CLASS POEM

I've written poems heretofore Now, classmates, I'm not fibbin, This poem that you're going to hear Will give you all a ribbin.

As classes go, I think you're swell I like you everyone, So don't get mad at what I say Because it's meant in fun.

John Gravitt is our lady's man His line just makes us swoon, We're hoping that our Uncle Sam Won't have to draft him soon.

We have an actress in this class Our Margaret Farmer's swell, Some day we'll see her name in lights Just like the great Cornell.

The Speaker of the house, you see Is Leonard, tho' he's kinde late, This year the teachers all agreed It's time for him to graduate.

Our Lida says she wants to be A business girl so smart. But let us hope some handsome boss For on her date book you will see Won't try to steal her heart.

An engineer is Hamlet C. He makes all kinds of gadgets right And goes to class, so they tell me Unless the moon is shining bright.

The music talent in our class Seems centered in the "B's" With Brannon, Bowles, and Biddle "Tis always sure to please.

Jane Carroll rlays the saxophone, While Holly beats the drum, And Billie bangs the cymbals. As Calvin makes things hum.

This year's sponsor's best of all She's smart and pretty too, It's very plain to see, Faith Hall, Our hats come off to you.

Folks think that Billy Joe is smart But that's a lot of hooey. The thing that really interests him Is dating Margaret Toohey.

She's late to class, this Louise Hall One always must remind her, That school goes on past 3:15 Unless someone can find her.

If Uncle Sam says no more gas How can poor Kidwell roam? He'll either have to walk right fast Or choose a girl near home.

We envy him his dimples The kind that Donald's got, But if you call him "sissy" You surely will be shot.

"Her mamma done told her" Beware of a faker, So Vivian Chisholm Is dating a Baker.

Frank Wassom's lost, oh my! ch me! For him we all must look. I have no idea where he'd be But somewhere with a book.

A majorette is Helen D. And don't that girl have luck? A handsome guy named Buck.

Ralph Burton is a studious boy And so is Coleman Burke, They're both the teachers' pride and joy 'Cause lessons they don't shirk.

John Burris is a country lad But Johnny ain't no hick, He's not too good, nor yet too bad And his line is plenty slick.

A new girl joined our class this year Michigan was her home, We're very glad to have her here Miss Eleanor Van der Laan.

A little small is Nathan Shaw But he is plenty smart, And when it comes to answers, gee! He knows them all by heart.

The Happy Hanna of the class Is Fergie loved by all. But her great weakness in the past Has been for basketball.

Pete Prather is a lad so shy. One almost hates to tease him, And so I don't think I will try For fear it will displease him.

We hear that Harney is engaged, Oh! well that cannot harm her, Because when she gets out of school She's going to be a farmer.

Two boys who love the football game Are Curtis and John Glover, They really fought to bring us fame By chasing teams to cover.

Ann Dudley has the gift of gab In speaking she'll go far, And when it comes to contest won, She's there "eight to the bar."

A well dressed boy is Bobby B. As any fool can plainly see, And when Bob smiles and winks at you, You get the jitters through and through.

A uniform, from a southern school Is the thing, says Mary Ruth, And judging from his pictures, gang I'd say she told the truth.

Mike Soshv wert and dved his hair To be in the height of fashion. But really, boys, we girls don't care If dye is put on ration.

We hate to see Mace have to go But he's been called to fight the Jap with hows like him behind the gun The victory's surely in our lap.

This girl is rather quit And her work is very good, In case her name is hard to guess Just call her Margie Woods.

In basketball when scores are low, And crowds are in a frenzy, Who lands the shot that wins the game? You're right! it's Jack McKenzie.

I've tried to paint a picture Of the class of '42. I've told you all our secrets And the things that we all do, As we prepare to leave you For to college we must start I hope you'll keep the memory Of this class withir your heart.

-M. B. B
