their daily life.

The French Club this year consists of about thirty-seven members from the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes. The French year is begun usually by an initiation of the new members. Prizes are awarded to the most ludicrously dressed person and the person who dressed him. The French Club gives to the students a wider view of the French customs and government and a knowledge of their language. A greater interest is created by playing French games, singing songs, and observing holidays in some way.

The Spanish club has thirty-nine members. This club always observes the Spanish holidays by giving some type of entertainment and by getting better acquainted with their Spanish friends. The Christmas celebration was especially typical of Spanish life. "Un Villancico" was beautifully sung by Katherine La Frana, who was accompanied by Mabel Clotfelter at the piano. Spanish songs, playlets and puzzles make up the greater part of the regular programs. At the close of these very interesting meetings, refreshments are served by Miss Monson.
THE GIRLS’ GLEE CLUB

The Girls’ Glee Club is composed of Senior High School Girls. It is under the direction of Miss Ellen Blanding assisted by Mr. John Gilkey. The girls are interested and take an active part in all the musical activities of the school.

The School is always well represented by the Girls’ Glee Club in the State Musical Contest in Lexington. In recent years they have won many honors for the school.

THE BOYS’ GLEE CLUB

The Boys’ Glee Club has been an organization of great accomplishment in the Paris High School for a good many years. It has been under the very able supervision of Miss Ellen Blanding, General Supervisor of Music in the entire City Schools. With the aid of Miss Blanding the organization has brought many an honor to Paris High School by making outstanding recognitions at the State Interscholastic Music Contests which are held annually in Lexington, Kentucky.

The Boys’ Glee Club offers an opportunity to every musically inclined boy in the school to make himself known. The organization, itself, has been one in which many an outstanding musician has been found—young musicians. Recent graduates have proved this to be true.

The record of the Boys’ Glee Club in State Contests has been very outstanding. Many years before it has made exceptionally good ratings, and only last year they were awarded the honor of the “Superior” Glee Club. May such high records continue to be made by this excellent organization in the years to come.

The Pep Club of Paris High School, which is made up of both the Pep Club and the Parisian Circle, is one of the most active clubs in high school.

In the way of activities, the Pep Club has this year entertained the Harrodsburg team in the cafeteria, after the basketball game in the Paris High gymnasium. The Parisian Circle also distributed basketball schedule programs throughout town and entertained guests from surrounding towns after the Shakespearean plays, which were held in the auditorium last fall.

The Pep Club and Parisian Circle is made up of high school students who are always ready and willing to render service to their school in any way they can, and to uphold the colors of Orange and Black. The motive of this club is to make all guests to our school, either at the basketball games or any other activity, feel very welcome.
MY GIRL'S FROM OLD K-Y

My girl's from old K-Y,
She goes to Paris High.
She is a Queen o' mine,
I'm telling you.
And in my future life
She's going to be my wife!
How in the world did you find that out?
She told me so!

She goes to all the games;
I furnish all the change.
She and the other dames.
They all go, too.
And in my future life
She's going to be my wife!
How in the world did you find that out?
She told me so!

When she grows older,
She will grow bolder.
And I will hold her
Close to my shoulder.
And in my future life
She's going to be my wife!
How in the world did you find that out?
She told me so!

EAT 'EM UP

Eat 'em up, old team, eat 'em up,
Eat 'em up, old team, eat 'em up,
Eat 'em up, old team, eat 'em up,
Eat 'em up, old team, eat 'em up,

Make a goal, old team, make a goal,
Make a goal, old team, make a goal,
Make a goal, old team, make a goal,
Make a goal, old team, make a goal,

Throw 'em hard, old team, throw 'em hard
Fight 'em hard, old team, fight 'em hard.
Let's go, old team, let's go,
Pile the score, old team, pile the score.
We'll win this game, you bet.

TUNE: JINGLE BELLS

Oh, whoop her up, whoop her up,
And whoop her up some more.
Paris Hi has a team
That we all adore.
She's a peach, she won our hearts,
She surely plays the game.
She's not rough, and she's not tough,
But she gets there just the same.

TUNE: WASHINGTON AND LEE SWING

Oh, when you try to beat old P. H. S.
You're going to have a hard time, well I guess.
We're going to yell, yell, yell, y'll a boom—
For Paris High School team, we'll yell, we'll yell.
We're going to fight, fight, fight for every goal,
What we'll do to that team ain't half told.
We'll knock the pep out of them, well I guess, Yes! Yes! Yes!—Rah! Rah! Rah!

PARIS SPIRIT'S NEVER DEAD

Paris Spirit's never dead.
Dat ball's gwine rise again.
Hit 'em in the eye.
Knock 'em in the head.
Dat ball's gwine rise again.
I know it, indeed I know it, people
I know it! Whee!
Dat ball's gwine rise again.

RAH! RAH!

Rah! rah! for Greyhounds,
Just fight right on, fight right on Greyhounds!

We'll back you to the end then yell right on
Rah, rah for Greyhounds!
We're with you yet, with you yet
Greyhounds!
On you we'll bet, you we'll bet
All that we want is a team that will fight
Just fight! fight! fight!

SUMMARY OF SEASON

The fighting Greyhounds seem to have a dark period at the beginning of every football season. On the twenty-fifth of September, a team of eleven hounds fought the Shelbyville team in the opening game of the season. This game they lost, but the next week the Greyhounds rose to their full height and struck. The victim was Cynthiana. They saw what cooperation and team work they had when they worked. This discovery was in the same way applied to Georgetown, on the rainy Friday, October 9. The next two weeks were spent in practice for the Mt. Sterling game. This game gave the Greyhounds their nickname “Fighting.” They were defeated but Mt. Sterling knew that they played a game that day. The next Friday, October 10, brought Winchester’s defeat and Duvy’s and Charlie Butler’s touchdowns. They ran at ease to pile up a score of 62-0.

That fight the Greyhounds are famous for proved valuable against Richmond, November 6th. A defeated Paris team came from behind to win with Holladay catching the pass that made the score 14-7 in favor of Paris. The 13th of November might have been superstitious to some teams, but not to the Greyhounds. They defeated Frankfort on Frankfort’s home field with ten of the boys appearing in Orange and Black uniforms for their last time for old Paris High.

COACH COLLIER

We have a man who makes the teams
Which, while the roosters roar and scream
Are fighting for the orange and black
And never do they seem to crack

Why? COACH COLLIER.

He never tries to let us down
He gives us fate to go around
Without the slightest down-cast frown
He takes a loss without a sound

Who? COACH COLLIER

As all great men must have some aid
Dick Butler to this job was made
Assistant-coach of the Orange and Black
We owe him thanks for his noble act
Of helping OUR COACH COLLIER.

THE PARISIAN

BASKETBALL

The Paris High School Greyhounds started the season out this time with a hard task before them. This task was to live up to the record set by last year's Greyhounds. Although they did not go as far as the previous team they set a good record. They had one of the hardest schedules ever faced by a Greyhound team, but they lived up to the reputation of Paris High School.

This year the Greyhounds started the season off with a boom. They won all of their games until they struck the big team from Male High. The Greyhounds played a hard game and they went down fighting. After this game they romped on to victory until they met up with the Shelbyville Red Devils. They had a hard and long battle but were defeated. This was the only conference game they lost this year.

The team of this year set a high record for the rest of the schools in Central Kentucky to shoot at. They finished on top in the Central Kentucky Conference for the fifth time in eleven years. In the last two years the Greyhounds have played 54 games; winning 49 and losing only five.

The great success of the Greyhounds in the last eleven years has been due to Coach Blanton Collier. He is a graduate of Georgetown College. He never lets us down and he is always willing. He is considered the best High School basketball coach in Kentucky.

Peytie Horton was the captain of our basketball team this year and one of the best little forwards in the state. He made Honorable Mention on the All-CKC team this year. He has led us to victory many times this season and he will be a big loss to the team.

W. J. Barr is one of the coolest basketball players that has been seen in Paris for a long time. He has brought the team through many a tight place. It will be hard to find some one to take his place on the Greyhound team of next year.

Duvy is a boy who never lets down no matter how tough the going gets. He made Honorable Mention on the All-CKC team this year and was a great help to the team.

Receiving honors which were due him, John Ratliff was one of the best guards in Central Kentucky. He was chosen captain of the First Team All CKC, and at that position he was not surpassed. He was a ball-hawk and a swell defensive man.

Although John Bell has not been out for basketball but one year, he had a fine season and was a swell sport. He has held many a good man to a very low score this year. He will also be a great help to the Greyhounds next season.
Although Harold Bell is just a junior in school and will get to play next year, he was a big help to the Greyhounds this season. He started several games and played regular while Barr was out. He is a fine rebounder and will help to lead the team to victory in the season of 37-38.

Charlie Butler is about the smallest boy on the ball club but he is also the fastest boy on the squad. He is just a junior this year and has another chance to give the fans a thrill. He will be one of the main players next season.

Douglas McCabe is a senior this year and everybody hates to see him go. Although he did not make the team as a regular on account of a bad knee he helped to make the team what it was. He worked hard and had one of the best spirits of the club. We wish him plenty of success.

Marcus Harlan is also a small boy but he is plenty clever. He has been the spark many a time this year to the boys. When they were behind he fought right on, never letting up. He has two more years to play and we are expecting great things out of him in the future.

While Lee Cavanaugh did not play much this year he helped to make the team what it was with his loyal spirit and fight. He made all of the boys work when he was playing with them and in this way was a big help. He has two more years to play and should make a good record.

The Freshman Class of 1936-37 is composed of 75 members. This class came into existence in 1928 when its first members entered Paris City Schools. Some have dropped out and others have been welcomed from time to time. The President of the Class today is George S. Tate, the Vice President is Mary Nichols, the Secretary is Hazel Lyons, and the Treasurer is Billy Young.

The Freshman Class football and basketball pledges were very large. The first five of the basketball team of Junior High were Freshman. The Junior High School held many enthusiastic rallies during the season. The cheer leaders elected for the Freshman Class were Adele Hazelrigg and Billy Young.

Several boys in this class are participating in the Public Speaking Contest, and many girls are entering the Poetry Reading Contest. There are active Scout Leaders among the boys and the girls.

Jean Royse, Alfred Shire, and C. R. Parrent represented our class in the band, and the Drum Major, Paul Kenton, a Freshman.

The Freshman Class has selected by ballot the most popular girl and the most popular boy. The honor went to Mary Nichols and Billy Young.

The Freshman Class presented a comedy called "When Jane Takes a Hand" on March 26. The cast included Anna Glover, D. C. Parrish, Mary Nichols, Rex Lyons, Kenney Shropshire, Nadine Baird, Rose Marie Sidner, Billy Thompson, Billy Young, Withers Davis, Betsy Cobb Glass, Hazel Lyons, and Carl Hopkins.

We, of the Eighth Grade, are the "In-betweens" with neither the naivete of the Seventh nor the prestige of the Ninth. We have grown a bit from last year. Some of us know better the art of keeping our possessions intact as we rove from class to class, from auditorium programs to music, from physical ed to rallies. We attempt to keep a better balance between curricula, extra-curricula and social parts of our program. Perhaps some day we will grow up to concentrate on each, at just the proper time. We believe in this well rounded existence—To prove it:

Eighth Grade Spelling Entrants—Frances Mitchell, Shirley Leder, Betty Jo Denton, Lida Gardner, Douglas Williams, Anna Belle Wassom, Margaret Marshall, Francis Kennedy, Jane Parris, Wilma Gene Cannon.

Speaking Contest—Barbara Winters, Jane Parris, John Trimble Harris, Edith McClanahan, Lorine Argo, Louise Burris.

Cheer Leaders—Betty Jo Denton, Barbara Winters.

Athletics—Too numerous to mention. In basketball we're again "in-between"—too big for midgets, too small for Regulars. Boys and girls both performed creditably. Some of the boys played football in the fall.

We have a large number of both Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts.

Scholarship—Last but not least.—There are about a dozen consistent honor roll students and several intermittent ones. The consistent ones include: Molly Clayton, Betty Jo Denton, Barbara Winters, Dorcas Dawes, Bill Buckner, Francis Kennedy, John Trimble Harris, Louise Burris, Shirley Leder, Sally Spears, Lida Gardner, Alice Grinnell, Wilma Gene Cannon

OUR SEVENTH GRADE

We're hearing now from the Seventh Grade,
At Station P. H. S.
We're on the air five times a week
To work and scheme-and guess?

Our President is John Gravitt,
And say, he's a scholar quite
Faith Hall is Vice President
And for us she plays just right.

Ann Parris is our Secretary
She's also Treasurer here.
Now for all our officers
Let's give a hearty cheer.

We may not be so large or great
As some in the higher classes,
But we shall be in Seniors' places
When they've married some fair lasses.

Yes, we're coming up to the topmost ring
On the ladder of P. H. S.
To hold up the spirit that's long prevailed
You know that we'll do our best.

So look out, you Eighth and Ninth and Tenth
Make way for the Seventh Grade!
We're coming up fast to take your places
And to raise the records you've made!

THE ORANGE AND BLACK GROUP

The Orange and Black Book Service we consider the most inspirational and impressive event of the year in Junior High School. It is a time when the outstanding students are honored by the rest of the students and the faculty. They are asked to write their names, along with those who have gone on in Senior High and college, as the honor students of their classes. Few fail to live up to their trust.

The ceremony originated in the spring of 1928 at the suggestion of the Junior High Camp Fire Girls sponsored by Miss Ethel Congleton then head of the Junior High Latin Department.

The students are selected by the faculty on a basis, first of all, of their willingness to cooperate with all parts of the school's program; on high achievement in their work, doing that work consistently, to the best of their ability; an interest in the scholastic and extra curricula side of their education, a participant or a loyal supporter of the school's athletics; their attitude toward their fellow students; their ability, at all times to abide by the regulations of the school; their loyalty and faithfulness to its ideals. In brief, it is an attempt to emphasize and recognize those traits which enter into the making of worthwhile citizens of the future.

JUNIOR HIGH FOOTBALL

This year has been the most successful season any Paris Junior High team has had in years. The Thorobreds were coached this year by Wilford "Doc" Lual'en, a product of Ohio State and Paris High School. This year was "Doc's" first attempt at coaching and he certainly did a fine job of it. We expect to see Coach Lual'en at the head of the Thorobreds when they report for practice next fall.

The Thorobreds were not defeated this year and have been scored on only twice.

Senior Cronica

In the year of our Lord MCMXXXV

Senior class of the year of our Lord which constituted the Dark Ages. This age continued until the VI year of their existence at the House of Learning

Middle Age. In the II year of this age they burst into a Renaissance, or an awakening of learning. In the year of our Lord MCMXXXIV the class passed into the Modern Age. This age was the height of their learning. After this date all records were lost, but it is said

by some that many of the class continued their learning.
