FOREWORD

We the Senior Class of 1941 would like to dedicate this year-book to those who have shown their interest in our school and its student body year after year. These business patrons and friends have given us not only financial aid but have inspired us in the production of this work by their loyalty and cooperation. Their generous support over a long period of years has made them essential to the furtherance of our school program in all of its departments.

"A gentlemen, a athlete and a friend to all."

IF I HAD MY WAY

"If I had my way, dear
You'd never grow old
And sunshine I'd bring every day."

The above is a part of a current song and the first line furnishes food for thought. I wonder what would happen if everyone had his way about life. They say that if wishes were horses, beggars would ride. Wishing is one of the least expensive of all amusements. What would I do— if I had my way?

If I had my way, the class of 1940 would never have graduated. Paris High School has never been the same without them. True, they were a little egotistical, conceited, selfish, inconsiderate, impudent, and maybe a little mean, but you would have to look the world over for a grander bunch. I miss Billy Young and his notorious cockyness, Nadine and her ready wisecracks, and the senior boys taking daily trips to the office. Oh, that was a fine class BUT they were only a third of the "swell bunch" in the "new building." The sophomores, juniors, and seniors were all fine people and they really enjoyed one another.

If I had my way I would be able to stay here in Paris for good. I want to stay here and be connected, in some way, with P.H.S. My happiest and incidentally, my hardest days are being spent here and I would like to be around always.

If I had my way the Paris Greyhounds would be C.K.C. winners this year and every year to come. I would like to see Bobby, Dougie, "Buck," Nick, Turner, and Francis make the all C.K.C. team. Needless to say, our coaches, Mr. Collier, Mr. Butler, and Mr. Parrish would continue to bring bigger and better honors to the Orange and Black.

One of my most cherished dreams is at long last coming true—new uniforms for the band. This is one thing for which I have hoped ever since I realized we had a band. If I had my way these grand new uniforms would create more interest and spirit in the band. The student body, upon seeing their snappy band, would pep up and regain the fighting spirit for which they are famous.

If I had my way Miss Batchelder and Mrs. Shaw would never see a sign of chewing gum since they dislike it so intensely. Nor would Miss Lavin have to work so hard to keep up the standings of some of the Beta members. I would like to see Miss Monson get a new victrola. For his many trips to the office, upstairs, and down, I would like some skates for Mr. Scott and "Quiet in the halls." It would be nice for Miss Noland to have a group of students as satisfied with the question of the windows and shades. I would like a lot of things for the students since they surely deserve them. I would like to see Johnny top honor man at Annapolis, sharing his honors with Bill and Nick. "Beans" would be happy as a professional dancer with only the "best" as his partners. I would like to see Frances as a famous riding instructor; Betty Jo settled in the college of her choice and an outstanding success both scholastically and socially. I would like to see Dougie coaching some outstanding basketball team, maybe Coach Collier's assistant.

If I had my way Paris would continue to make Lexington feel like a penny waiting for change. Lexington is so jealous of us what I would like to show them just who is the better. We know but it would be more fun to show Lexington.

If I had my way I would wish the best for everyone in the walls of P. H. S.. Most of all, if I had my way, this year's senior class would never be forgotten because they will never forget their pre-ent friends and inmates.

Well - that's my story but not in full. Sometime I'll tell everything that would happen - if I had my way.

Said the needle to the stocking, "I'll stick you through and through."

Said the stocking to the needle, "I'll be darned if you do."

Gloria: "Do you like cod-fish balls,"

Fergie: "I never attended one."

Bonnie: "And do you mean to tell me that you laughed in the face of death!"

Hamlet: "Laugh, I thought I'd die."

John Gravitt: "My tailor's just an old so-and-so."

THE AWFUL TRUTH

To Miss Lavin and Miss Monson we give a cheer
For their fine help throughout the year.
John Argo, is really one swell guy,
Martha Boone Baldwin catches "Weegie's" eye;
Ralph Burton's the Wizard of our class,
Gay Bramel is Poe's blue-eyed lass,
Leland Brannon is our King of Swing,
Helen Biddle has the voice to sing,
Coleman Burke is always (?) on time,
Oh, Bobby Ballard helps us make this rhyme.
Vivian Chisholm chatters and giggles,
Ann D. Carr's heart for Catesby wiggles,
Janice Clotfelter is our pert little "gal,"
Billie Dale is our great big pal;
Jane C. Darnaby is a new comer to our line,
Wallace Bowles fits here in this rhyme,
Leonard Cohan is Hollywood bound,
Hamlet Collier makes heart spin around,
(Don't ask how we know all this
In Paris High you just can't miss).
Joe Curtis in Golden Gloves partook,
Helen Davis' "rally" has "them" looks,
Hollis Dean Dennis keeps Eastern busy,
Margaret Farmer makes the judges dizzy;
Betty Jo Flora likes Cynthiana—Guess, why?
Elizabeth Ferguson has a "figger"—Oh, my.
John Glover is a football star,
John Gravitt captivates (?) Hedy Lamarr,
Lourie Hall has never missed a show,
Jimmie Hamilton can dance—watch him go!
Betty Elkin is pretty and keen,
Mary Frances Harney likes a dean,
Billy Joe Johnston for Margaret does croon,
Jack Kidwell makes a Lexington girl swoon,
Audrey Kiser is popular with all,
Mace McCord—well, he ain't tall.
Donald McCord from Carlisle came,
Ain't it a shame about Maine?
(We know you want intermission now,
But we can't stop. We don't know how.)
Jack McKenzie loves his D.A.D.
Marion Prather thinks girls are sad.
Faith Hall Phillips' heart just can't decide,
Ann Parris is Melvin's joy and pride,
John Rankin left us in the lurch,
Lida Rogers for knowledge does search;
Mike Sosby makes the Tournament teams,
Nathan Shaw and Cicero work up steam,
Calvin Smart on his horn does blow,
Pauline Smoot out of Paris did go.
Gloria Thompson is our dark haired vamp,
John Burris on Cypress Street does camp,
Margie Woods is fair and 'all,
Edith Williams is dark and small,
Frank Wassom is our problem child.
—Who's Your Hoodie—
Make way asylum we're coming through,
You don't need us but we need you.

Barbara—Why it is you never see Dougie Williams with the same girl twice in succession?

Dorcas—Well, he once heard a minister preach a sermon that made a great impression on him. The text was "Love one another," but Dougie remembered it as "Love one then another."

J. W.—I hear you've got a girl, Elwood.

Elwood—Yes.

J. W.—What's her name?

Elwood—Bell.

J. W.—Seen her lately?

Elwood—N-o.

J. W.—Have you had a fight?

Elwood—No, not that. But when I went to her house the last two nights, there was a sign on the door "Bell out of order." I didn't go in.

Louise—"Did anyone ever tell you how wonderful you are?"

Frank S.—"No, I don't think anyone ever did."

Louise—"Then I'd like to know how and where you got the idea."

Miss Isgrig—"What happens when a body is immersed in water?"

Douglas McCullum—"The telephone rings."

Sgt.: (To new soldiers after giving out rifles) "Now I hope I haven't missed anyone. All those without arms hold up your hands."

Mr. Gregg: "How did you get in the band?"

Helen: "Oh, I just horned my way in."

And then the old man with the wooden leg lumbered down the street.

Billie Dale: "Everytime I dance with you I feel as if I'd left the earth."

Jimmie H.: "Yes, you're standing on my feet now."

Miss Noland—"Bobby, is trousers singular or plural?"

Bobby Ballard—(After much thought) "Singular at the top and plural at the bottom."

DEBATING

Under the leadership on Miss Zerelda Noland, twelve students, nine of whom are members of the National Forensic League, participated in 123 debates during the school year of 1940-41. The students were as follows: Barbara Winters, Dorcas Dawes, Billy Joe Johnston, John Gravitt, Faith Hall Phillips, Ann Dudley Carr, Elizabeth Ferguson, Hollis Dean Dennis, Billie Dale, George La Frana, Elizabeth Allan Thomas, and Nancy Hart.

In the district tournament which was held at Lafayette High School on March 17 and 18, Faith Hall Phillips and Ann Dudley Carr, upholding the affirmative, and Barbara Winters and Billy Joe Johnston, defending the negative, made Paris High School eligible for the state debating tournament by winning three out of five debates. On March 24 and 25 the two teams won three debates in the National Forensic district tournament which was held in Harrodsburg.

The climax of the year was reached when Paris was represented, for the sixth time since 1921, in the state tournament at the University of Kentucky. The tournament team, composed of Ann Dudley Carr and Faith Hall Phillips gained entrance in the finals by defeating the teams from Loyall, Butler, Frankfort, Murray, Highlights, and Harrodsburg. In the final debate at Memorial Hall, Paris was defeated by Henry Clay High School.

Their appearance in the National Debate Tournament will close a very successful debate for the Paris High School debaters and their coach.

Boy—"Say, Hollis, what is a quarter of a million dollars?"

Girl—"A good husband."

Mary: "Hmm, so Ann got a bee in her new Easter bonnet."

Margaret: "I'll say. Her daddy got stung for $5.00."

Oscar: "I want a pack of cigarettes, clerk."

Clerk: "Sorry, pal, we don't sell to minors."

Oscar: "I'm no miner. I'm a mechanic."

Henry K.: "I hear they're going to fight the battle of Bunker Hill over again."

Jack: "Why?"

Henry K.: "It wasn't fought on the level."

Mildred: "Ye, I heard the sawmill."

Peggy: "I slept like a log last night."

Oscar Poe—Next to a beautiful girl, what do you consider the most interesting thing in the world?

Frank S.—When I'm next to a beautiful girl, I never bother with statistics.

Every girl in Senior High School is a member of the Girl Reserve organization. The purpose of this organization is to draw attention to its high ideals and to bring all the girls into a closer fellowship. Informal gatherings of these girls help create a friendly cooperative spirit and the more solemn candle light service draws particular attention to its high ideals. The girls give a Christmas party each year, to the needy children of the lower grades. Santa is present with gifts of toys, clothing, fruit, and candy. The girls are always ready to work for the betterment of their community.

IDEALS OF THE GIRL RESERVES

Gracious in manner	Seeing the beautiful
Impartial in judgment	Eager for knowledge
Ready for service	Reverent to God
Loyal to friends	Victorious over self
Reaching toward the best	Ever dependable
Earnest in purpose	Sincere at all times.

THE BETA CLUB

The National Beta Club was installed in the Paris High School, February 21, 1939. Membership provides a definite recognition of real scholarship. Juniors and Seniors who have an average grade between an "A" and a "B" may be members if they have a proper attitude and show qualities of unselfishness, loyalty, and leadership.

The installation of eleven new members in October was a very impressive ceremony, conducted before the entire student body. Later in the year four Seniors were pledged and given membership as their scholastic records reached the required standing.

Beta Club activities are both social and serious. In October following the induction ceremony the members enjoyed a picnic at Claiborne Farm. A play entitled, "Interview with the Past," was presented at one of the regular meetings. The club sponsored a tea dance in February and made a contribution to the National Educational Fund. Beta members were the guests of the Bourbon County Woman's Club at one of their meetings, devoted to the topic, "A Liberal Education in the World Today."

The Paris Club keeps in regular contact with the National Office and rates high among the Beta Club Chapters. A certificate of merit was awarded to the sponsor, Miss Gilbert Lavin. A representative of the National Office inspected the club in November and reported very favorably on it.

Betty Jo Denton, State President, presided at two of the meetings of the State Convention held in Louisville. John Trimble Harris, State Secretary, acted as secretary during the convention. Fourteen members of the Paris Beta Club attended the convention. Miss Lavin, later, received a letter from Miss Leitner, National Corresponding Secretary, in appreciation of the fine contribution made by the Paris Chapter to the success of the State Convention.

The club officers are Bill Buckner, president; John T. Harris, vice-president; and Lida Gardner, secretary.

THE SERVICE CLUB

Nine Seniors received invitations to become members of the Service Club at the opening of this school year and eleven members were added at the beginning of the second semester, making a total membership of twenty.

The Service Club is composed of a group of seniors chosen on the basis of high academic standing and willingness to cooperate and to serve in the promotion of the school program.

The club endeavored throughout the year to render dependable, efficient, and willing service in connection with many extra-curricular activities, the high light of the year being the publication of a school paper, The Parisian Oracle.

The Pep Club of Paris High School is made up of Senior members of the Parisian Circle and the cheerleaders. It is their duty to render service in any way they can and to uphold the colors of Orange and Black. They have expressed cordiality and warmth to the many visitors who have come to our school this year.

Membership in the Parisian Circle is one of the highest honors a student may attain. Members of the Circle are selected because of their unselfish cooperation and devotion to the school and all of its activities. Two members were elected by their class in the Sophomore year, two more in their Junior year, and the final two at the beginning of their Senior year. The present Junior members are: Fai'h Hall Phillips, John Gravitt, Billie Dale and Leland Brannon; the present Sophomore members are Dorothy Gifford and Fred Poplin.

Vice-President	Charleen Burris
Secretary-Treasurer	Jack Kidwell
Sponsor	Miss Isgrig

The object of the science club is the encouragement and promotion of Scientific interests among the student body of Paris High School.

Our local Club is an affiliated member of the Junior Kentucky Academy of Science.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club is under the supervision of Mrs. W. V. Shaw. The students eligible for membership in this club are those taking typing, shorthand or bookkeeping. The enrollment is eighty-five for this year.

The Commercial Club has two important meetings a year. The first meeting is held to elect officers; those elected are Co-Presidents Charleen Burris and Alice Grinnell. The second and most outstanding meeting is the Christmas party for the Kindergarten children.

THE ALL-STATE CHORUS

The All-State Chorus sings at the Annual Spring Music Festival at the University of Kentucky. The Music Festival is composed of approximately 500 voices representing high schools all over the state of Kentucky. Students representing Paris are:

BASKETBALL

The regular basketball season at Paris was a peculiar one. Our first three games were victoryless and our last were three losses; but lost and won records do not indicate the squad's ability. Hard luck and lack of team work kept our regular season from being particularly successful. The team got together in the District and Regional Tournament. The Greyhounds lost out to Morgan's Wildcats after beating a huge Berry team. High spots of the season were victories over Manual and Richmond.

The 1940 football season of "The Fighting Paris Greyhounds" was one of the most spectacular and successful seasons ever to be had in Paris High Schools. Coach Blanton Collier and his trusty assistants, Dick Butler and Dean Parrish, started the season with two regulars and about eighteen inexperienced but determined boys. Coach Collier led his team through to a record of 6 wins, 1 tie and 2 losses. "The Fighting Greyhounds" ranked third in the C. K. C. conference ratings.

NAME	HANDLE	FOOTBALL	BASKETBALL	THUMBNAIL SKETCH
Matt Lair	Buck	Backfield Letterman 2, 3, 4 Co-Captain	Forward Letterman 3, 4	A fighter and leader who shall be an inspiration to future athletes; blocking back on the 1940 All-Star team; back field all CKC 1940.
Nick Nicholas	Luke	Center Letterman 4 Co-Captain	Guard Letterman 4	One of the scrappiest men ever to wear the Orange & Black. Although light Nick made up in sheer ability.
Douglas Williams	Dougie		Guard Letterman 3, 4	A sure shot, Doug was a calm, cool collected ball player. Honored on all District and Regional Tournament-1941.
Clarence Forbes	Fancy Clancy	Backfield Letterman 3, 4		"Never say die" ought to be Clancy's nickname. Dogged determination helped him through. On record mile relay team 1939.
Jack Adair	Big Jack	Tackle Letterman 3, 4		Jack came to us from M. M. I. in 1939. He's a big rough country boy who liked the game tough. Good luck to Jack!
Bobby Insko	Einstein	End Letterman 3, 4	Forward Letterman 3, 4	A tough rebounder in basketball. He loved football and excelled there, too. Always in the midst of the play was Insko.
Jack Welsh	Jack	Guard Letterman 4		Although Jack started late he made up for lost time with stellar performances in the line. Jack also claims singing and track fame.
Francis Kennedy	Daddy Warbucks	Tackle Letterman 3, 4	Center Letterman 4	A clear thinking boy with great leadership and ability. He won the Rotary scholarship cup in December 1940.
Henry Keller	Henry	Lineman		Although Henry didn't make a letter in high school he will be remembered as a cooperator and fighter.

COACH COLLIER

His praises have been sung and over but we would like to add our word to the many tributes paid to his coaching ability.

This year Coach Collier developed a winning team in football from light inexperienced boys and a regional semi-finalists in basketball from a squad, small both in size and number.

His record speaks for itself but the fact that he has been on the All-Star football coaching staff two out of three years shows that those of the coaching profession hold him in as high esteem as do the students and townspeople of Paris.

THE ORANGE AND BLACK CLUB

The Orange and Black Book Service we consider the most inspirational and impressive event of the year in Junior High School. It is a time when the outstanding students are honored by the rest of the students and the faculty. They are asked to write their names, along with those who have gone into Senior High and college, as the honor students of their classes. Few fail to live up to their trust.

The ceremony originated in the spring of 1928 at the suggestion of the Junior High Camp Fire Girls sponsored by Miss Ethel Congleton then head of the Junior High Latin Department.

The students are selected by the faculty on the basis, first of all, of their willingness to cooperate with all parts of the school's program; on the high achievement in their work, doing that work consistently, to the best of their ability; an interest in the scholastic and extra curricular side of their education, a participant or a loyal supporter of the school's athletics; their attitude toward their fellow students; their ability, at all times to abide by the regulations of the school; their loyalty and faithfulness to its ideals. In brief, it is an attempt to emphasize and recognize those traits which enter into the making of worthwhile citizens of the future.

JUNIOR HIGH ATHLETICS

An unbeaten team is the dream of any coach; Mr. Butler's dream came true this season. From the basketball team's record one can see twenty regular season games won plus two tournaments of three games each—the whole without a loss. This record has not been equalled in Junior High within our memory. Congratulations to the regular team and substitutes along with Mr. Butler. May the Freshmen prove of value to the Greyhounds later on and those who are left form a nucleus for Thorobreds 1941-42 Model.

APOLOGIES TO EUGENE FIELD

Our fine Greyhounds are covered with dust,
But sturdy and staunch they stand.
Our dear Coach Collier is filled with fuss
With the brown football in his hands.
Time was when our uniforms were new,
And the Greyhounds were passing fair.
And that was the time when our dear old coach
Kissed them and put them there.

"Now, don't you fall when you play," he said
"And don't forget to score"
So toddling off to his trundle-bed
He dreamt of his pretty boys.
And as he was dreaming a Parisian song,
Awakened Coach Collier, too.
Oh, the hours are many, the time was long,
But the eleven Greyhounds came through. (Paris Vs.
Cynthiana).

A REGRET

Paris High we leave behind
With our troubles of all kinds
With our sorrows and our tears
And the happy carefree years;
The hours spent at every game,
With our boys all winning fame;
The helpful guidance of our teachers
To us, who are dumb little creatures;
At 3:15 the big mad rush
If you're not careful you'll be crushed.
So all of this in Paris High
We leave to those
Who are behind.

LITTLE JOHN

Friday night, March 7, while the District tournament was going on, John Argo received five surprises. Five different people brought him something to eat. Mr. Scott said the other boys working wanted to quit and become manager. Henry Keller in deep regret said that they were all meat sandwiches and it being Friday he could not eat them.

THE PARISIAN

SENIOR CLASS CALENDAR 1940-1941

SEPTEMBER

- 6—Oh back to school we came on this bright sunshiny day. Woe the day.
- 7-8-9—Poor little Sophomores what a time they did have with their locks. Only Sophomores!
- 13—The Greyhounds to Somerset did go. What do you think? They lost the game. Poor hounds.
- 24—First meeting of Beta Club. Only Seniors were present (so could talk about the rect). Intellectuals?
- 25—When all were in deep study, Marida did break her beads in Miss Batchelder's room. Drip, drip.

OCTOBER

- 4—All students waited very patiently to go to the first show of year "Tom Brown's School Days." Hallowed spuds.
- 6—Shorthand I class had lesson on what to feed animals. Personal.
- 14—All wander up to hear Kryl Symphony. Excellent.
- 16—Mrs. Shaw has class on fashions. All extremes.
- 23—English class gets locked in. A warning.
- 30—Beta Club Picnic at Claiborne Farm—new members giving "Three Little Pigs" (new version with a little Shakespeare thrown in.) The naughty little roosters.

NOVEMBER

- 30—Buck Lair stars in all stars game. Dimples in play back at Paris High.
- 30—All get out for Thanksgiving. Ghosts of many turkeys.

DECEMBER

- 6—The Greyhound get off to good start by winning first game.
- 19—Girl Reserve and Commercial Club party. Senior high had more fun than children.
- 20—Oh happy day! Christmas vacation.
- 20—Johnnie gets up Orange and Black Orchestra and says its plain to see that it speaks for itself.

JANUARY

- 12—Examination to see how much we know. And how little.
- 24—First debate (Frenchburg won four and lost four). Was Mi's Noland proud?

FEBRUARY

- 10—Oh, how the Seniors did laugh to see the Shakespeare plays.

MARCH

- 8—How the Greyhounds did sail through the district tournament.
- 10—Junior High Thoroughbreds end a perfect season of basketball.
- 31—Miss Batchelder returns after an illness. States she does not like hospitals.

APRIL

- 1—Turner Hinkle walks in sleep and makes a long distance telephone call.
- 4—Paris still in State Debate Tournament at Lexington.

SENIOR'S DIARY

1923—Got born.

1924—Began to walk—broke 3 vases and upset bottle of ink on my head.

1926—Can talk so I can understand myself now.

1927—Started kindergarten—met cutest boy—tall, dark, and handsome.

1930—New boy moved next door—phooey to tall, dark, and handsome (?).

1932—Decided to marry boy next door when I get a little older.

1933—Stated taking piano lessons—learned to play chopsticks—knew enough and quit.

1934—Boy next door came home in uniform—think I'll join the army.

1936—Went to first formal dance—got in so late didn't get to bed till 12:00—whew!

1938—Boy next door got married—oh well, don't think I'd have liked army life anyway.

1939—Had to go to the office for flirting with boy across the aisle.

1941—Graduated—At last! !

... JOKES ...

Bill—"Where do the bugs go in the winter?"

Nick—"Search me."

Bill—"No, thanks. Just wanted to know."

Dinner Guest—"Will you pass the nuts, professor?"

Mr. Scott—"I suppose so, but I really should flunk most of them."

Voice (on Stage): "Romeo, Romeo, where art thou, Romeo."

Butch (from afar): "I'm in the balcony - it's cheaper."

Paulie—"Since I met you I can't sleep, I can't eat, I can't eat."

Marida—"Why not?"

Paulie—"I'm broke."

Mace (usher) was in the dentist's chair. "Now, sir" asked the dentist, "which tooth is giving you all the troubles?"

"Second from left in the balcony," he replied.

Billy Harris—"Were you ever bothered with athlete's foot?"

Billy Woodford—"Yes, once when the captain of the football team caught me dating his girl."

Miss Clotfelter—"What three words are used most among college students?"

Bobby Insko—"I don't know."

Miss Clotfelter—"Correct."

Miss Isgrig—"Name three articles containing starch."

Buck—"Two cuffs and a collar."

Francis Kennedy—"My picture was in all the home-town papers last week."

Matt Lair—"How much reward do they offer?"

John Gravitt (the perfect gentleman): "So sorry I bumped into you. I didn't see you."

Sally Mac: "Flatterer."

Sara: "My face is my fortune."

Jack: "Well, never mind that. The richest people aren't always the happiest."

Nick: "I guess you've been cut with worse looking fellows than I am, haven't you?"

No Answer.

Nick: "I say, I guess you've been cut with worse looking fellows than I am, haven't you?"

Faith Hall: "I was just trying to think."

Jane: "Were you presented at Court in England?"

Miss Batchelder: "Yes, for driving on the wrong side of the street."

Mr. Scott: "Yes, I have had some terrible disappointments. None stands out over the years like the one that came to me when I was a boy."

Fred Poplin: "And what was it?"

Mr. Scott: "When I was a boy I crawled under a tent to see a circus and discovered it was a revival meeting."

Bobby Insko at a banquet took pains to make himself agreeable to a Chinaman sitting next to him. Somewhat at a loss for small talk he ventured, after the first course, to inquire, "Likee Soupee?"

There was no reply except a genial beam. After the next course he followed up his first opening with, "Likee Fishee." This brought out a still more genial beam.

Later in the evening the visitor from the Far East responded to a toast in perfect English.

On resuming his seat he asked Bobby, "likee speechee?"

Nancy H.: "I wish God had made me a boy."

Butch: "He did. I'm he."

Miss Noland: "Robert Burns wrote 'To a Field Mouse.'"

Voice (from rear of room): "Did he get an answer?"

Louise Sanders: "Do you believe in love at first sight?"

Ruth Smith: "That depends entirely upon the sight."

...JOKES...

Miss Batchelder: "Evin, tell the class something about Lindberg's great feat."

Evin M.: "I never saw them, but I can tell about Charlie Chaplin's."

Billy Harris: "Ma, I got a hundred in school today."

Mrs. Harris: "Fine! What subject did you get a hundred in?"

Billy H.: "Two, 60 in Algebra and 40 in Latin."

To a pupil sitting idly in school.

Miss Noland: "Why aren't you taking your English test?"

Jack Letton: "I ain't got no pen."

Miss Noland: "Where is your grammar?"

Jack L.: "She's dead."

Clifton H.: "She gave you a dirty look."

Newt C.: "Who?"

Clifton H.: "Mother Nature."

Billy Haggard: "That horse knows as much as I do."

Charles Roberts: "Well, don't tell anybody. Your father might want to sell him some day."

Buck: "Do you think you could care for a chap like me?"

Dorothy: "You, if he was not too much like you."

Mr. Scott—"What is the theorem for today?"

Mike—"I pass."

Mr. Scott—"You're mistaken. You flunk."

Jack Adair—"What is the surest cure for love at first sight?"

Johnnie Argo—"Second sight."

Miss Noland—"Correct the sentence: Girls is naturally better looking than boys!"

Received on paper—"Girls is artificially better looking than boys."

Frank S.—"Did you hear about the fellow who invented a device for looking through walls?"

Jimmie—"No, I didn't. What does he call it?"

Frank S.—"A window."

Miss Noland—"What are you late for?"

David Isgrig—"Er—class, I suppose."

Louise B.—"Why are you reducing?"

Billy D.—"Oh, to cut down expenses."

Faith H.—"I saw something last night I'll never get over."

Martha B.—"You did? What was it?"

Faith H.—"The Moon."

Martha B.—"You and who else?"

Bill B. to Lida (Rushing from Beta Club assembly while in Louisville)—"Come on! Let's go over to Procter and Gemb'e. A bar of ivory soap just sank and they need help."

Dorcas D.—"Any fashions in the paper, papa?"

Mr. Dawes—"Yes, but they are no use to you. It's yesterday's paper."

Junior expressed his intelligence in history class by calling Bunker Hill - Bunder Hill.

Mr. Shaw: Your neck reminds me of a typewriter.

Mace: Why?

Mrs. Shaw: It's Underwood.

Johnny Argo: Miss Isgrig, did you ever hear a rabbit bark?

Miss Isgrig: Rabbits do not bark.

Johnny Argo: This biology book is wrong then. It says that rabbits eat cabbage and bark.

Said one ear to another ear: "We're neighbors; we live on the same block."

Jimmie H.: "When ever I'm in the dumps I get myself a new hat."

Gay: "Well, I wondered where you got them."

All men are not homeless, but some are home less than others.

Some of the books that are best bound, should be gagged.

Vanity in Geometry class—Elizabeth Ferguson: "Oh, Mr. Scott, I wish you could see my figure."
